Pursued By Furies A Life Of Malcolm Lowry:

Pursued by Furies Gordon Bowker, 2015-03-12 Malcolm Lowry was the troubled author of Under the Volcano 1947 a brilliant novel about the last day of an alcoholic former British consul on the Mexican Day of the Dead the manuscript of which Lowry rescued from the flames when his fisherman's shack burned down in 1944 Lowry's other books were not always so lucky his first novel Ultramarine 1930 was stolen after four years composition and resurrected from a carbon copy another manuscript In Ballast to the White Sea was destroyed in the 1944 fire An early draft of In Ballast was discovered this century and published in 2014 Lowry's life like his work was often lost to chaos Gordon Bowker's 1994 biography is a masterful account of a life spent adrift

The Kaleidoscopic Vision of Malcolm Lowry Nigel H. Foxcroft, 2019-10-28 The Kaleidoscopic Vision of Malcolm Lowry Souls and Shamans is an interdisciplinary investigation of the multifaceted intuitive insight of international modernist writer Malcolm Lowry through an analysis of a selection of works and correspondence Nigel H Foxcroft analyzes his psychogeographic perception of the interconnectedness of East West cultures and civilizations in terms of pre Columbian Mesoamerican customs the Mexican Day of the Dead festival the Atlantis myth surrealism and Russian literary filmic and political influences He traces his intellectual efforts in pursuing philosophical and cosmic knowledge to bridge the gap between the natural sciences and the humanities This monograph identifies Lowry's attempts to reintegrate modernism with primitivism in his quest for an elixir of life for the survival of humanity on the brink of global catastrophe as indicated in In Ballast to the White Sea and Under the Volcano It also examines his sustained endeavors to attain psychoanalytical atonement with himself and his environment in Ultramarine Swinging the Maelstrom The Forest Path to the Spring and October Ferry to Gabriola It also discusses the odyssey on which Lowry and his literary protagonists embark to connect with the past and to gain a deeper insight into human nature in Dark as the Grave Wherein My Friend is Laid La Mordida and Through the Panama Scholars of cultural studies history humanities Latin American studies literature and Russian studies will find this book particularly useful

Maritime Poetics Caroline Wiedmer, 2021-04-16 In the past fifty years port cities around the world have experienced considerable changes to their morphologies and their identities The increasing intensification of global networks and logistics and the resulting pressure on human societies and earthly environments have been characteristic of the rise of a planetary age This volume engages with contemporary artistic practices and critical poetics that trace an alternate construction of the imaginaries and aspirations of our present societies at the crossroads of sea and land taking into account complex pasts and interconnected histories transnational flux as well as material and immaterial borders

Translocated Modernisms Emily Ballantyne, Marta Dvořák, Dean Irvine, 2016-10-04 Translocated Modernisms is a collection of ten chapters partitioned into sections and framed by an introduction by the editors and a coda by Kit Dobson which is interested in those who thronged to the vibrant streets cafés and salons of Montparnasse those who stayed such as Brion Gysin and Mavis Gallant those who returned home such as Morley Callaghan

John Glassco David Silverberg and Sheila Watson and those who galvanized local cultural practices by appropriating and translating them from elsewhere While for some Paris becomes a permanent home for others it is simply a temporary excursion which can last for months or for many years The collection opens up the Lost Generation to include multiple generations and broadens its ambit to encompass modernist writers placed under erasure by dominant narratives of Anglo American modernism Instead of limiting the category to a single group based on a collective identity this volume considers lost generations as a particular type of modernist identity attributable to multiple and disparate collectivities These lost generations include those excluded from canonical narrativizations of expatriate modernisms among which we spy the glimmer of other modernists living in the shadows of luminaries long recognized in the Anglo American tradition

Classical Hollywood, American Modernism Jordan Brower, 2024-01-18 Classical Hollywood American Modernism charts the entwined trajectories of the Hollywood studio system and literary modernism in the United States By examining the various ways Hollywood's industry practices inflected the imaginations of authors filmmakers and studios Jordan Brower offers a new understanding of twentieth century American and ultimately world media culture Synthesizing archival research with innovative theoretical approaches this book tells the story of the studio system's genesis international dominance decline and continued symbolic relevance during the American postwar era through the literature it influenced It examines the American film industry's business practices and social conditions demonstrating how concepts like anticipated adaptation corporate authorship systemic development and global distribution inflected the form of some of the greatest works of prose fiction and nonfiction by modernist writers such as Anita Loos F Scott Fitzgerald William Faulkner Patsy Ruth Miller Nathanael West Parker Tyler Malcolm Lowry and James Baldwin

