Rain Forest Voices:

Women's Voices from the Rainforest Janet Gabriel Townsend, 2005-08-05 International development policy is responsible for much of the destruction of Central and Latin American rainforests This explores how indigenous women are at last turning their voices to action demanding grassroots strategies as the solution Voices from the Rainforest Bruno Manser, 1996 Amazonia, Voices from the Rainforest Angela Gennino, 1990 From the Introduction Hundreds of South American organizations are defending the Amazon and its inhabitants but most do not even know there are people in the North deeply concerned about the issue Those who do know have their own questions How can we get support around the world Is it true that North American and European organizations get millions of dollars to save the rainforests How do they spend all that money Who are the people behind these groups like the Rainforest Action Network What are other organizations doing in the rest of the Amazon This Action Guide was born of the need to address just such questions It is designed and an organizing tool to help people and groups who are about to plunge into Amazonian work for the first time The bulk of the guide is a directory of more than 250 organizations who are working on the issue from the most remote parts of the jungle to the lobbying offices of Washington and London But the Action Guide is more than addresses and fax numbers Unless the social and political complexities of life in the Amazon are understood all the international campaigns and good intentions in the world will not keep a single tree standing This guide then spotlights the grassroots movements of Amazon s indigenous peoples rubber tappers and other forest dwellers No other people have worked so hard and as long to defend the forest No other people understand as well the meaning and importance of sustainable development and conservation With this in mind the Action Guide staff for the first time asked Amazonian grassroots organizations what they wanted the world to know about their goals strategies and special needs to make their work more effective The information for more than 100 profiles was compiled from a series of questionnaires and from interviews conducted by Monti Aguirre and Glenn Switkes during their filming of AMAZONIA Voices from the Rainforest a documentary for which this publication is intended as a companion guide Some 150 activist organizations working on Amazonian issues in Latin America Europe North America and in the Asia Pacific region as well as resource groups of funders researchers and technical specialists responded to similar questionnaires The Traffic in Culture George E. Marcus, Fred R. Myers, 1995-12-21 Article by Myers annotated separately The Intemperate Rainforest Bruce Braun, 2002 Braun geography U of Minnesota provides a new viewpoint on the complex cultural political and intellectual forces involved in the forest policies of British Columbia Employing poststructuralist theory and using the 1993 protests over logging in Clayoquot Sound as his starting point Braun assesses the colonial thinking behind 19th century forest policies the struggles of native peoples to regain their spaces the assertion of so called rational forest management as a new version of colonialism the Western Canada Wilderness Committee s use of nature photography to promote their notion of pristine wilderness ecotourism and the continued impact of the vision of early 20th

Sounds Wild and Broken David George Haskell, 2022-03-01 Finalist for the 2023 Pulitzer Prize in General Nonfiction and the 2023 PEN E O Wilson Literary Science Writing Award Winner of the Acoustical Society of America s 2023 Science Communication Award A glorious guide to the miracle of life s sound The New York Times Book Review A lyrical exploration of the diverse sounds of our planet the creative processes that produced these marvels and the perils that sonic diversity now faces We live on a planet alive with song music and speech David Haskell explores how these wonders came to be In rain forests shimmering with insect sound and swamps pulsing with frog calls we learn about evolution s creative powers From birds in the Rocky Mountains and on the streets of Paris we discover how animals learn their songs and adapt to new environments Below the waves we hear our kinship to beings as different as snapping shrimp toadfish and whales In the startlingly divergent sonic vibes of the animals of different continents we experience the legacies of plate tectonics the deep history of animal groups and their movements around the world and the quirks of aesthetic evolution Starting with the origins of animal song and traversing the whole arc of Earth history Haskell illuminates and celebrates the emergence of the varied sounds of our world In mammoth ivory flutes from Paleolithic caves violins in modern concert halls and electronic music in earbuds we learn that human music and language belong within this story of ecology and evolution Yet we are also destroyers now silencing or smothering many of the sounds of the living Earth Haskell takes us to threatened forests noise filled oceans and loud city streets and shows that sonic crises are not mere losses of sensory ornament Sound is a generative force and so the erasure of sonic diversity makes the world less creative just and beautiful The appreciation of the beauty and brokenness of sound is therefore an important guide in today s convulsions and crises of change and inequity Sounds Wild and Broken is an invitation to listen wonder belong and act

appears near the shoreline of the Andaman Islands in the Bay of Bengal in the eighteenth century and a group of natives out fishing appeared all at once to be struck dumb their wondering gaze fixed in one direction and on the sole object This particular sea monster was the British steam vessel Pluto

