Handbook on East Asian Social Policy Misa Izuhara, 2013-01-01 Dramatic socio economic transformations over the last two decades have brought social policy and social welfare issues to prominence in many East Asian societies Since the 1990s and in response to national as well as global pressure there have been substantial developments and reforms in social policy in the region but the development paths have been uneven Until recently comparative analysis of East Asian social policy tends to have focused on the established welfare state of Japan and the emerging welfare regimes of four Tiger Economies Much of the recent debate indeed preceded Chinas re emergence onto the world economy In this context this

Handbook brings China more fully into the contemporary social policy debates in East Asia Organised around five themes from welfare state developments to theories and methodologies to current social policy issues the Handbook presents original research from leading specialists in the fields and provides a fresh and updated perspective to the study of social policy Providing a comparative international approach this Handbook will appeal to academics researchers and students at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels working in the fields of social policy as well as policy makers and practitioners who are interested in social policy lessons from other societies Family and Aging Policy Francis G. Caro, 2014-05-01

Learn how public policies can help families provide the care their elderly relatives need Family and Aging Policy examines how public initiatives to assist the elderly in the United States Canada Singapore Denmark and Sweden can impact families who provide them with long term care For the majority of older people the aging experience involves their families directly and indirectly affecting income security housing and health care This unique book addresses the aging issues that matter most to families struggling to deal with the demands of care giving and provides answers on how the public sector can help As the traditional nuclear family becomes a memory and the notion of extended family disappears the need for public interventions to help the elderly increases A significant number of people grow old without families they can depend on Others have families who want to help but lack the financial means or the housing needed to provide care Family and Aging Policy offers options on how families and formal services can share responsibilities including how families can juggle jobs and care giving the effects of the Family and Medical Leave Act consumer directed service options community based care programs accessory dwelling units and zoning ordinances and provisions for caregiver support in each of the 50 United States and the District of Columbia Family and Aging Policy examines extensive welfare programs in Sweden publicly funded home care programs in Denmark family oriented social policies in Singapore shared responsibilities of families and formal services in Canada the Administration on Aging s National Family Caregiver Support program in the United States California Caregiver Resource Centers and much more Family and Aging Policy is an invaluable tool for researchers and policy analysts working in family policy issues and as an essential supplemental text for course work in gerontology sociology family relations and social work Transforming Society Ngoh Tiong Tan, 2017-07-06 Social change affects all quarters of life and human society whether in individual neighbourhoods communities or nations or in the world as a whole encompassing many issues of gender age social class and ethnicity This book examines both the conceptual as well as operational aspects of social transformation and social development It examines societal transformation at the individual group community national and international levels using a range of case studies from Singapore Asia and around the world The four parts of this book highlight the challenges of social development issues concerning workforce and migration welfare women and social care as well as community development and capacity building Social development and social transformation are presented as intertwined concepts that affect citizens in profound ways from social care to social well being construction of social