The Way That Leads Among the Lost Angela Garcia, 2024-04-30 Based on over a decade of research a powerful moving work of narrative nonfiction that illuminates the little known world of the anexos of Mexico City the informal addiction treatment centers where mothers send their children to escape the violence of the drug war The Way That Leads Among the Lost reveals a hidden place where care and violence are impossible to separate the anexos of Mexico City The prizewinning anthropologist Angela Garcia takes us deep into the world of these small rooms informal treatment centers for alcoholism addiction and mental illness spread across Mexico City's tenements and reaching into the United States Run and inhabited by Mexico's most marginalized populations they are controversial for their illegality and their use of coercion Yet for many Mexican families desperate to keep their loved ones safe these rooms offer something of a refuge from what lies beyond them the intensifying violence surrounding the drug war This is the first book ever written on the anexos Garcia who spent a decade conducting anthropological fieldwork in Mexico City draws readers into their many dimensions casting light on the mothers and their children who are entangled in this hidden world Following the stories of its denizens she asks what these places are why they exist and what they reflect about Mexico and the wider world With extraordinary empathy and a sharp eye for detail Garcia attends to the lives that the anexos

both sustain and erode wrestling with the question of why mothers turn to them as a site of refuge even as they reproduce violence Woven into these portraits is Garcia's own powerful story of family childhood homelessness and drugs a blend of ethnography and memoir converging on a set of fundamental questions about the many forms and meanings that violence love care family and hope may take Infused with profound ethnographic richness and moral urgency The Way That Leads Among the Lost is a stunning work of narrative nonfiction a book that will leave a deep mark on readers

Challenging Addiction in Canadian Literature and Classrooms Cara Fabre, 2016-11-14 In the richly interdisciplinary study Challenging Addiction in Canadian Literature and Classrooms Cara Fabre argues that popular culture in its many forms contributes to common assumptions about the causes and personal and social implications of addiction Recent fictional depictions of addiction significantly refute the idea that addiction is caused by poor individual choices or solely by disease through the connections the authors draw between substance use and poverty colonialism and gender based violence With particular interest in the pervasive myth of the Drunken Indian Fabre asserts that these novels reimagine addiction as social suffering rather than individual pathology or moral failure Fabre builds on the growing body of humanities research that brings literature into active engagement with other fields of study including biomedical and cognitive behavioural models of addiction medical and health policies of harm reduction and the practices of Alcoholics Anonymous The book further engages with critical pedagogical strategies to teach critical awareness of stereotypes of addiction and to encourage the potential of literary analysis as a form of social activism

The War Against Cliche Martin Amis, 2014-09-17 NATIONAL BOOK CRITICS CIRCLE AWARD WINNER In this virtuosic career spanning collection Martin Amis one of the most gifted novelists of his generation TIME takes on James Joyce and Elvis Presley Nabokov and English football Jane Austen and Penthouse Forum William Burroughs and Hillary Clinton and more Written with intelligence and ardor and panache Speaks not just to a lifetime of reading but also to a fascination with individual writers The New York Times Here Amis serves up fresh assessments of the classics and plucks neglected masterpieces off their dusty shelves Above all Amis is concerned with literature and with the deadly clichés not only of the pen but of the mind and the heart He tilts with Cervantes Dickens and Milton celebrates Bellow Updike and Elmore Leonard and deflates some of the most bloated reputations of the past three decades On every page Amis writes with jaw dropping felicity wit and a subversive brilliance that sheds new light on everything he touches

The Making of Malcolm Lowry's Under the Volcano Frederick Asals, 1997 Ten years in the making Under the Volcano is the best known work of writer Malcolm Lowry Published first in 1947 it is a brilliant moving and complex novel perhaps the last fictional masterpiece to emerge from the modernist movement As the years went by Lowry's obsessive rewriting took him further and further into his book which changed relatively little in the outer semblance of action and main characters but became utterly transformed in texture from the thin and mediocre version of 1940 to the rich tapestry of 1947 The numerous manuscripts allow a look at the processes by which Lowry created not only his masterwork

