Ralph Nader Presents Civics for Democracy Katherine Isaac, Ralph Nader, 1992 Ralph Nader Presents a Citizens' Guide to Lobbying Marc Caplan, Ralph Nader, 1983 Provides instruction on researching for organizing and executing a citizens lobbying campaign with detailed information on getting press coverage and funding Ralph Nader Presents More Action for a Change Kelley Griffin, 1987 American Iron Magazine Presents 1001 Harley-Davidson Facts Tyler Greenblatt, 2017-02-15 When anyone thinks of motorcycling whether they are enthusiasts or only casually interested the name Harley Davidson immediately comes to mind Harley Davidson is among the oldest surviving motorcycle manufacturers the company began in 1903 and continues to this day As you can imagine over the course of more than 100 years the company has seen prosperous times as well as lean times changes in focus and direction evolution and revolution All of that leads to a lot of company history and trivia American Iron Magazine associate editor Tyler Greenblatt has compiled 1 001 Harley Davidson facts into this single volume with subjects ranging from the historic powertrains to pop culture to Harley Davidson as a company and manufacturer Facts begin with the early years when a motorcycle was not much more than a bicycle with an engine attached to the war efforts of World War I when 15 000 were put into service During the 1920s Harley Davidson grew into the largest manufacturer in the world and that momentum helped carry it through the Great Depression and into World War II Postwar development and AMF ownership are also covered in detail as well as the restructuring and revival of the brand in recent years Whether you re a casual rider racer or restorer Harley Davidson enthusiasts will be sure to find something in this book for that next conversation with fellow hobbyists This book will keep Harley Davidson enthusiasts entertained for hours and is a great edition to any motorcycling library p p1 margin 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px font 12 0px Arial On Myself, and Other, Less Important Subjects Caspar Hare, 2009-07-13 Caspar Hare makes an original and compelling case for egocentric presentism a view about the nature of first person experience about what happens when we see things from our own particular point of view A natural thought about our first person experience is that all and only the things of which I am aware are present to me Hare however goes one step further and claims counterintuitively that the thought should instead be that all and only the things of which I am aware are present There is in other words something unique about me and the things of which I am aware On Myself and Other Less Important Subjects represents a new take on an old view known as solipsism which maintains that people s experiences give them grounds for believing that they have a special distinguished place in the world for example believing that only they exist or that other people do not have conscious minds like their own Few contemporary thinkers have taken solipsism seriously But Hare maintains that the version of solipsism he argues for is in indeed defensible and that it is uniquely capable of resolving some seemingly intractable philosophical problems both in metaphysics and ethics concerning personal identity over time as well as the tension between self interest and the greater good This formidable and tightly argued defense of a seemingly absurd

Ralph Nader Presents Practicing Democracy Katherine Isaac,Ralph Nader,1995 An All-Consuming Century Gary Cross,2000-09-14 The unqualified victory of consumerism in America was not a foregone conclusion The United States has traditionally been the home of the most aggressive and often thoughtful criticism of consumption including Puritanism Prohibition the simplicity movement the 60s hippies and the consumer rights movement But at the dawn of the twenty first century not only has American consumerism triumphed there isn t even an ism left to challenge it An All Consuming Century is a rich history of how market goods came to dominate American life over that remarkable hundred years between 1900 and 2000 and why for the first time in history there are no practical limits to consumerism By 1930 a distinct consumer society had emerged in the United States in which the taste speed control and comfort of goods offered new meanings of freedom thus laying the groundwork for a full scale ideology of consumer s democracy after World War II From the introduction of Henry Ford s Model T so low in price that no man making a good salary will be unable to own one and the innovations in selling that arrived with the department store window displays self service the installment plan to the development of new arenas for spending amusement parks penny arcades baseball parks and dance halls Americans embraced the new culture of commercialism with reservations However Gary Cross shows that even the Depression the counterculture of the 1960s and the inflation of the 1970s made Americans more materialistic opening new channels of desire and offering opportunities for more innovative and aggressive marketing The conservative upsurge of the 1980s and 90s indulged in its own brand of self aggrandizement by promoting unrestricted markets The consumerism of today thriving and largely unchecked no longer brings families and communities together instead it increasingly divides and isolates Americans Consumer culture has provided affluent societies with peaceful alternatives to tribalism and class war Cross writes and it has fueled extraordinary economic growth The challenge for the future is to find ways to revive the still valid portion of the culture of constraint and control the overpowering success of the all consuming twentieth century Bright, Infinite Future Mark Green, 2016-05-03

Blending the historical biographical and political this wide ranging memoir manifesto describes how the values of the 1960s are shaping a new progressive majority in 2016 and beyond Multi faceted Mark Green bestselling author public interest lawyer elected official guides us through contemporary American politics as Johnson retaliates against his antiwar work Nader launches the modern consumer movement Clinton wins the 1992 New York primary and therefore the nomination the author debates Castro in Havana on human rights and Green loses the closest NYC mayoral election in a century to Bloomberg after 9 11 in a perfect storm of money terrorism and race As Public Advocate for New York City Green is Mayor Giuiliani s b te noir he exposes the NYPD s racial profiling kills off Joe Camel inspires the city s 311 system and shows how a person who believes in positive progressive government can make it work for average citizens Starting with the consequential movements of the 1960s Bright Infinite Future tracks how a rising tide of minority and Millennial voters the GOP s lurch from mainstream to extreme and the contrast between the disastrous presidency of Bush 43 and the successful ones of Clinton and Obama are leading to a new era of progressive patriotism that will culminate in the 2016 presidential election Full of behind the scenes stories about boldfaced names this will be the 2016 book for liberals looking to Leonard Bernstein s bright infinite future conservatives who want to know what they re up against and readers who want to know what it takes and what it s like in the arena Psychology David G.
