The Midnight Miners Angela Sue Johnson, 2007-11 I will send you the comforter John 15:26 The midnight shift at Hickory Hill Deep Mine 1 began as it had every time before that brisk November night; however, it ended like no other. The mine's midnight shift employed thirteen men, all with fitting nicknames: Hogg, Patch, Junior, Stump, Banjo, Smokin' Joe, Mule, Logger, Big Cheese, Shooter, Doc, Chewy, and Wheels. Nightly, they endured the rough, raw, and extreme conditions well below the Earth's surface, relying on brotherhood, skill, and the grace of God to survive. On that fateful night, the miners were led in by Hogg and out by Big Cheese, but not before being met in the middle by the Grim Reaper. A section of the mine's roof collapsed, which left them to walk miles to safety without power and battle the shortage of pure air, the gushing water, and the unstable mine surroundings. Each man was willing to risk his own life to save another, as this is the unspoken assurance of one trusted coal brother to the next. This heartfelt novel celebrates the irrepressible humor, honor, loyalty, and heroics, even in the face of misery and tragedy, of the spirited coal mining brotherhood.

Hard-rock Miners Ronald C. Brown, 1979 When the colorful western prospectors had made their strikes and moved on, they left behind them another lesser-known breed of men: the hard-rock miners. For six decades, these men followed mining opportunities into the boom towns of the intermountain West and gouged from the depths of other men's wealth. In mines ranging from prospect holes to underground extractories, they picked and blasted, sometimes in shifts of twelve hours, and found not only ore and minerals but also lung-destroying dust. Working by candlelight in ill-ventilated, narrow, and often sweltering depths, they courted dangers from fire, gas, subterranean water, and cave-ins. Management's interest in high productivity and profits often jeopardized miners' needs for a living wage and job security. Above ground, they lived in communities like Cripple Creek, Goldfield, Bisbee, and Leadville—communities that were western yet urban. There, they faced the rigors of a rugged climate frontier scarcities and ramshackle housing But they relieved their hardships with their own brand of entertainment rock drilling contests that were to the miner what rodeos were to the cowboys practical jokes traveling show troupes and social gatherings

members Several contributions in this book suggest that a factor common to all backward regions often neglected in the literature is to be found in their higher than average degree of structural change or more precisely in the hardship they experience in coping with the process of structural change typical of all advanced economies In the new EU members of CEE structural change is still a consequence of the continuing process of transition from central planning to a market economy but also of what Fabrizio et al 2009 call the second transition namely that related to the run up to and entry in the EU
