Public Performances Jack Santino, 2017-12-15 Public Performances offers a deep and wide ranging exploration of relationships among genres of public performance and of the underlying political motivations they share Illustrating the connections among three themes the political the carnivalesque and the ritualesque this volume provides rich and comprehensive insight into public performance as an assertion of political power Contributors consider how public genres of performance express not only celebration but also dissent grief and remembrance examine the permeability of the boundaries between genres and analyze the approval or regulation of such events by municipalities and other institutions Where the particular use of public space is not sanctioned or where that use meets with hostility from institutions or represents a critique of them performers are effectively reclaiming public space to make public statements on their own terms an act of popular sovereignty Through these concepts Public Performances distinguishes the sometimes overlapping dimensions of public symbolic display Carnival and thus the carnivalesque is understood to possess tacit social permission for unconventional or even deviant performance on the grounds that normal social order will resume when the performance concludes Ritual and the ritualesque leverages a deeper symbolic sensibility one believed or at least intended by the participants to effect transformative longer term change Contributors Roger D Abrahams John Borgonovo Laurent S bastien Fournier Lisa Gilman Barbara Graham David Harnish Samuel Kinser Scott Magelssen Elena Martinez Pamela Moro Beverly J Stoeltje Daniel Wojcik Dorothy L Zinn

The Ancestress Hypothesis Kathryn Coe, 2003 In our society it has long been believed that art serves very little social purpose Evolutionary anthropologists however are examining a potential role for art in human evolution Kathryn Coe looks to the visual arts of traditional societies for clues Because they are passed down from previous generations traditional art forms such as body decoration funeral ornaments and ancestral paintings offer ways to promote social relationships among kin and codescendants of a common ancestor Mothers used art forms to anchor themselves and their kin to the father and his kin and to promote the survival and reproductive success of kin and descendants Individuals who abided by this strategy accompanied by its strict codes of cooperation left more descendants than did individuals who did not Over time given this reproductive success large numbers of individuals would be identified as codescendants of a common ancestor and would cooperate as if they were close kin These cooperative codescendants were more likely to survive and leave descendants With each new generation these clans propagated not only their genes but also their behavioral strategy the replication or presence of art The book concludes by examining the changing characteristics of visual art including a higher value on creativity competition and cost when traditional constraints on social behavior disappear

Beyond White Ethnicity Kathleen J. Fitzgerald, 2007-01-01 Through qualitative analysis of individuals Kathleen J Fitzgerald studies the social construction of racial and ethnic identity in Beyond White Ethnicity Fitzgerald focuses on Native Americans who despite a previously unacknowledged and uncelebrated background are embracing and reclaiming their heritage in their everyday lives Focusing on the purpose process and problems of this reclamation Fitzgerald s research provides an understanding of these issues She also exposes how institutional power relations are racialized and how race is a social and political construction and she helps us understand larger cultural transformations This insightful collection of research sparks the interest of those who study sociology anthropology and cultural studies

The Grace of Four Moons Pravina Shukla, 2015-10-16 Because clothing food and shelter are basic human needs they provide excellent entries to cultural values and individual aesthetics Everyone gets dressed every day but body art has not received the attention it deserves as the most common and universal of material expressions of culture The Grace of Four Moons aims to document the clothing decisions made by ordinary people in their everyday lives Based on fieldwork conducted primarily in the city of Banaras India Pravina Shukla conceptualizes and realizes a total model for the study of body art understood as all aesthetic modifications and supplementations to the body Shukla urges the study of the entire process of body art from the assembly of raw materials and the manufacture of objects through their sale and the interactions between merchants and consumers to the consumer's use of objects in creating personal decoration

Memory Effects Dora Apel, 2002 Dora Apel analyzes the ways in which artists born after the Holocaust whom she calls secondary witnesses represent a history they did not experience first hand She demonstrates that contemporary artists confront these atrocities in order to bear witness not to the Holocaust directly but to its memory effects and to the implications of those effects for the present and future Drawing on projects that employ a variety of unorthodox artistic strategies the author provides a unique understanding of contemporary representations of the Holocaust She demonstrates how these artists frame the past within the conditions of the present the subversive use of documentary and the archive the effects of the Jewish genocide on issues of difference and identity and the use of representation as a form of resistance to historical closure