Irudaya Rajan, 2013-12-19 Explore Indian policy and practice on aging from a variety of perspectives This pathbreaking collection provides something that has been missing in the literature on aging in India especially for non Indian audiences studies of various aspects of aging in India combined with analyses of current policies policy trends and recommendations You ll examine aging issues from a variety of perspectives demographic foundations social and family relations economics health and disability current interventions and advocacy and policy An Aging India also provides you with up to date references explanations of differences and similarities within India s diverse population examples of programs in various settings including a geriatric hospital a major NGO and old age homes and an overview of the development of India s national policy on aging Where appropriate comparisons with U S policy approaches are noted An Aging India Perspectives Prospects and Policies examines the demography of aging in India the current state of research on aging and the pitfalls associated with that research income poverty and the problems created by the lack of any widespread retirement income system in India the health status of Indian elders and what their healthcare prospects are the situation for the disabled elderly in India elder abuse in the Indian context social networks and grassroots organizations for seniors in India the role of Indian geriatric hospitals and old age homes The insights of the top researchers and practitioners who contributed to An Aging India Perspectives Prospects and Policies will strike home with their counterparts around the world Make this book a part of your professional teaching collection today Devolution and Aging Policy Francis G Caro, Robert Morris Deceased, 2012-10-12 Explore significant but often overlooked aspects of aging policy This unique addition to the literature on aging policy will help you understand devolution the decentralizing of service provision and the roles that state local government and private organizations now play in addressing the needs of our aging population It will show you how to initiate innovations and make positive changes in aging policy through state and local initiatives collaborations between the federal government and other government agencies public private collaboration and strictly private initiatives From the editors Around the world the ground rules are being questioned about the role of national governments in addressing domestic needs During the twentieth century in countries throughout the world central governments assumed major responsibilities for a wide variety of human needs Whether the concern was income security health housing or education interventions were premised upon convictions that a strong public sector role was essential and that major involvement of national governments was needed More recently a significant pattern devolution has emerged in many countries wherein these responsibilities have shifted away from national governments to regional and local governments as well as from the public to the private sector Thoughtfully divided into five sections that illustrate distinctly different forms of devolution this book first provides an essential overview of devolution and then examines its implications for vital aspects of service provision to the elderly In the United States in recent years the single greatest focus for devolution has been the transformation of income security protections for poor families The federal Aid to Families With Dependent Children program has been replaced by the Temporary Assistance to Needy Families program Devolution and Aging Policy examines that change and other important facets of the current climate of devolution including Medicaid financed long term care state sponsorship of services in retirement communities the implications of the Workforce Investment Act for the access of older workers to training at a state level to upgrade their work skills public private sector collaboration in long term care insurance long term care ombudsman programs what state governments can do to help elders make use of information technology property tax credits for seniors that are given in exchange for volunteering on the municipal level how an HMO can encourage and stimulate service coordination and more

Singapore Ageing: Issues And Challenges Ahead S Vasoo, Bilveer Singh, Srinivasan Chokkanathan, 2023-02-02 Ageing is a part of life that all Singaporeans must face and in fact all families will have next of kins who will undergo that life stage Singapore Ageing assembles a team of researchers administrators practitioners advocates and academics from varied social service and care sectors to share their thoughts concerns and future challenges faced by an ageing Singapore in different arenas With the Singapore demography showing a greying trend it is increasingly vital for the government and the social health and economic sectors to meet the needs of an ageing nation The appropriate services and support have to be in place to respond to the issues faced by seniors This edited volume serves as a useful resource for those who are working or researching in the field of ageing

Handbook of Asian Aging Hyunsook Yoon, Jon Hendricks, 2018-10-26 In western countries the rising tide of population aging took 100 years to alter the face of societies but Asia is experiencing comparable changes in not much more than a quarter of a century Contributors to The Handbook of Aging describe the magnitude of these changes and their effects on the aged and on societies attempting to adapt to the dramatic improvements in life expectancy brought on by rapid economic and social transformations Asia encompasses a vast reach from Pakistan and India to Japan the Philippines and Indonesia and in this book including Australia The Handbook of Aging provides a framework for making sense of the meeting between reverential views of the elderly and contemporary priorities as Asia arrives at the crossroads The need for innovative approaches to social policy and personal practices is nowhere more evident than in Asian countries where modern marketing economies have forced hard political choices The economic tigers of the Asian Pacific region experienced the aging of their populations ahead of other Asian countries but solutions reached during times of financial boom are being re examined as economies come back to earth with soft or hard landings The Handbook of Asian Aging provides an atlas of the far reaching changes that are afoot and that will become even more pronounced in the near future

Housing, Care and Inheritance Misa Izuhara, 2008-09-30 Housing Care and Inheritance draws on the author's long standing research into housing issues surrounding the ageing society a phenomenon which is now a concern in many mature economies If an adult child provides care for their elderly parent should that person be rewarded If so should they inherit their parent's house or a larger share of the assets The generational contract is often influenced by cultural norms family traditions social policy and housing market so it is negotiated differently in different societies and at different times Such generational contract is however breaking down as a result of socio economic and demographic changes Drawn from the two part study funded by the UK Economic Social Research Council Misa Izuhara explores the myth and the changing patterns of the particular exchange of long term care and housing assets between older parents and their adult children in Britain and Japan Highly international and comparative in perspectives this study addresses important sociological as well as policy questions regarding intergenerational relations involving housing wealth long term care and inheritance Social Work Case Management Michael J. Holosko,2017-01-30 Social Work Case Management Case Studies From the Frontlines by Michael J Holosko is an innovative book that equips readers with the knowledge and skills they need to be effective case management practitioners in a variety of health and human service organizations A must read for students and professionals in social work this important work introduces a unique Task Centered Case Management Model built around the unifying principles of the profession person in environment strengths based work and ecological perspective Over twenty case studies by case managers and professionals offer innovative practice insights illustrating the practice roles and responsibilities of today s case managers and the realities of conducting case management in today s growing exciting and challenging field

