Rimmer, 2000-08 If you've ever had an affair or are divorced married again or still faithful and monogamous you may be completely shocked or might approve Karen Bradford's proposal to her husband Hank. After eighteen years of marriage and three children she wants him to sign a marriage contract with a clause that from now on he will agree to a Succedaneum Marriage. He doesn't know and has never met Tony Castellani who is married to Gina and has two kids or that Tony and Karen are lovers. But a Succedaneum Agreement check the word in your dictionary would allow them to enjoy a second relationship and stay married. Guaranteed. You've never read a non-stop detailed explicit sex and loving story like this. It all takes place in Guadeloupe on Spring vacation where Karen hopes to mate her husband with Tony's wife and make her dream come true. But alas taking their five children one Judy Bradford sixteen and another Marc Castellani seventeen along with them conniving a foursome vacation at free-wheeling Club Libre isn't the right environment for their more puritanical spouses. On top of that Marc who despises Catcher in the Rye thinks he's smarter than that phony Holden Caulfield ever was. He's still a virgin but he's determined to mate with Judy. Before that happens he inadvertently discovers that his father is making out with her mother at the same time. Soufriere the volcano is about to explode. Bob Rimmer who has chartered bare boats and sailed in most of the Caribbean Island loves Guadeloupe best. Is this story based on fact? Well sort of and it proves that the path he has carved in other stories through the jungle of potential expanded monogamy like corporate marriage in Proposition 31 and synergamy in Thursday My Love is filled with rumbling volcanos. Thoughts After the First Michael Yergin, 2006-09-27 One of the things I hate most is people who assume something about me and don't bother or simply don't want to ask me if they're right. You cannot assume anything about anybody even though everybody does it to varying degrees all the time. I am I suppose as guilty of doing this as the next guy. I find myself making judgments about people before I have really taken the time to get to know them. This is undoubtedly one of the greatest problems of my generation. Many times we seem to be talking too fast. In many cases our mouths are moving faster than our brains. But I think there is a reason why this occurs. We are pressured to say things before we have really had the time to think it out clearly and logically. In our society everybody is striving to be an individual. What happens is that you believe something and if you change your mind you feel that you are being inconsistent with your prior views. Author Michael L Yergin pens a surreal look at the college scene during the late 1960s and early 1970s at Southern Illinois University. Full of insight and humor Thoughts After the First offers a compelling look at this turbulent time in American history. Sex, Love, and Marriage in the 21st Century Robert T. Francoeur, Martha Cornog, Timothy Perper, 1999 Love, sex and marriage are changing faster than ever before in human history. The current tidal wave of social changes will continue into the next century and we will have to adapt our sexual values and relationships to these accelerating changes. These 22 honest authentic stories tell of the unconventional paths pioneering church leaders and spiritually aware women and men have taken in their quest to link their sexuality with their spiritual needs. Some might see in these unorthodox explorations only tales of promiscuous couplings. But these are not stories of wild thrill seekers. These are tales told from the core of their being about their deeply felt need for genuine responsible love and intimacy within a spiritual context Their journeys do not promise paradise or instant happiness as popular magazines do with recipes for lifelong marital bliss and fiery passion These sojourners have much to teach us even when we decide that this or that path is not for us Their individual paths are not nearly as important as the simple message of God and Eros being inseparable that underlies journey God and Eros can come together in many different relationships And they must come together if we want to nourish and fulfill the divine spark at the core of our being These women and men challenge our assumptions and our willingness to adapt to our radically changing world
