Beyond the Sea of Beer Miloslav Rechcigl Jr., 2017-11-09 This is a comprehensive history of immigrants from the historic lands of the Bohemian Crown and its successor states including Czechoslovakia and the Czech Republic based on the painstaking lifetime research of the author. The reader will find lots of new information in this book that is not available elsewhere. The title of the book comes from a popular song of the famous Czech artistic duo Voskovec and Werich who described America in those words when they lived here reflecting on their love for this country. It covers the period starting soon after the discovery of the New World to date. The emphasis is on the US although Canada and Latin America are also covered. It covers the arrival and the settlement of the immigrants in various states and regions of America, their harsh beginnings, the establishment of their communities and their organization. A separate section is devoted to the contributions of notable individuals in different areas of human endeavor including Bohemians, Moravians, Bohemian Jews and the Slovaks. These people excelled in just about every facet of human undertaking. Even though a total number of these immigrants were fewer than other ethnic groups, their accomplishments were phenomenal. Nothing like this has ever been published since the time Thomas Capek wrote his classic The Czechs Bohemians in America some one hundred years ago. Bibliographic Guide to Theatre Arts New York Public Library. Research Libraries, 1988. Cinema of the Other Europe Dina Iordanova, 2003. Cinema of the Other Europe The Industry and Artistry of East Central European Film is a comprehensive study of the cinematic traditions of Poland, Hungary, the Czech Republic and Slovakia from 1945 to the present day, exploring the major schools of filmmaking and the main stages of development across the region during the period of state socialism up until the end of the Cold War as well as more recent transformations post 1989. In encouraging a more inclusive and comprehensive understanding of European cinema much needed for the new unified Europe enlarged towards its Eastern periphery, this book maps out the interactions, key concerns, thematic spheres and stylistic particularities that make the cinema of East Central Europe a vital part of European film tradition. Cinema of the Other Europe is thus a timely appraisal of Film Studies debates ranging from the representation of history and memory, the reassessment of political content, ethics and society, the rehabilitation of popular cinema and the rethinking of national and regional cinemas in the context of globalisation.

It is a saga of plain as well as powerful people whose influence and importance often exceeded the borders of the US. A great portion of included individuals may be unknown to readers since it concerns persons whose Czech origin was usually not known. The book covers the total period from the times of the discovery of New World to the end of the twentieth century. During the selection, little concern was given to nationalistic or ethnographic criteria; the only prerequisite was that the respected individuals were either born on the territory of the Czech lands or were descendants of emigrants from the

Czech lands The image on the front cover is a portrait of Augustine Herman Lord of Bohemia Manor the first documented Czech immigrant in the United States The portrait comes from his famous Map of Maryland and Virginia dated 1670 The colorful story of his life would be unbelievable if made into a movie Pioneer merchant explorer surveyor map maker patriot rebel diplomat and finally Lord Read more about him in the book
