

School is Out

by Lenore Hetrick

I'm practical – that's what I am!
And I know why I like the month of May.
I like it lots, for that is the month
We celebrate our last school day.
Let the others have all the fits and spells
About the beauties of the season,
But I like May 'cause school is out –
And I'm not ashamed to tell my reason!

Pupil Poems:

The Pupil W. S. Merwin, 2002-10-15 From the Pulitzer Prize winning author and one of the greatest poets of our age the Thoreau of our era Edward Hirsch comes a volume of astonishing range and extraordinary beauty a major literary event that captures the spiritual anguish of our time Hailed by Peter Davison in the Boston Sunday Globe as a poet who engages the underground stream of our lives at depths that only two or three living poets can match W S Merwin now gives us The Pupil These are poems of great lyrical intensity concerned with darkness and light with the seasons and with the passing of time across landscapes that are both vast and minutely imagined They capture the bittersweet joys of vanishing wilderness anger at our political wrong doings the sensuality that memory can engender Here are remembrances of the poet's youth lyrics on the loss of loved ones echoes from the surfaces of the natural world Here too is the poet's sense of a larger mystery we know from the beginning that the darkness is beyond us there is no explaining the dark it is only the light that we keep feeling a need to account for from The Marfa Lights Passionate rigorous and quietly profound The Pupil is an essential addition to the canon of contemporary American poetry a book that finds W S Merwin's singularly resonant voice at the height of its power
