Translation Studies Humour Studies Audiovisual Translation Media Studies and Adaptation Studies Writing Between Cultures Holly E. Martin, 2011-10-14 Hybrid narrative forms are used frequently by authors exploring or living in multicultural societies as a method of reflecting multicultural lives This timely book examines this rhetorical strategy which permits an author to bridge cultures via literary technique Strategies covered include multilingualism magical realism ironic humor the use of mythological figures from the characters heritage cultures and the presentation of different perspectives on landscapes and other spaces as related to ethnicity By investigating elements of ethnic literature comparatively this book reaches beyond the boundaries of any one ethnic group a vital quality in today s world Those Kids, Our Schools Shayla Reese Griffin, 2017-11-14 In Those Kids Our Schools Shayla Reese Griffin examines patterns of racial interaction in a large integrated high school and makes a powerful case for the frank conversations that educators could and should be having about race in schools Over three years Griffin observed students teachers and administrators in a post racial exurban high school in the Midwest In its hallways classrooms lunchrooms and staff meetings she uncovered the disturbing ways in which racial tensions and prejudices persist and are reinforced Students engaged in patterns of behavior that underscored racial hierarchies Teachers no matter how intellectually committed to equity and diversity often lacked the skills resources or authority to address racial issues while administrators failed to acknowledge racial tensions or recognize how school practices and policies perpetuated racial inequality This astute and thoughtful book offers a revealing glimpse into the world of young people struggling with the legacy of racism More important it highlights the disservice being done to all students in our schools when educators fail to critically interrogate issues of race Griffin s perceptive analysis illuminates the persistent influence of race in our education system and shows how with appropriate support teachers and students can develop the capacity to address racial issues and dynamics in schools in a frank and constructive way Laughter in Occupied Palestine Chrisoula Lionis, 2016-02-24 Though the current political situation in Palestine is more serious than ever contemporary Palestinian art and film is becoming paradoxically increasingly funny In Laughter in Occupied Palestine Chrisoula Lionis analyses both the impetus behind this shift toward laughter and its consequences arguing that laughter comes as a response to political uncertainty and the decline in nationalist hope Revealing the crucial role of laughter in responding to the failure of the peace process and ongoing occupation she unearths the potential of humour to facilitate understanding and empathy in a time of division This is the first book to provide a combined overview of Palestinian art and film showing the ways in which both art forms have developed in response to critical moments in Palestinian history over the last century These key moments Lionis argues have radically transformed contemporary Palestinian collective identity and in turn Palestinian cultural output Mapping these critical junctions beginning with the Balfour Declaration of 1917 to the Oslo Accords in 1993 she explores the historical trajectory of Palestinian art and film and explains how the failure of the peace process has led to the present proliferation of humour in Palestinian visual culture Developments in Linguistic

Humour Theory Marta Dynel, 2013-10-15 This volume presents recent developments in the linguistics of humour It depicts new theoretical proposals for capturing different humorous forms and phenomena central to humour research thereby extending its scope The 15 contributions critically survey and develop the existing interpretative models or they postulate novel theoretical approaches to humour in order to better elucidate its workings The collection of articles offers cutting edge interdisciplinary explorations encompassing various realms of linguistics semantics pragmatics stylistics cognitive linguistics and language philosophy as well as drawing on findings from other fields primarily sociology psychology and anthropology Thanks to careful overviews of the relevant background literature the papers will be of use to not only researchers and academics but also students Albeit focused on theoretical developments rather than case studies the volume is illustrated with interesting research data such as the discourse of television programmes and series films and stand up comedy as well as jokes

Representations of Refugees, Migrants, and Displaced People as the 'Other' Rui Alexandre Novais, Carlos Arcila Calderón, 2024-10-14 This book explores how 21st century media based discourses on migrants refugees and displaced people both reinforce and reconfigure existing negative stereotypes about these groups as other It is particularly pertinent considering the increasingly polarized world context and the evolving communication ecosystem with new media as privileged platforms for exclusionary narratives toward the outgroups of migrants refugees and displaced people The book's contributions encompass various methodologies and disciplines within communication studies including qualitative analyses of media representations and quantitative research on public opinion Unlike much of the existing English language scholarship on these marginalized communities this book de-centers North America and the UK to offer a global perspective focusing on regions such as continental and eastern Europe the Middle East and Persian Gulf India China Turkey Russia and Scandinavia

Homo Viator in Contemporary European Comedy Movies Artur Skweres, Adam Domalewski, 2025-09-21 Homo Viator in Contemporary European Comedy Movies explores the popular yet critically underexamined theme of travel and vacation in European comedic cinema while also engaging with urgent topics such as migration displacement and the refugee experience across various comic genres Despite the commercial success of these comedies produced after 1989 scholarly engagement with them has remained limited Authors Artur Skweres and Adam Domalewski aim to fill this gap by examining how humor becomes a powerful lens through which Europe laughs at negotiates and reimagines its borders Structured in two parts the book first focuses on the figure of the traveler homo viator and their pursuit of meaning transformation and comic adventure The second part turns to comedies centered on migrants and refugees revealing how comic genres can interrogate and even challenge dominant narratives of exclusion adaptation and mobility Unlike many traditional and contemporary media platforms that often adopt clear political stances and dismiss opposing perspectives the comedies discussed in this book offer a space where conflicting discourses can coexist highlighting comedy's unique ability to approach sensitive and contentious issues in a playful yet thought provoking manner This study shows that comedy provides a rich framework not only for exploring movement and migration related themes but also for addressing broader issues such as family dynamics spiritual growth economic struggle and shifting urban rural relationships The Cultures of Italian Migration Graziella Parati,Anthony Julian Tamburri,2011-12-28 The Cultures of Italian Migration allows the adjective Italian to qualify people s movements along diverse trajectories and temporal dimensions Discussions on migrations to and from Italy meet in that discursive space where critical concepts like home identity subjectivity and otherness eschew stereotyping This volume demonstrates that interpretations of old migrations are necessary in order to talk about contemporary Italy New migrations trace new non linear paths in the definition of a multicultural Italy whose roots are unmistakably present throughout the centuries Some of these essays concentrate on topics that are historically long term such as emigration from Italy to the Americas and southern Pacific Ocean Others focus on the more contemporary phenomena of immigration to Italy from other parts of the world including Africa This collection ultimately offers an invitation to seek out new and different modes of analyzing the migratory act Isn't that Clever Steven Gimbel,2017-06-26 Isn t That Clever provides a new account of the nature of humor the cleverness account according to which humor is intentional conspicuous acts of playful cleverness This volume asks whether there are limits to what can be said in dealing with a heckler and how do we determine whether one comedian has stolen jokes from another
