Recent Social Trends in France, 1960-1990 Michel Forsé, International Research Group on the Comparative Charting of Social Change in Advanced Industrial Societies, 1993
Over the three decades from 1960 to 1990 French society underwent a spectacular transformation due to the baby boom which was particularly broad based and prolonged in France and caused the population to climb by a full one third. At the same time the French economy expanded and the pace of modernization picked up with the result that the wealth of the French quadrupled in a single generation. The turning point between the reconstruction and development period and the period of profound social change appears to have been 1965. The baby boom was over by then and the production system was shifting in orientation. No longer dominated by the growth of basic industries, production was now starting to focus on consumer goods and services.

Recent Social Trends in the United States, 1960-1990 Theodore Caplow, Howard M. Bahr, John Modell, Bruce A. Chadwick, 1994-03-21
On Rachel Carson and her work and on current environmental challenges
The four authors present information on various American trends: demographic, macroeconomic and macro technological. Descriptions, tables and graphs trace the dynamics of population specifically in relation to the expansion which followed the 1982-83 recession and analyze achievements in intelligence, genetic engineering and space travel. Recent Social Trends in Bulgaria, 1960-1995 Nikolai Genov, Anna Krasteva, 2001-01-01
The introduction by Nikolai Genov looks at the challenges posed by two transformations: the experiment with communism which ended in failure and the current transition to a market economy and pluralist politics. Genov concludes that the major reason for Bulgaria's critical situation is the powerlessness of its state institutions. Considering life style, fertility, leisure and consumption, inequality, religion, economic institutions, ethnicity, norms of conduct and family as well as other trends. Recent Social Trends in Bulgaria 1960-1995 is the first comprehensive presentation of the major transformations that characterize Bulgaria at the turn of the century. The contributors not only consider a broad range of social phenomena but provide an in depth analysis of social change. This national profile provides more data supporting the hypothesis of diversification rather than convergence in modern societies, a hypothesis proposed by the Comparative Charting of Social Change group after documenting social change in many countries.

Multicultural Variations Lance W. Roberts, Barry Ferguson, Mathias Bös, 2013-02-01
Contrary to mid twentieth century predictions, ethnic pluralism has increased dramatically in North America and significantly in Europe. Neither the post 9/11 emphasis on international border security nor anti immigration and anti multiculturalism movements have affected the fifty year trend of increasing labour mobility and sustained levels of migration. The ethnic pluralism accompanying this powerful trend has fueled academic research and public debate. Contributors report on and develop a conceptualization of ethnic social incorporation and multiculturalism in Canada, the United States, Germany

Greece Bulgaria and Italy This group of countries displays a remarkable variety of both ethnic diversity and public policy responses to ethnic social incorporation over the past four decades It includes two countries Canada and the United States built upon very large scale immigration over the course of more than a century two countries Greece and Italy which until recently were characterized by large scale emigration but now are grappling with immigration one country Bulgaria that was until the 1990s insulated from extensive migration and faces a demographic slump and one Germany that has experimented with isolating temporary populations but is now addressing the responsibilities of permanent immigration Multicultural Variations includes national reports describing each of the six countries under investigation and is book ended by introductory and concluding chapters that present a new understanding of and synthesis on multiculturalism that is distinct from either enthusiastic support or ideological critiques Contributors include Mathias B s Philipps Universit t Marburg Germany Antonio Chiesi Universit degli Studi di Milano Italy Jason Edgerton University of Manitoba Canada Barry Ferguson University of Manitoba Canada Nikolai Genov Freie Universit t Berlin Germany Louis Hicks St Mary s College of Maryland USA Paul Kingston University of Virginia USA Laura Maratou Alipranti National Centre for Social Research Athens Greece Lance W Roberts University of Manitoba Canada Sonia Stefanizzi Universit degli Studi di Milano Bicocca Italy and Susanne von Below Johann Wolfgang Goethe Universit t Frankfurt Germany

Recent Social Trends in Quebec, 1960-1990 Simon Langlois, Baillargeon, 1992-02-05 Readers will follow an intense period of social change in Quebec during which there was a remarkable increase in the level of modernization They will note a massive entry of women into the labour force and a growing service sector that now constitutes seventy percent of all economic activity They will observe also that the Qu b cois have dramatically increased their television viewing and that while they express a generally high level of satisfaction with life the Qu b cois must contend with escalating crime and suicide rates Leviathan Transformed Theodore Caplow, 2002-01-16 The authors using these goals as a checklist found that each of the seven states performs well in some areas and badly in others They discovered that all states approached these goals in a style shaped by their own history and in particular by how they have been affected by the troubles of the twentieth century Their investigations offer a new informative way of looking at these nation states and detail the social and political conditions in each state Contributors include Theodore Caplow Salustiano Del Campo Royal Academy of Political and Social Science Madrid Nikolai Genov Bulgaria Academy of Sciences Karl Otto Hondrich Goethe University Simon Langlois Universit de Laval Alberto Martinelli University of Milan and Henri Mendras OFCE Paris

Preyer, Mathias Bös, 2013-11-11 Scholars of different schools have extensively analyzed world systems as networks of communication under the fashionable heading globalization Our collected new research pushes the argument one step further Globalization is not a homogenization of all social life on earth It is a heterogeneous process that connects the global and the local on different levels To understand these contemporary developments this book employs innovative concepts strategies of research and explanations Globalization is a metaphor for different borderstructures new borderlines and conditions of membership which emerge in a global world system As a world system expands it incorporates new territories and new peoples The process of incorporation creates frontiers or boundaries of the world system These frontiers or boundary zones are the locus of resistance to incorporation ethnogenesis ethnic transformation and ethnocide
