Serialization, Commercialization and the Children's Classics Amy Webster, 2024-12-12 An exploration of the serialization of children's classics by contemporary publishers this book digs into the impact of the practice and provides new ways of reading the corpus of British children's literature from the 20th century Amy Webster demonstrates how publishers select texts for their series which texts they omit which outliers are sometimes included and how a core group of works from the golden age of children's literature emerged The text also examines how texts are abridged and transformed from publisher to publisher through close readings of The Wind in the Willows and Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and how the repackaging of works within a series highlight issues and choices tied to key paratextual elements Analysing data through distant reading and close reading of series from Ladybird Longman Puffin and Walker Illustrated editions this book sheds light on how modern classics series are marked by variation and instability but also a reductive homogeneity Through her use of quantitative and text focused research Webster reveals how commercial motivations have created a gulf between the canonical concepts of the classic and how the term functions as a marketing tool in British children s publishing With notions of what counts as a classic compromised and complicated this book leads the call for a critical approach towards both the term classic and to reading children s classics that acknowledges how they are tied to the commercial enterprises of the children s book business     The Reading for Real Handbook Martin Coles,Colin Harrison,2002-08-27 The Reading for Real Handbook was very well received by both teachers and literacy specialists when it was published in 1992 Since its first publication there have been significant changes in the field of reading not least of which has been governmental demands for higher standards in reading and the resultant National Literacy Strategy NLS As well as providing invaluable help for teachers struggling with the National Literacy Strategy and the Literacy Hour several other new topics of interest are also addressed including teaching fiction non fiction inside and outside the Literacy Hour integrating reading writing and spelling work involving parents assessment and working with slower readers     The Junior Bookshelf ,1996     Mr Oliver's Diary Ruskin Bond,2016-10-26 A gun toting violin playing headmaster A homicidal barber A hungry leopard and about a hundred frogs on the loose Boys with a talent for pranks and jokes Mr Oliver a history teacher arrives in Simla with a trainload of hungry boys to start a new term at the prep school As he records the antics of the amazing characters there and all that they get up to we quickly realize that there is never a dull moment A fire a missing Headmaster and runaway students make sure that not a day goes by when Mr Oliver has nothing to report in his diary He writes about the eccentric teachers the girls school next door and the lovely Anjali Ramola whom he secretly admires Laugh out loud funny with a core of old world charm that is trademark Bond Mr Oliver s Diary has stories and characters that have never appeared anywhere before With his runaway wig pet shrew and endearing dry wit Mr Oliver is sure to become as well loved as those other vintage Ruskin Bond characters Uncle Ken and Rusty
