Henry James and the Art of Dress C. Hughes, 2001-01-29 Henry James was fascinated by clothing and dress This book examines for the first time the role of dress in reinforcing thematic and symbolic patterns in James's fictional world Hughes traces a development from the significance of dress in discussion of the American Girl in the early works through dress as an indicator of social position to the emergence of the more unstable and threatening aspects of dress which culminate in the strange case of the coat of changing colours in The Sense of the Past Making Art With Generative AI Tools Hai-Jew, Shalin, 2024-04-01 In the dynamic realm of generative artificial Intelligence AI the fusion of human creativity and machine intelligence has created a vibrant ecosystem of collaborative artmaking However this transformative process brings forth a myriad of concerns ranging from ethical considerations and the need for originality to navigating the legal complexities surrounding intellectual property As more and more online communities appear around the use of AI to aid in the creation of images there arises a pressing need for a comprehensive guide that not only dissects the intricacies of artmaking with generative AI tools but also offers practical solutions to the evolving dilemmas faced by artists researchers and technologists Making Art With Generative AI Tools emerges as an exploration of the challenges posed by this intersection of human expression and artificial intelligence Artists engaging with generative AI find themselves grappling with issues of authenticity social toxicity and the commercial viability of their creations From avoiding stereotypical visuals to ensuring proper crediting the realm of generative AI is rife with these complexities Furthermore the blurred lines between human and machine authorship necessitate a deeper exploration of how these innovative tools impact creativity representation and the very fabric of the art world The Art-makers Russell Lynes, 1982-01-01 Eakins Hunt French Morse Trumbull et al and their struggle to make art respectable in 19th century America 211 illus The Art of Classic Planning Nir Haim Buras, 2020-01-28 An accomplished architect and urbanist goes back to the roots of what makes cities attractive and livable demonstrating how we can restore function and beauty to our urban spaces for the long term Nearly everything we treasure in the world's most beautiful cities was built over a century ago Cities like Prague Paris and Lisbon draw millions of visitors from around the world because of their exquisite architecture walkable neighborhoods and human scale Yet a great deal of the knowledge and practice behind successful city planning has been abandoned over the last hundred years not because of traffic population growth or other practical hurdles but because of ill considered theories emerging from Modernism and reactions to it The errors of urban design over the last century are too great not to question The solutions being offered today sustainability walkability smart and green technologies hint at what has been lost and what may be regained but they remain piecemeal and superficial In The Art of Classic Planning architect and planner Nir Haim Buras documents and extends the time tested and holistic practices that held sway before the reign of Modernism With hundreds of full color illustrations and photographs that will captivate architects planners administrators and developers The Art of Classic Planning restores and revitalizes the foundations of urban planning Inspired by venerable cities like Kyoto Vienna and Venice and by the great successes of L'Enfant's Washington Haussmann's Paris and Burnham's Chicago Buras combines theory and a host of examples to arrive at clear guidelines for best practices in classic planning for today's world The Art of Classic Planning celebrates the enduring principles of urban design and invites us to return to building beautiful cities The Social Fabric of Fifteenth-Century

First Place Winner in Non Fiction from the 2023 Next Generation Indie Book Awards Part literary history part personal memoir Alice Brittan's beautifully written The Art of Astonishment explores the rich intellectual religious and philosophical history of the gift and tells the interconnected story of grace where it comes from and what it is believed to accomplish Covering a remarkable range of materials from The Epic of Gilgamesh The Iliad and the tragedies of Classical Greece through the brothers Grimm and Montaigne to C S Lewis Toni Morrison J M Coetzee Elena Ferrante Karl Ove Knausgaard and Jhumpa Lahiri Brittan moves with ease from personal story to myth to theology to literature and analysis examining the nature of social and communal obligation the role of the intellectual in times of crisis and the pleasures of reading In the 21st century we might imagine grace as a striking and refined quality that is pleasurable to encounter but certainly not fundamental to anyone's existence or to the beliefs and practices that hold us together or drive us apart For millennia though it has been recognized as essential to the vitality of inner life as well as to the large scale shifts in perspective and legislation that improve the way we live as a society Grace is also astonishing always as the enormously insightful readings in The Art of Astonishment show Brittan reveals the concept's breadth as sacred and secular ancient and recent lived and literary And in so doing she shows us how the act of reading is like grace social but personal pleasurable and essential Performing Memory in Art and Popular Culture Liedeke Plate, Anneke Smelik, 2013 This volume pursues a new line of research in cultural memory studies by understanding memory as a performative act in art and popular culture Here authors combine a methodological focus on memory as performance with a theoretical focus on art and popular culture as practices of remembrance The essays in the book thus analyze what is at stake in the complex processes of remembering and forgetting of recollecting and disremembering of amnesia and anamnesis that make up cultural memory Mindfulness-Based Leadership: The Art of Being a Leader...
