The English Catalogue of Books Published from January, 1835, to January, 1863, 1864 Literature and Modern Time Trish Ferguson, 2020-05-06 Literature and Modern Time is a collection of essays that explore literature in the context of a wave of challenges to linear conceptions of time introduced by thinkers such as Bergson Einstein McTaggart Freud and Nietzsche These challenges were not uniform in character The volume will demonstrate that literature of the era under scrutiny was not simply reacting to new theories of time in some cases it is actually inspiring and anticipating them Thus Literature and Modern Time promises to offer a genuine dialogue between literature and time theory and in doing so will uncover and examine influences and connections sometimes unexpected between philosophers and writers of the era It will examine literary attempts to transcend and escape time and also challenge rupture based accounts of modernist time by demonstrating that literary texts commonly associated with brokenness decline or stasis also at the same time maintain faith in healing renewal and mobility This collection contains interdisciplinary research of the quite highest kind to see so many different kinds of time narrative historical mechanical subjective non linear time myth and nostalgia as well as time space discussed here is very stimulating indeed Professor Simon James

Pawling, 1995-12-14 In a series of case studies ranging widely from documentary film and the writings of J B Priestley to postwar historiography and Remains of the Day this book explores the ever changing and hotly contested narratives of Britain in the 1930s The authors argue that images of the Thirties have been a continual presence in the construction of the wartime and postwar world and in particular in the emergent discourse of social democracy and its subsequent decline

Modernist Time Ecology Jesse

Matz, 2018-12-03 A new view of the way modernist fiction writers tried to solve the problem of time Do our fictions transform time Do they cultivate the temporal environment Such was the hope or the fantasy at work in many modernist novels for which time was not only the major subject but also an object of reparative aspiration Aimed at a kind of stewardship of time these fictions constitute a practice of modernist time ecology an effort to restore those landscapes of time that have been thrown into crisis by modernity In Modernist Time Ecology Jesse Matz redefines temporal experimentation in central writers like Proust Mann Woolf Ellison and Cather who developed literary forms to cultivate restore and enrich the temporal environment He brings fresh attention to others who best exemplify this ecological motive arguing that E M Forster J B Priestley and V S Naipaul are leading figures in this practice of temporal redress Matz also reveals how contemporary film social media movements and public service efforts show what has become of the modernist interest in temporal stewardship Matz combines an array of disciplines including narrative theory sociology phenomenology cognitive psychology film studies queer theory and environmental studies to theorize and explain the rationale and the limits to the idea that time might be subject to textual cultivation Modernist Time Ecology is a deeply interdisciplinary book that changes what we think literature and the arts can do for the world at large
