Korean Buddhist Nuns and Laywomen Eun-su Cho,2012-01-02 Uncovering hidden histories this book focuses on Korean Buddhist nuns and laywomen from the fourth century to the present Today South Korea s Buddhist nuns have a thriving monastic community under their own control and they are well known as meditation teachers and social service providers However little is known of the women who preceded them Using primary sources to reveal that which has been lost forgotten or willfully ignored this work reveals various figures milieux and activities of female adherents clerical and lay Contributors consider examples from the early days of Buddhism in Korea during the Three Kingdoms and Unified Silla periods first millennium CE the Kory period 982 1392 when Buddhism flourished as the state religion the Chos n period 1392 1910 when Buddhism was actively suppressed by the Neo Confucian Court and the contemporary resurgence of female monasticism that began in the latter part of the twentieth century

Pure Human Gregg Braden,2025-01-28 In an age where technologies such as AI threaten to supplant human intelligence an award winning scientist offers a radical new view of our innate human technology and what we re truly capable of There are rare moments in time when we make choices that irreversibly change the world and our lives forever Today is one of those moments Scientists engineers and philosophers alike warn us that without a radical shift in our thinking we are on track to be the last generation of pure humans that the world will know Within a single generation we will devolve into a hybrid species of synthetic bodies Artificial Intelligence AI and computer chips that limit our ability to think to love and to adapt to the conditions of the emerging world in a healthy way In doing so we will also lose our capacity for emotion empathy intimacy and forgiveness the very qualities that we value and cherish in our humanness The question that we face is simple Do we love ourselves enough to preserve the gift of our humanness Our answer is based upon the way we've been taught to think of ourselves This book is a compelling journey of self discovery that will catapult you beyond conventional thinking when it comes to your origins your limits and most importantly the abilities that have been hidden from you for centuries and the extraordinary potential that awaits as you embrace them

A Panenmentalist Philosophy of Literature, or How Does Actual Reality Imitate Pure Possibilities? Amihud Gilead, 2019-05-14 The relationship between the literary imagination literary possibilities and actual reality poses a major philosophical problem in the field of the metaphysics of literature This detailed analysis of some literary masterpieces by Proust Kafka Tolstoy Dostoyevsky Thomas Mann Virginia Woolf and William Faulkner demonstrates that actual reality actualizes or imitates literary pure possibilities As such these masterpieces should be treated not as romances but instead as paradigm cases on whose basis we grasp and understand actual reality

Changing Faith Michael Hidalgo, 2015-04-10 Many of us are grappling with questions How much can we know about God Who decides what is right and what is wrong Do I need God to live a life that matters We ask these questions not because we reject faith in God but because we live in a rapidly changing world of new realities new technology and new insights And that changes how we believe

Did God Really? Say Heino Weidmann, 2022-01-20 Jesus Christ is calling you personally to walk on water with Him If you are already doing it you will know why If you are not doing it yet you will know how If you think you can't let us convince you otherwise In this book you'll get a solid foundation from the Bible What has God promised every Christian And what has he not said And how can what he has said become a reality in your life In any case you will study the Word of God intensively as never before To sum up the message of these pages in one sentence is this Jesus Christ saves from the power of sin Doesn't every serious Christian believe that No hardly any serious Christian believes that In practice we believe Jesus saves us from the guilt of sin And mostly from greater sins But not from lesser sins And not so that we can truly and fundamentally have victory over sin Behind this is a theological system of unbelief inspired by the words of the serpent Did God really say Instead of believing our heart and the Scriptures in our theology we place ourselves outside of Christ in prison walls of unbelief on which hopelessness stands as a sentry watching that no one escapes from the dungeon of eternal defeat before sin And the fortress of evil thus fortified can only be broken open and destroyed by the explosive power of the united words of God Can we not live liberated through Jesus Christ to the glory of the Father without having to weep every day over 1000 failures Do we not have a Savior who contends and conquers for us Let us set out for a Reformation 2020 If you are already following Jesus and longing as a child of God to experience the power of your Savior in your everyday life then read
