Models in Process William J. Kelly, 1988-01-01 Models in Process William Jude Kelly, 1988 Theoretical Models and Processes of Literacy Donna E. Alvermann, Norman J. Unrau, Misty Sailors, Robert B. Ruddell, 2018-10-03

The Seventh Edition of this foundational text represents the most comprehensive source available for connecting multiple and diverse theories to literacy research broadly defined and features both cutting edge and classic contributions from top scholars Two decades into the 21st century the Seventh Edition finds itself at a crossroads and differs from its predecessors in three major ways the more encompassing term literacy replaces reading in the title to reflect sweeping changes in how readers and writers communicate in a digital era the focus is on conceptual essays rather than a mix of essays and research reports in earlier volumes and most notably contemporary literacy models and processes enhance and extend earlier theories of reading and writing Providing a tapestry of models and theories that have informed literacy research and instruction over the years this volume s strong historical grounding serves as a springboard from which new perspectives are presented The chapters in this volume have been selected to inspire the interrogation of literacy theory and to foster its further evolution This edition is a landmark volume in which dynamic dialogic and generative relations of power speak directly to the present generation of literacy theorists and researchers without losing the historical contexts that preceded them Some additional archival essays from previous editions are available on the book s eResource New to the Seventh Edition Features chapters on emerging and contemporary theories that connect directly to issues of power and contrasts new models against more established counterparts New chapters reflect sweeping changes in how readers and writers communicate in a digital era Slimmer volume is complemented by some chapters from previous editions available online Models in Process William Jude Kelly, 1988 Organizational Rhetoric Mary F. Hoffman, Debra J. Ford, 2010

Organizational Rhetoric introduces students to a rhetorical approach to understanding analyzing and creating organizational messages for both internal employees and external customers This textbook provides students a theoretically grounded understanding of the basic building blocks of organizational rhetoric the types of rhetorical situations faced by organizational communicators and the specific strategies used to address six common organizational rhetorical situations such as image management Students will gain an understanding of the power of organizations in contemporary society and be able to think critically about organizational messages The text is organized in two units In the first unit authors Mary Hoffman and Debra Ford introduce the rationale for a rhetorical approach to organizational messages and introduce the basic rhetorical building blocks and principles behind the rhetorical situation and the analysis of strategies In the second unit the authors cover six specific rhetorical situations commonly faced by organizations image and identity management issue management impression management risk management crisis management and organizational apologia and internal message management Each chapter is structured similarly in conjunction with the ideas developed in unit one and each ends with a case study that exemplifies the content presented in that chapter Features and Benefits The first unit in the text will introduce the details of analyzing situations and identifying strategies The second unit will examine six specific recurring rhetorical situations for organizations Organizational schema centered on situations and strategies Use of real life case studies Focus on careers in organizational rhetoric Focus on thinking critically about organizations in society Chinese Rhetoric and Writing Andy Kirkpatrick,Zhichang Xu,2012-03-07 Andy Kirkpatrick and and Zhichang Xu offer a response to the argument that Chinese students academic writing in English is influenced by culturally nuanced rhetorical baggage that is uniquely Chinese and hard to eradicate Noting that this argument draws from an essentially monolingual and Anglo centric view of writing they point out that the rapid growth in the use of English worldwide calls for a radical reassessment of what English is in today s world The result is a book that provides teachers of writing and in particular those involved in the teaching of English academic writing to Chinese students an introduction to key stages in the development of Chinese rhetoric a wide ranging field with a history of several thousand years Understanding this important rhetorical tradition provides a strong foundation for assessing and responding to the writing of this growing group of students Rhetoric and Composition Steven Lynn,2010-09-30 An accessible introduction to teaching and studying rhetoric and composition Transmedia Narratives for Cultural Heritage Nicole Basaraba,2022-04-21 Transmedia Narratives for Cultural Heritage focuses on theoretical approaches to the analysis and creative practice of developing non fiction digital transmedia narratives in the rapidly growing cultural heritage sector This book applies a media focused transdisciplinary approach to understand the conventions of emerging digital narrative genres Considering digital media s impact on narrative creation and reception the approach namely remixed transmedia can aid practitioners in creating strategic non fiction narratives for cultural heritage These creations also need to be evaluated and a digital media focused ludonarrative toolkit allows for the critical analysis of the composition and public participation in interactive digital narratives This toolkit is applied and exemplified in genres including virtual museums serious games and interactive documentaries The book also includes a seven phase theoretical framework that can assist future creators and project managers of non fiction transmedia mothership narratives and a methodology based on big data analysis for how to invent new cultural heritage narratives through bottom up remixing that allows for public inclusion Two transnational case studies on the 11 UNESCO World Heritage Australian Convict Sites and the Irish National Famine Way demonstrate the seven phase framework s applicability As many scholars across disciplines are increasingly creating digital narratives on historical topics for public consumption in various forms the theoretical foundations and practical project management framework will be useful for scholars and project teams in the domains of transmedia studies interactive narratives cultural heritage media studies comparative literature and journalism Through the Models of Writing D. Alamargot,L. Chanquoy,2012-12-06 This book provides both young and senior scientists with a comparative view of current theoretical models of text production Models are clearly situated in their historical context scrutinized in their further evolution with a fine grained observation of differences between models Very complete and informative to read this book will be useful to people working in teaching of writing or studying this specific human activity

