Venezuela Reframed Luis Fernando Angosto-Ferrández, 2015-10-15 The role of the indigenous population in the formation of the Bolivarian constitution is one of Latin America's most important untold stories Considered a beacon of twenty-first century socialism by many Venezuela is witnessing the paradoxical emergence of indigenous capitalisms as the government and various indigenous actors are driven by notions of development and enfranchisement grounded in the ideology of multiculturalism Venezuela Reframed shows that a considerable part of indigenous activism aligned with the Bolivarian governments has paved the way for development in classical social democratic terms It looks at how in opposition to sectors of the indigenous population fighting for effective autonomy many legitimate claims are being usurped to consolidate capitalist relations Boldly arguing that romanticized notions of cultural indigeneity hide growing class struggle this book is essential reading not just for those interested in Venezuela but all those interested in the prospects of democracy contemporary states and alternatives to capitalism worldwide The Palgrave Handbook of Critical Race and Gender Shirley Anne Tate, Encarnación Gutiérrez Rodríguez, 2022-03-07 This handbook unravels the complexities of the global and local entanglements of race gender and intersectionality within racial capitalism in times of MeToo BlackLivesMatter the Chilean uprising Anti Muslim racism backlash against trans and queer politics and global struggles against modern colonial femicide and extractivism Contributors chart intersectional and decolonial perspectives on race and gender research across North America Europe Latin America the Caribbean and South Africa centering theoretical understandings of how these categories are imbricated and how they operate and mean individually and together This book offers new ways to think about what is absent present and why how erasure works in historical and contemporary theoretical accounts of the complexity of lived experiences of race and gender and how as new issues arise intersectionalities re-emerge in the politics of race and gender This handbook will be of interest to students and scholars across the social sciences and humanities

Mobilization and Conflict in Multiethnic States Manuel Vogt, 2019 Why are some multiethnic countries more prone to civil violence than others This book examines the occurrence and forms of conflict in multiethnic states It presents a theory that explains not only why ethnic groups rebel but also how they rebel It shows that in extremely unequal societies conflict typically occurs in non-violent forms because marginalized groups lack both the resources and the opportunities for violent revolt In contrast in more equal but segmented multiethnic societies violent conflict is more likely The book traces the origins of these different types of multiethnic states to distinct experiences of colonial rule Settler colonialism produced persistent stratification and far-reaching cultural and economic integration of the conquered groups as for example in Guatemala the United States or Bolivia By contrast in decolonized states such as Iraq Pakistan or Sri Lanka in which independence led to indigenous self rule the colonizers divide and rule policies resulted in deeply segmented post colonial societies Combining statistical analyses with case studies based on original field research in four different countries in Sub Saharan Africa and Latin America Vogt analyzes why and how colonial legacies have led to peaceful or violent ethnic movements Indigenous Peoples and the Geographies of Power Inés Durán Matute, 2018-05-15 Tracing key trends of the global regional local interface of power In s Dur n Matute through the case of the indigenous community of Mezcala Mexico demonstrates how global political economic processes shape the lives spaces projects and identities of the most remote communities Throughout the book in depth interviews participant observations and text collection offer the reader insight into the functioning of neoliberal governance how it is sustained in networks of power and rhetorics deployed and how it is experienced People as passively and actively participate in its courses of action are being enmeshed in these geographies of power seeking out survival strategies but also constructing autonomous projects that challenge such forms of governance This book by bringing together the experience of a geopolitical locality and the literature from the Latin American Global South into the discussions within the Global Northern academia offers an original and timely transdisciplinary approach that challenges the interpretations of power and development while also prioritizing and respecting the local production of knowledge Ancestral Knowledges and Postcoloniality in Contemporary Ecuador Julia von Sigsfeld, 2022-11-04 In light of an unprecedented constitutional acknowledgement of diverse epistemologies and stipulation making the protection and advancement of so called ancestral knowledges a duty of the state this research provides an analysis of the uptake of historically subalternised knowledges by the state during the government of Rafael Correa 2007 2017 as well as of the strive for epistemic justice by peoples and nationalities organisations in the context of struggles for social change decolonisation and self determination On the basis of rich empirical material the analysis traces state discourses and practices and mechanisms to govern ancestral knowledges in the framework of the government s Knowledge Society project and delineates how leaders of peoples and nationalities organisations struggle for the decolonisation of knowledge This monograph will be of interest to those concerned with relations between peoples and nationalities and Latin American states politics of recognition and collective rights the workings of purportedly post neoliberal governments and the possibilities and limits for alternatives to development the struggle of peoples and nationalities organisations for epistemic decolonisation as well as ongoing re conceptualisations of cosmopolitanisms against restructurations of the coloniality of knowledge and being The Routledge Handbook of Political Communication in Ibero-America Andreu Casero-Ripollés, Paulo Carlos López-López, 2024-10-31 The Routledge Handbook of Political Communication in Ibero America addresses the relationship between communication politics and digital technologies in Latin American and the Iberian Peninsula a geographical space linked by social cultural and linguistic aspects In recent years digital media have been central in the dialogue established by political parties institutions the media and citizens In this hybrid space emerged certain phenomena that are of interest beaten and pressed into sexual servitude Yet this reign of terror against women not only occurs during exceptional moments of social collapse but during peacetime too As this powerful book argues violence against women should be understood as a systemic problem one for which the state must be held accountable The twelve essays in Gender Violence in Peace and War present a continuum of cases where the state enables violence against women from state sponsored torture to lax prosecution of sexual assault Some contributors uncover buried histories of state violence against women throughout the twentieth century in locations as diverse as Ireland Indonesia and Guatemala Others spotlight ongoing struggles to define the state s role in preventing gendered violence from domestic abuse policies in the Russian Federation to anti trafficking laws in the United States Bringing together cutting edge research from political science history gender studies anthropology and legal studies this collection offers a comparative analysis of how the state facilitates legitimates and perpetuates gender violence worldwide The contributors also offer vital insights into how states might adequately protect women s rights in peacetime as well as how to intervene when a state declares war on its female citizens Cómo funciona nuestra