Before the Voice of Reason David Michael Kleinberg-Levin,2008-09-02

Before the Voice of Reason is a phenomenological critique of reason grounded in our experience of the voices that already address us and summon us prior to the emergence of the voice of reason In part one David Michael Kleinberg Levin explores the voices of nature and draws on Merleau Ponty s phenomenology to offer a new way of thinking about environmental responsibility In part two he looks at the voice of the moral law and the voices of other human beings advances a more nuanced account of Levinas s distinction between Saying and Said and proposes a new argument for our responsibility to the other

Reminded by the Instruments You Nakai,2021-03-09

David Tudor is remembered today in two guises as an extraordinary pianist of post war avant garde music who worked closely with composers like John Cage and Karlheinz Stockhausen and as a founding figure of live electronic music His early realization of indeterminate graphic scores and his later performances using homemade modular instruments

both inspired a whole generation of musicians But his reticence his unorthodox approaches and the diversity of his creative output which began with the organ and ended with visual art have kept Tudor a puzzle Illustrated with more than 300 images of diagrams schematics and photographs of Tudor s instruments Reminded by the Instruments sets out to solve the puzzle of David Tudor by applying Tudor s own methods for approaching the materials of others to the vast archive of materials that he himself left behind You Nakai deftly patches together instruments electronic circuits sketches diagrams recordings letters receipts customs declaration forms and testimonies like modular pieces of a giant puzzle to reveal the long hidden nature of Tudor s creative process Rejecting the established narrative of Tudor as a performer turned composer this book presents a lively portrait of an artist whose activity always merged both of these roles In reading Tudor s electronic devices as musicological texts and examining his idiosyncratic use of electronic circuits Nakai undermines discourses on sound and illuminates our understanding of the instruments behind the sounds in post war experimental music Rainforest Radio Georgia Ennis,2025-04-22 Napo Kichwa communities in the Upper Ecuadorean Amazon find themselves doubly marginalized by settler colonialism and well intentioned language revitalization projects In Rainforest Radio Georgia C Ennis provides a comprehensive ethnographic exploration of Amazonian Kichwa community media offering a unique look at how Indigenous broadcast and performance media facilitate linguistic and cultural reclamation in the Ecuadorean Amazon This work offers a critical analysis of how standardized language revitalization efforts like the imposition of Unified Kichwa can inadvertently perpetuate linguistic oppression Ennis follows producers performers and consumers to understand the role of media in language reclamation Through extensive fieldwork she provides vivid portrayals of community efforts to sustain the language and cultural practices of their elders amid environmental and social upheaval Meticulously researched and beautifully written Rainforest Radio is an essential work for anthropologists linguists and social scientists interested in language revitalization Indigenous media and environmental justice This book showcases the transformative potential of community driven media initiatives highlighting the innovative responses of Napo Kichwa activists to the unique challenges they face It serves as a powerful model for those working on similar issues worldwide demonstrating the critical role of community media in language reclamation and cultural sustainability Journeys of Desire Alastair Phillips,Ginette Vincendeau,2019-07-25 A comprehensive guide to European actors in American film this book brings together 15 chapters with A Z entries on over 900 individuals It includes case studies of prominent individuals and phenomena associated with the emigres such as the stereotyping of European actresses in bad women roles and the irony of Jewish actors playing Nazis Voices of the Rainforest ,2004 Come on a journey through the rainforest from the high canopy to the leaf litter rotting on the ground Discover all about the animals and plants that live together in this remarkable habitat from the people who depend on them for their survival Through the voices of the people who live there an eloquent plea for its future survival Picture book format 5 yrs Doing Sensory Ethnography Sarah Pink,2009-07-23 Doing Sensory Ethnography responds to a recent an explosion of interest in the senses across the social sciences Sarah Pink suggests re thinking the ethnographic process through reflexive attention to what she terms the sensoriality of the experience practice and knowledge of both researchers and those who participate in their research The book provides an accessible discussion and analysis of the theoretical methodological and practical aspects of doing sensory ethnography drawing on examples and case studies from the growing literature on sensory ethnographic studies and from the author s own work Doing Sensory Ethnography is the first book to concentrate on outlining a sensory ethnographic methodology It will be of great interest to researchers and students from all disciplines interested in enriching their ethnographic work through a focus on the senses A Voice of Reason Ian Lowe,2010 Can civilisation survive the 21st century Professor Ian Lowe author pre eminent scientist environmentalist cultural commentator and president of the Australian Conservation Foundation thinks we have a chance But we have to act now across the board
