The Princeton Anthology of Writing John McPhee, Carol Rigolot, 2021-09-14 In 1957 long before colleges awarded degrees in creative nonfiction and back when newspaper writing's reputation was tainted by the fish it wrapped Princeton began honoring talented literary journalists Since then fifty nine of the finest most dedicated and most decorated nonfiction writers have held the Ferris and McGraw professorships This monumental volume harbors their favorite and often most influential works Each contribution is rewarding reading and collectively the selections validate journalism's ascent into the esteem of the academy and the reading public Necessarily eclectic and delightfully idiosyncratic the fifty nine pieces are long and short political and personal comic and deadly serious Students will be provoked by William Greider's pointed critique of the democracy industry eerily entertained by Leslie Cockburn's fraternization with the Cali cartel inspired by David K Shipler's thoughts on race unsettled by Haynes Johnson's account of Bay of Pigs survivors and moved by Lucinda Frank's essay on a mother fighting to save a child born with birth defects. Many of the essays are finely crafted portraits: Charlotte Grimes's biography of her grandmother Blair Clark's obituary for Robert Lowell and Jane Kramer's affecting story of a woman hero of the French Resistance. Other contributions to savor include Harrison Salisbury on the siege of Leningrad, Landon Jones on the 1950s, Christopher Wren on Soviet mountaineering, James Gleick on technology, Gloria Emerson on Vietnam, Gina Kolata on Fermat's last theorem, and Roger Mudd on the media. Whether approached chronologically, thematically, randomly, or as the editors order them, more intuitively, each suggests a perfect evening reading. Designed for students as well as general readers, The Princeton Anthology of Writing splendidly attests to the elegance, eloquence, and endurance of fine nonfiction. Writing

Feature Articles Mary Hogarth, 2019-04-09 Writing Feature Articles presents clear and engaging advice for students and young professionals on working as a freelance feature writer. This fifth edition not only covers producing content for print but also for digital platforms and online. Mary Hogarth offers comprehensive guidance on every aspect of feature writing, from having the initial idea and conducting market and subject research to choosing the right target audience and publishing platform and successfully pitching the article. In addition, the book instructs students on developing their own journalistic style and effectively structuring their feature. Each chapter then concludes with an action plan to help students put what they have read into practice. Topics include: Life as a freelance, Building a professional profile, Telling a story with images, Developing a specialism, Interviewing skills, Profile and interview articles, Working in publicity and advertising, A career in magazines and newspapers, Getting published overseas, Understanding issues in media law and regulation. The book also provides an extensive range of interviews with successful media professionals, including a newspaper editor, a money, health, and lifestyle journalist, a copywriter, and an award-winning columnist, where they share their own experiences of working in the industry and offer invaluable tips on best practice. The SAGE Encyclopedia of Journalism Gregory A.

Eugene Field and His Age Lewis O. Saum,2001-01-01 Eugene Field 1850 95 is perhaps best remembered for his children s verse especially Little Boy Blue and Wynken Blynken and Nod During his journalistic career however his column Sharps and Flats in the Chicago Daily News illuminated the shenanigans of local and national politics captured the excitement of baseball and praised the cultural scene of Chicago and the West over that of the East Coast and Europe Field used whimsy satire and at times unadorned admiration to depict and encapsulate the energy of a young nation reinventing itself and its political ambitions in the closing decades of the nineteenth century Foremost Field was a political observer During his lifetime politics saw more public awareness and involvement than at any other time in American history and Field s great popularity derived mainly from his near ceaseless commentary arch outlandish comic serious on that arena of affairs Field also devoted many columns to entertainment and diversions discussing the baseball idiocy that stormed Chicago and championing and criticizing authors and actors

The Language of Journalism Melvin J. Lasky, Hugely enjoyable and valuable I dropped everything else to read it A treasure Charles Wheeler senior foreign correspondent the BBC The newspaper is to the twentieth century what the novel was for the nineteenth century the expression of popular sentiment In the first of a three volume study of journalism and what it has meant as a source of knowledge and as a mechanism for orchestrating mass ideology Melvin J Lasky provides a major overview His research runs the gamut of material found in newspapers from the trivial to the profound from pseudo science to habits of solid investigation The volume is divided into four parts The first attacks deficiencies in grammar and syntax with examples from newspapers and magazines drawn from the German as well as English language press The second examines the key issues of journalism accuracy and authenticity Lasky provides an especially acute account of differences between active literacy and passive viewing or the relationship of word and picture in defining authenticity The third part emphasizes the problem of bias in everything from racial reporting to cultural correctness This is the first systematic attempt to study racial nomenclature identity labeling and literary discrimination Lasky follows closely the model set by George Orwell a half century earlier The final section of the work covers the competition between popular media and the redefinition of pornography and its language The volume closes with an examination of how the popular culture both influenced and was influential upon literary titans like Hemingway Lawrence and Tynan Melvin J Lasky was the editor of Encounter in England from 1958 until its close in 1990 It was viewed as the most brilliant European periodical of its time Lasky served as foreign correspondent for the New York Times and The Reporter and has written for many of the intellectual journals from Partisan Review to Commentary He is the author of The Hungarian Revolution Africa for Beginners Utopia and Revolution On the Barricades and Off and Voices in a Revolution H.L.