but also his own reputation as a modernist genius This study offers an extended examination of individual drafts as the novel slowly developed and in a final chapter an appraisal of the implications of Lowry's revisions for the book as published an appraisal that suggests bases for new readings of Under the Volcano Into the Heart of the Fire James K. Hopkins, 1998 This book examines the experience of the British volunteers in the Spanish Civil War and places them in a broad intellectual political social and cultural framework Many Wests David M. Wrobel, Michael C. Steiner, 1997 What does it mean to live in the West today Do people tend to identify with states with regions or with the larger West This book examines the development of regional identity in the American West demonstrating that it is a regionally diverse entity made up of many different wests Great Plains Southwest Rocky Mountains and more in which American regionalism finds its fullest expression These fourteen original essays tell how a sense of place emerged among residents of various regions and how a sense of those places was developed by people outside of them Wrobel and Steiner first offer a compelling overview of the West's regional nature then thirteen other rising or renowned scholars from history American Studies geography and literature tell how regional consciousness formed among inhabitants of particular regions All of the essays address the larger issue of the centrality of place in determining social and cultural forms and individual and collective identities Some focus on race and culture as the primary influences on regional consciousness while others emphasize environmental and economic factors or the influence of literature Some even examine western regionalism in areas that lie beyond the West as it has traditionally been conceived Each of the contributors believes that where a people live helps determine what they are and they write not only about the many wests within the larger West but also about the constant state of flux in which regionalism exists Many books speak of the West as a place but few others deal with the West's different places Many Wests presents a vision of the West that reflects both the common heritage and unique character of each major subregion building on the revisionist impulse of the last decade to help redirect New Western History toward an appreciation of regional diversity and integrate scholarship in the regional subfields It is a book for everyone who lives in studies or loves the West for it confirms that it is home to very different peoples economies histories and regions The Dedalus Book of Literary Suicides Gary Lachman, 2024-05-20 Lachman's goal to write a book on writers who had killed themselves or had tried to or had written about suicide at some length or depth would be immense To qualify the author requires the suicide to be in some way interesting Thus we have the philosopher Philipp Mainländer who killed himself because of the second law of thermodynamics Zeno who purportedly hanged himself after stubbing his toe on a turtle and Yukio Mishima's sensational and bloody hara kiri performance Suicides are arranged by type Existential suicides brought on by metaphysical issues emotionally rich Romantic suicides political suicides manic depressive mortal coil shuffling à la Sylvia Plath and the bizarre and often nonchalant suicides of many Surrealists Lachman focuses on little known or forgotten characters such as Polish avant garde figure Witkacy Thomas Chatterton the original tragic Romantic genius narcissistic publisher Harry Crosby and the tormented Austrian poet Georg Trakl The second part of Dead Letters is a selection of writings about suicide whose real value lies in Lachman's research and his knack of smoothly relating obscure biographical tidbits and philosophical ideas This work on a grim subject never becomes overly morbid and Lachman remains respectful of his troubled subjects Suicide is not recommended but this volume surely is a splendid summary of self destruction Mike Pursley in Fortean Times A Dark Muse Gary Lachman,2009-09-09 The occult was a crucial influence on the Renaissance and it obsessed the popular thinkers of the day But with the Age of Reason occultism was sidelined only charlatans found any use for it Occult ideas did not disappear however but rather went underground It developed into a fruitful source of inspiration for many important artists Works of brilliance sometimes even of genius were produced under its influence In A Dark Muse Lachman discusses the Enlightenment obsession with occult politics the Romantic explosion the futuristic occultism of the fin de siècle and the deep occult roots of the modernist movement Some of the writers and thinkers featured in this hidden history of western thought and sensibility are Emanuel Swedenborg Charles Baudelaire J K Huysmans August Strindberg William Blake Goethe Madame Blavatsky H G Wells Edgar Allan Poe and Malcolm Lowry Malcolm Lowry's Poetics of Space Richard J. Lane,Miguel Mota,2016-10-18 This collection focuses on Lowry's spatial dynamics from the psychogeography of the Letterist and the Situationist International through musical forms especially jazz cinema photography and spatial poetic writing to the spaces of exception bio politics and the creaturely It presents previously unpublished essays by both established and new international Lowry scholars as well as innovative ways of conceiving of his aesthetic practice In each of the book's three sections critics engage in the notion of Lowry as a multi media artist who influenced and was deeply influenced by a broad range of modernist and early postmodernist aesthetic practices Acutely aware of and engaged in the world of film sensitive to the role of the graphical surface in advertising and propaganda and deeply immersed in a vast range of literary traditions and the avant garde Lowry worked within an intertextual space that is also a mediascape one which tends to transgress or at least exceed neatly controlled borders or aesthetic boundaries These new approaches to Lowry's life and work which make use of new and recent theoretical perspectives will encourage fresh debate around Lowry's writing Published in English

