starved of much needed funds by central government The eminently sensible transfer of overall control of London's buses and Underground system to the city wide Greater London Council at the beginning of 1970 was snatched away by the Thatcher regime in 1984 after which things rapidly went downhill This book covers the years of GLC control including the months prior to their taking charge in order to set the scene Many rare and unusual scenes are included in this volume especially of the then still basically intact portion of the uncompleted Northern Line extension between Drayton Park and Highgate which had been so close to completion when work was halted during the war but then abandoned in the early 1950s incurring much wasted work and expenditure For anyone with a serious interest in London's Underground this book is essential reading including as it does many previous unpublished photographs
