Purchased Wife:

The purchased wife Michelle Reid, 2005 Slave-Wives, Single Women and "Bastards" in the Ancient Greek World Morris Silver, 2018-01-31 Greek scholars have produced a vast body of evidence bearing on nuptial practices that has yet to be mined by a professional economist By standing on their shoulders the author proposes and tests radically new interpretations of three important status groups in Greek history the pallak the nothos and the hetaira It is argued that legitimate marriage marriage by loan of the bride to the groom was not the only form of legal marriage in classical Athens and the ancient Greek world generally Pallakia marriage by sale of the bride to the groom was also legally recognized The pallak wifeship transaction is a sale into slavery with a restrictive covenant mandating the employment of the sold woman as a wife In this highly original and challenging new book economist Morris Silver proposes and tests the hypothesis that the likelihood of bride sale rises with increases in the distance between the ancestral residence of the groom and the father s household Nothoi the bastard children of pallakai lacked the legal right to inherit from their fathers but were routinely eligible for Athenian citizenship It is argued that the basic social meaning of hetaira companion is not prostitute or courtesan but single woman a woman legally recognized as being under her own authority kuria The defensive adaptation of single women is reflected in Greek myth and social practice by their grouping into packs most famously the Daniads and Amazons
