and Schleswig Holstein administered the European student questionnaire to target grade students The purpose of the European student questionnaire is to explore specific European related civic and citizenship issues derived from the overarching ICCS 2022 assessment framework It includes questions on students opinions on European related civic and citizenship issues such as students sense of European identity students opportunities for learning about Europe students attitudes toward free movement of European citizens the European Union and cooperation among European countries It also includes questions on students sustainable behaviors and those related to political consumerism ICCS 2022 data allows education systems to evaluate the strengths of educational policies and measure progress in their educational policies

Internationalisation in Secondary Education in Europe Henk Oonk, Ralf Maslowski, Greetje van der Werf, 2011-08-01 The scope of the book is an integrated discussion of several aspects of the internationalisation process in secondary education in Europe The European and International Orientation EIO in education is dealt with from different national angles and theoretical visions supported by recently conducted empirical studies in several countries The book describes national policies concerning EIO the way in which schools implement these policies and the success and difficulties of the activities that they undertake A connection is made with ideas of citizenship in a European perspective and the question comes up for discussion if there can be spoken of common European values Important issues are explored like the tension between national identity and European communality as well as the risk of EIO in increasing the gap between lower and higher educated students The mission of the book is provide not only background information to all who are interested in or involved in internationalisation of education social integration and European citizenship but to provide recommendations for future practice as well A central focus in these recommendations is the Common Framework for Europe Competence CFEC the first model that offers the possibility to structurally shape the knowledge and skills concerning the European and international developments in the school Directions for future elaboration of this framework and its implementation in the teaching and learning process in schools are discussed

Revisiting Insider-Outsider Research in Comparative and International Education Michael Crossley, Lore Arthur, Elizabeth McNess, 2015-11-01 This volume recognises how many researchers across the social sciences and in comparative and international education in particular see themselves as insiders or outsiders or more pertinently shifting combinations of both in the research process The book revisits and problematises these concepts in an era where the global mobility of researchers and ideas has increased dramatically and when advances in comparative qualitative research methodologies seek to be more inclusive collaborative participatory reflexive and nuanced Collectively the chapters argue that in the context of such change it has become more difficult to categorise and label groups and individuals as being inside or outside systems professional communities or research environments In doing so it is recognised that individual and group identities can be multiple flexible and changing such that the boundary between the inside and the outside is permeable less stable and less easy to draw The book draws upon an exciting collection of original research carried out in a diversity of educational systems from British European Latin American Indian Ocean South Asian African and Chinese contexts and cultures This develops a deep and innovative reconsideration of key issues that must be faced by all researchers involved in the planning and conduct of in depth field research This is a challenging and stimulating methodological contribution designed to advance critical and reflective thinking while providing practical and accessible guidance insights and support for new and experienced researchers within and beyond the field of comparative and international education
