convince us of things that never actually happened But how did these outrageous TV legends get started How did they spread from classrooms to boardrooms across North America and beyond And most important what do these rumors so quickly transformed into facts and common knowledge reveal about our relationship to reality through the medium of television Put in other words what exactly is it that were doing when were dealing in these fabulous rumors are we chasing after surprising truths or simply more incredible entertainment To take one telling example Jerry Mathers was not actually killed in Vietnam but the basic sense of this lie wasn't far removed from the emotions factually expressed in the two page spread of the faces of the dead in Time magazine In the course of this compelling work which is supplemented with interviews with many of the people implicated in these rumors author Bill Brioux exposes the reality behind the many stories that currently circulate in our culture Through these stories both true and false he sheds a revealing light on just what role these rumors play in contemporary society and what role our society plays in regard to these rumors as well Lucy a to Z Michael
