Waterloo-with-Seaforth. Public libraries,1907      General Catalogue of the Books Detroit Public Library,1889      The Pentecostal Commentary Billy M. Prewitt, A Trinitarian Exposition of the New Testament This series is designed with the serious Trinitarian Pentecostal student in mind With a foundational commitment to the inspiration and infallibility of Scripture each passage is explained in terms of its theological and practical significance In addition The distinctive Pentecostal pneumatology is sustained Key doctrines are identified and expounded Important cross references within Scripture are noted Historical connections in Church history are mentioned Erroneous teachings are scrutinized Comments are based on the King James Version The KJV text is printed in the body of the commentary With a modern style of readability

this commentary series is appropriate for anyone seeking to grow and understand the truths of Scripture and is especially helpful to pastors as well as college and seminary students

Author's Foreward

As a Pentecostal student attending a Pentecostal Bible college I went to the college bookstore to purchase my textbooks without knowing that the commentaries on my book list were written by non Pentecostals Even though my classes required commentaries from various publishers none of the publishers were Pentecostal I often wondered why a Pentecostal Bible school would use non Pentecostal commentaries for class What I did not know at the time was that there really was no such thing as a Pentecostal commentary written for and by Pentecostals Since then there have been a few Pentecostals who have written on individual books but there are significant portions of even the New Testament that have had little or no Pentecostal voice As a result serious Pentecostal students have no other choice but to learn at the feet of non Pentecostals I am not opposed to non Pentecostal commentaries Indeed I have gained considerable insights from reading such but there are two points of theology that I must consciously filter out every time I read them The most important concern to a Pentecostal is that the pneumatology the study of the Holy Spirit presented by non Pentecostals is very different than that of a Pentecostal The second point is the emphasis on Calvinistic doctrines especially eternal security with which most Pentecostals do not agree In addition there are other theological differences and substantially different hermeneutical principals that can dramatically alter the interpretation of texts in non Pentecostal ways In my studies I have always desired to have a commentary that was thoroughly Pentecostal but I never imagined that I would write one From one Pentecostal to another I hope you will find this series to be a breath of fresh Spirit anointed air

Series Preface

While it is hoped that Bible students from other theological traditions will study and benefit from its contents it is first and foremost Pentecostal As such this commentary does not include surveys of other viewpoints unless such inclusion is necessary for clarity of argument In addition with all due respect to our Charismatic brethren it may be said that this series is not meant to be inclusive of Charismatic interpretations related to pneumatology The Pentecostal Commentary series intentionally excludes views of Scripture that do not hold to its inspiration inerrancy and infallibility and also excludes modern liberal arguments of authorship date purpose and so on Traditional viewpoints on these subjects will be discussed without confusing the issue In addition 19th century criticism methods and concerns over source documents will not often be discussed In other words this series assumes that the Biblical text is as God wants it to be and that it was written by the person and at the time traditionally ascribed

Now the beloved Apostle states clearly that if we love God we will obey His commands And those commands are not difficult for us to obey After all He came to be the Savior of the world So three things show us clearly that Jesus came from God Those things are the Holy Spirit the water of Jesus baptism and the blood of His death on the cross Therefore everyone who believes in Jesus the Son of God will know that what God says is true But anyone who does not believe in God is saying that God tells lies They just do not believe the message that God told us clearly about His Son You don t want to be one of those people Truly we can trust God to help us when we turn to Him We know that He will hear us When we ask for anything that He wants us to have He listens to us This is especially true when we see another Christian doing something bad this is what we should do If it is a sin that does not cause death pray that God will help him Then God will help that person to live forever with Him We should settle it in our minds that nobody who has become a child of God continues to do wrong things Instead the Son of God keeps them safe so that Satan cannot do anything to keep them from going to heaven So I beg you says John do not put anything in this world or of this world before God