Rhetoric's Questions, Reading and Interpretation Peter Mack, 2017-08-20 This book aims to help readers interpret and reflect on their reading more effectively It presents doctrines of ancient and renaissance rhetoric an education in how to write well as questions or categories for interpreting one's reading The first chapter presents the questions Later chapters use rhetorical theory to bring out the implications of and suggest possible answers to the questions about occasion and audience chapter 2 structure and disposition 3 narrative 4 argument 5 further elements of content such as descriptions comparisons proverbs and moral axioms dialogue and examples 6 and style 7 Chapter eight describes ways of gathering material formulating arguments and writing about the texts one reads The conclusion considers the wider implications of taking a rhetorical approach to reading The investigation of rhetoric's questions is interspersed with analyses of texts by Chaucer Sidney Shakespeare Fielding and Rushdie using the questions The text is intended for university students of literature especially English literature and rhetoric and their teachers

Critical Data Storytelling in the Composition Classroom Angela Laflen, 2025-08-15 Critical Data Storytelling in the Composition Classroom provides a timely and essential framework for integrating data literacy into multimodal composition pedagogy Angela Laflen demonstrates that in an era dominated by big data and AI the need to understand how to work with data is no longer limited to scientists and mathematicians Instead data literacy has become a crucial skill for participating in democratic society At the heart of Laflen's approach is critical data storytelling a practice that equips students with the skills to understand interpret and ethically communicate with and about data through various multimodal formats By teaching students to make informed decisions as data storytellers Laflen addresses the ethical implications of working with data while offering practical strategies for reading and analyzing data stories This approach empowers both students and teachers to engage critically with data as a tool for learning and communication It also highlights how multimodal composition has yet to fully account for the central role of data in shaping contemporary communication and argumentation By focusing on the ethical and rhetorical dimensions of data storytelling Critical Data Storytelling in the Composition Classroom presents a pedagogical approach that prepares students for the challenges of working with data in a rapidly evolving digital landscape This flexible adaptable model for teaching critical data literacy is of great interest to writing instructors scholars in rhetoric and composition and educators who seek to prepare students for the demands of a data driven world

Readers and Reading Andrew Bennett, 2014-07-15 Much literary criticism focuses on literary producers and their products but an important part of such work considers the end user the reader It asks such questions as how far can the author condition the response of the reader and how much does the reader create the meaning of a text Dr Bennett's collection includes important essays from such writers and critics as Wolfgang Iser Mary Jacobus Roger Chartier Michel de Certeau Shoshana Felman Maurice Blanchot Paul de Man and Yves Bonnefoy It looks in turn at deconstructionist feminist new historicist and psychoanalytical response to the school The book then considers the act of reading itself discussing such issues as the uniqueness of any reading and the difficulties involved in its analysis

Intercultural Rhetoric and Professional Communication: Technological Advances and Organizational Behavior Thatcher, Barry, 2011-12-31 This book explores the theory and practice of rhetoric and professional communication in intercultural contexts providing a framework for translating localizing and internationalizing communications and information products around the world Provided by publisher

Understanding Rhetoric Eamon M. Cunningham, 2020-01-01 Understanding Rhetoric A Guide to Critical Reading and Argumentation is a composition textbook that outlines three essential skills rhetoric argument and source based writing geared towards newcomers and advanced students alike Though comprehensive in its coverage the book's focus is a simple one how to move beyond a gut reaction while reading to an articulation of what is effective and what is not while explicitly answering the most important question of Why This text gets at this central concern in two fundamental ways First the text teaches composition as a cumulative process coaching you how to question challenge and expand on not just the readings you hold in your hands but also how to interrogate the internal processes of writing and thinking The book's blend of composition methods detail the cross point of product and process to turn reading and writing from a matter of coming up with answers to questions to learning what type of questions need to be asked in the first place The right questions the text argues are fundamentally rhetorical in nature Second the content of the practice based chapters is framed into a larger mesh of intellectual history to show how the writing and thinking you are doing today is continuous with a long history of writing instruction that goes back to the ancient world This book provides equal representation from classical and contemporary theory with the recognition that theory cannot be fully grasped without practice and practice cannot be fully understood without its theoretical antecedent After all you can't write outside the box until you know where the box is and what it looks like

Culture Figures Michał Mokrzan, 2024-06-01 Ethnographic research anthropological theory and the understanding of the objects of inquiry are co created through figuration using tropes and rhetorical figures and techniques of persuasion Delving into descriptive ethnography and theoretical texts spanning across classical monographs and recent texts in cultural anthropology Culture Figures places rhetoric and rhetoricity as central to the discipline's self understanding It focuses on how understandings of culture and social life are shaped and conveyed in cultural anthropology through textual rhetoric The book demonstrates how processes of using tropes and modes of persuasion underlie the creation of meanings or misunderstandings in society Reading for Success in Elementary Schools Earl H. Cheek,Rona F. Flippo,Jimmy D. Lindsey,1997 Provides future teachers with practical suggestions for developing a reading and learning programme in the primary school The text begins with theoretical material follows with methods for developing literacy skills and ends with practical information on assessment and organization An instructor s manual along with test file and microtest are also available Handbook of Writing Research , Rhetorical Poetics Donald Rice,Peter Schofer,1983 The current renewed interest in rhetoric particularly as it relates to the art of literary interpretation has returned tropes to their central position in the reading process In this incisive volume Donald Rice and Peter Schofer provide a sound and systematic redefinition of the major tropes and demonstrate how every act of reading is necessarily rooted in those tropological operations The implications of their study are far reaching By identifying the rhetorical steps that must be followed in explicating any literary work Rice and Schofer provide the reader with a clear guide to fiction of all genres and periods Anyone involved in literary interpretation and looking for a model that promises a heightened appreciation and grasp of figurative texts will welcome the resulting volume