Gender and Ageing Theresa W Devasahayam,2014-11-07 This book examines common themes related to gender and ageing in countries in Southeast Asia Derived from quantitative or qualitative methods of data collection and analysis the chapters reveal how ageing has become tempered by globalization cultural values family structures women s emancipation and empowerment social networks government policies and religion The chapters are concerned primarily with the following questions related to gender and ageing a how do women and men experience old age b do women and men have different means of coping financially and socially in their old age c does having engaged in wage work for longer periods of time serve as an advantage to older men in contrast to older women d does a woman s primary role as caregiver serve to disadvantage her in old age e what kinds of identities have older women and men constructed for themselves f do women and men prepare for ageing differently and has this preparation been mediated by educational levels g does having a higher level of education make a difference to how one experiences ageing h how does class shape the way women and men cope in old age and i what does it mean to be a e singlee older person who has either lost a spouse through death or has never been married Because the book employs a cross country analysis readers gain an understanding of contemporary emergent trends not only in each of the countries but also in Southeast Asia as a whole Wherever relevant some chapters have also identified similarities in trends on gender and ageing between countries in the Western hemisphere and those in Southeast Asia to highlight broader patterns across the world Ageing Matters John Doling,2018-01-18 The implications of population ageing have long concerned politicians policy makers and governmental and non governmental organizations in the welfare states of Europe However an ageing workforce is increasingly a matter of concern for the developed and fast developing countries of Asia

Japan leads the field in this respect on account of the speed of its postwar economic development But the little tigers of Hong Kong Singapore South Korea and Taiwan are poised to catch up and Malaysia though in the second tier of developing Asian economics faces the prospect of population ageing sufficient to daunt an as yet under prepared infrastructure for old age support This book is the first to examine in detail the experiences and prospects of population ageing in those Asian countries with the highest GDP per capita The authors pose the question to what extent Asia and old Europe can learn from each other in terms of policy planning The first section of the book sets out the field in terms of the demographic characteristics and policy predicaments of European and Asian countries The second section presents case studies of six countries Japan Hong Kong Singapore South Korea Taiwan and Malaysia

Indian Diaspora ,2008-01-01 Indian Diaspora Social Gerontology Nursing Multiculturalism Education In historic and ethnographic accounts of Indians living in diaspora the elderly seem to receive much less attention than the new generation and its progress prosperity and success Using critical pedagogy approach this book attempts to close that gap by focusing on the voices of the Punjabi Bengali Sindhi and Gujarati diasporic Indians elderly living in five countries Learning to listen to the voices of these seniors may enable professors teachers students policy makers and parents to work towards building democratic societies

Ageing in Singapore Peggy Teo,Kalyani Mehta,Leng Leng Thang,Angelique Chan,2006-09-27 Older persons are often portrayed as social and financial burdens because pensions health and social care have to withstand increasing old age dependency ratios Due to a lack of access to representation or a lack of social and economic power older people have found few opportunities to have their voices heard making age an immensely political issue Written by an impressive team of authors this book provides an in depth analysis of the experience of ageing in Singapore examining key issues such as health work housing family ties and care giving It looks at how social categorization enters into everyday life to elucidate the multiple meanings of age and identity encountered in a rapidly changing economy and society Providing original critical discourse from Asian writers recording Asian voices Ageing in Singapore will appeal to a wide readership and is an invaluable resource for policy makers service practitioners and scholars working on Asian gerontology

Families and Social Policy Linda Haas,2006 Explores the latest research on the impact of government policy or lack of policy on family life in various developed and developing nations around the world

Faces of Aging Yoshiko Matsumoto,2011-03-17 The chapters in this volume put a human face on aging issues and consider multiple dimensions of the aging experience with a focus on Japan
