Dissemination of Music Hans Lenneberg, 2014-03-18 The contributors are leading scholars from the United States Canada Great Britain and Italy The essays examine the history of music publishing from its inception to the early twentieth century The Dissemination of Music provides new insight into the social history of music illustrating how certain types of music were made popular because publishers made them more available and how the reputations of composers were made or broken by the whims of publishers This important reference work will interest scholars and students in all areas of music This collection brings the history of music publishing into the realm of social history looking beyond the printing process to examine why and for whom music publishers produced their work The book shows how technological limitations and printers and publishers preferences significantly influenced musical tastes in Europe from medieval times to the modern age

Gunpowder, Explosives and the State Brenda J. Buchanan, 2016-12-05 Gunpowder studies are still in their infancy despite the long standing civil and military importance of this explosive since its discovery in China in the mid ninth century AD In this second volume by contributors who meet regularly at symposia of the International Committee for the History of Technology ICOHTEC the research is again rooted in the investigation of the technology of explosives manufacture but the fact that the chapters range in scope from the Old World to the New from sources of raw materials in south east Asia to the complications of manufacture in the West shows that the story is more than the simple one of how an intriguing product was made This volume is the first to develop the implications of the subject not just in the sense of relating it to changing military technologies but in that of seeing the securing of gunpowder supplies as fundamental to the power of the state and imperial pretensions The search for saltpetre for example an essential ingredient of gunpowder became a powerful engine of sea going European trade from the early seventeenth century Smaller states like Venice were unable to form these distant connections and so to sustain a gunpowder army Stronger states like France and Britain were able to do so and became even more powerful as the demand for improved explosives fostered national strengths leading to a development of the sciences especially chemistry in the former case and of manufacturing techniques in the latter Opere Niccolò Machiavelli, 1820

Venice Nightscapes Giuseppe Tomasella, 2025-11-18 This book rethinks the urban night through an interdisciplinary exploration of Venice s nighttime economies social practices and cultural narratives Interpreting nightscapes as lived contested and imaginative spaces the book introduces the genius noctis a critical lens for engaging with the identity of the nocturnal city Bridging Southern European perspectives with international night studies scholarship local nightscapes emerge as complex geographical phenomena resulting from the dynamic interplay of historical and contemporary experiences This inquiry considers the multiple interdependencies among dominant narratives and alternative understandings while emphasising the roles of darkness in shaping local nightlife ecosystems and urban identities Aiming at providing hybrid and creative methodologies for the study of urban nights the analysis interweaves cultural geography urban studies and literary theory This book resonates with researchers and students across cultural geography urban studies mobility studies anthropology and environmental humanities particularly those investigating nightscapes Mediterranean urban cultures or interdisciplinary place based inquiry The Birth of the Despot Lucette Valensi, 2018-05-31 In her graceful account of the transformation of European attitudes toward the Ottoman empire during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Lucette Valensi follows the genealogy of the concept of Oriental despotism The Birth of the Despot examines a crucial moment in the long and ambiguous encounter between the Christian and Islamic worlds the period after the fall of Constantinople to the Turks when Venice's pursuit of its commercial and maritime interests brought two powerful protagonists Venice and the Sublime Porte face to face Vivaldi's oratorio Juditha Triumphans in which Judith liberates her besieged town by killing the Turk Holofernes serves as the organizing metaphor in Valensi's study of how Venice's perceptions of its rival changed Valensi shows how Venice's initial admiration for the sultan and his orderly empire metamorphosed into revulsion at a monstrous tyrant The Shipwreck at Gnalić Irena Radić Rossi, Mariangela Nicolardi, Mauro Bondioli, Katarina Batur, 2021-12-23 Unlike official history which takes long and impersonal strides through the past this book describes individual human destinies that convey the story of the late Renaissance period throughout Europe and the Mediterranean as uncovered at the site of the shipwreck at Gnali Croatia The Refugee-Diplomat Diego Pirillo, 2018-12-15 The establishment of permanent embassies in fifteenth century Italy has traditionally been regarded as the moment of transition between medieval and modern diplomacy In The Refugee Diplomat Diego Pirillo offers an alternative history of early modern diplomacy centered not on states and their official representatives but around the figure of the refugee diplomat and more specifically Italian religious dissidents who forged ties with English and northern European Protestants in the hope of inspiring an Italian Reformation Pirillo reconsiders how diplomacy worked not only within but also outside of formal state channels through underground networks of individuals who were able to move across confessional and linguistic borders often adapting their own identities to the changing political conditions they encountered Through a trove of diplomatic and mercantile letters inquisitorial records literary texts marginalia and visual material The Refugee Diplomat recovers the agency of religious refugees in international affairs revealing their profound impact on the emergence of early modern diplomatic culture and practice Cardinal Pietro Ottoboni (1667-1740) and the Vatican Tomb of Pope Alexander VIII Edward J.