Encyclopedia of British Writers, 1800 to the Present George Stade,Karen Karbiener,2010-05-12 Contains alphabetically arranged entries that provide biographical and critical information on major and lesser known nineteenth and twentieth century British writers and includes articles on key schools of literature and genres Lives of the Novelists John Sutherland,2012-03-27 No previous author has attempted a book such as this a complete history of novels written in the English language from the genre's seventeenth century origins to the present day In the spirit of Dr Johnson's Lives of the Poets acclaimed critic and scholar John Sutherland selects 294 writers whose works illustrate the best of every kind of fiction from gothic penny dreadful and pornography to fantasy romance and high literature Each author was chosen Professor Sutherland explains because his or her books are well worth reading and are likely to remain so for at least another century

Sutherland presents these authors in chronological order in each case deftly combining a lively and informative biographical sketch with an opinionated assessment of the writer's work. Taken together these novelists provide both a history of the novel and a guide to its rich variety. Always entertaining and sometimes shocking, Sutherland considers writers as diverse as Daniel Defoe, Henry James, James Joyce, Edgar Allan Poe, Virginia Woolf, Michael Crichton, Jeffrey Archer, and Jacqueline Susann. Written for all lovers of fiction, Lives of the Novelists succeeds both as introduction and re-introduction as Sutherland presents favorite and familiar novelists in new ways and transforms the less favored and less familiar through his relentlessly fascinating readings.

Writing the Lives of Writers Warwick Gould, T. Staley, 1998-07-15. Writing the Lives of Writers ponders that strange ventriloquized dialogue between biographers and their subjects, a dialogue all the stranger when the subject is a writer. It contains 22 essays by internationally distinguished scholars and biographers including Martin C. Battestin, Isobel Grundy, John Haffenden, Hermione Lee, Lawrence Lipking, Ray Monk, Hazel Rowley, Max Saunders, Martin Stannard, and John Worthen. They tackle the lives of Chaucer, Tyndale, More, Fielding, and Lady Mary Wortley Montagu, Wordsworth, Henry James, Ford Madox Ford, Yeats, Lawrence, Dorothy Richardson, Virginia Woolf, Malcolm Lowry, F. R. Leavis, Richard Wright, and Brian Penton.

Anna Wickham Jennifer Vaughan Jones, 2003. Based on new documents and family correspondence and including twenty complete poems, this marvelous biography chronicles the life of British poet Anna Wickham.

Three German Women Erika Esau, 2021-05-11. This book presents the life stories of three women of the German-speaking realm whose lives inspired the author directly: mathematician Maria Weber, Steinberg, 1919-2013; journalist Irmgard Rexroth, Kern, 1907-1983; and Viennese art historian Fr. Dr. Anna von Spitzmüller, 1903-2001. The lives of these three women serve as emotional mirrors to the cultural transformations and tumultuous history of the 20th century. Their stories tell of the hardships, struggles, and victories of intellectual European women in this era. Each woman was related to men who played a prominent role in European cultural life, men who received some recognition in history books. As intellectual professionals, these women in contrast received very few public accolades for their important achievements. Placing them in the cultural context of the times in Germany and Austria, the book highlights the traumatic choices imposed on ordinary people by political and social circumstances over which they had no control. Along with the women's individual stories, the chapters focus on overarching themes including educated women's roles in European society, narratives of perseverance in confronting Nazism, and specific historical background describing the incidents affecting their life trajectories.

Hemingway's Brain Andrew Farah, 2025-04-17. A forensic psychiatrist's corrective and innovative diagnosis of the conditions that led to Ernest Hemingway's suicide. Hemingway's Brain is the first forensic psychiatric examination of Nobel Prize-winning author Ernest Hemingway. Andrew Farah argues that despite popular mythology, the writer was not manic-depressive, and his alcohol abuse and characteristic narcissism were indicators of a wholly different pathology. Assessing biographies, letters, memoirs of friends and family, and even Hemingway's FBI file, Farah has crafted a uniquely compelling narrative of Hemingway's illness Throughout Hemingway's Brain Farah explores the genetic influences, traumatic brain injuries, and neurological and psychological forces that resulted in what many have described as Hemingway's tortured final years The paperback edition includes a new preface from the author and updates to the text reflecting the latest scientific advances in the study, prevention, and treatment of traumatic brain injuries
