Models Of God Theology For An Ecological Nuclear Age:

Models of God Sallie McFague, 1987-01-01 In this award winning text theologian Sallie McFague challenges Christians usual speech about God as a kind of monarch She probes instead three other possible metaphors for God as mother lover and friend The Body of God Sallie McFague, 1993 In Models of God now in a second impression Sallie McFague dealt principally with immanent models God as mother lover and friend of the world Her choice was a deliberate one an attempt to balance the heavy transcendence of the Christian doctrine of God However she ended the book aware that what was needed is not only immanent models of God but ways of thinking of God's transcendence in an immanent way This book is the result

Models of God and Alternative Ultimate Realities Jeanine Diller, Asa Kasher, 2013-06-13 The envisioned volume is a collection of recent essays about the philosophical exploration critique and comparison of the major philosophical models of God gods and other ultimate realities implicit in the world's philosophical schools and religions and of the ideas of such models and doing such modeling per se The aim is to identify exactly what a model of ultimate reality is create a comprehensive and accessible collection of extant models and determine how best philosophically to model ultimate reality if possible and desirable

Metaphorical Theology Sallie McFague, Distinguished Theologian in Residence Sallie McFague, 1982 Sequel to Speaking in parables 1975 Includes bibliographical references and index The Making of American Liberal Theology Gary J. Dorrien, 2006-01-01 In this first of three volumes Dorrien identifies the indigenous roots of American liberal theology and demonstrates a wider longer running tradition than has been thought The tradition took shape in the nineteenth century motivated by a desire to map a modernist third way between orthodoxy and rationalistic deism atheism It is defined by its openness to modern intellectual inquiry its commitment to the authority of individual reason and experience its conception of Christianity as an ethical way of life and its commitment to make Christianity credible and socially relevant to modern people Dorrien takes a narrative approach and provides a biographical reading of important religious thinkers of the time including William E Channing Ralph Waldo Emerson Horace Bushnell Henry Ward Beecher Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Charles Briggs Dorrien notes that although liberal theology moved into elite academic institutions its conceptual foundations were laid in the pulpit rather than the classroom

The Spirit of American Liberal Theology Gary Dorrien, 2023-09-05 The Spirit of American Liberal Theology is an interpretation of the entire U S American tradition of liberal theology A highly condensed and far more accessible summary of Gary Dorrien's three volume trilogy The Making of American Liberal Theology Westminster John Knox Press 2001 2003 and 2006 Dorrien here presses the argument that the most abundant diverse and persistent tradition of liberal theology is the one that blossomed in the United States and is still refashioning itself While discussions of English and German liberalism persist new material includes expanded treatment of the Black social gospel the Universalists' developments into early 2020s and a robust expression of the author's post Hegelian liberal liberationist perspective and powerful guide to theological thinking about God and the world individual and community humanity and nature reality and metaphor the sacramental and the prophetic and the critical issue of climate change for today s world She calls Christians to new feeling new acting and new thinking Neopragmatism and Theological Reason G.W. Kimura,2017-03-02

Neopragmatism and Theological Reason examines the recent explosion of interest in pragmatism Part I traces the source of classical pragmatism s distinctive thought to Peirce James and Dewey specifically to their shared theological understanding inherited from Emerson s Transcendentalism and British Romanticism Part II reconstructs this rationality for postmodernity showing how neopragmatism properly understood is theological reason Kimura discusses the return of religious themes in philosophers like Putnam Cavell and Rorty and critiques the neopragmatic theologies of West McFague and Kaufman

Neopragmatism and Theological Reason explores pragmatic themes across philosophy theology and literary theory arguing that neopragmatism must acknowledge its theological sources and then reconstruct its rationality to the religious context of modernity postmodernity The Character of God Thomas E. Jenkins,1997-12-04

Educated people have become bereft of sophisticated ways to develop their religious inclinations A major reason for this is that theology has become vague and dull In The Character of God author Thomas E Jenkins maintains that Protestant theology became boring by the late nineteenth century because the depictions of God as a character in theology became boring He shows how in the early nineteenth century American Protestant theologians downplayed biblical depictions of God s emotional complexity and refashioned his character according to their own notions stressing emotional singularity These notions came from many sources but the major influences were the neoclassical and sentimental literary styles of characterization dominant at the time The serene benevolence of neoclassicism and the tender sympathy of sentimentalism may have made God appealing in the mid 1800s but by the end of the century these styles had lost much of their cultural power and increasingly came to seem flat and vague Despite this both liberal and conservative theologians clung to these characterizations of God throughout the twentieth century Jenkins argues that a way out of this impasse can be found in romanticism the literary style of characterization that supplanted neoclassicism and sentimentalism and dominated American literary culture throughout the twentieth century Romanticism emphasized emotional complexity and resonated with biblical depictions of God A few maverick religious writers such as Harriet Beecher Stowe W G T Shedd and Horace Bushnell did devise emotionally complex characterizations of God and in some cases drew directly from romanticism But their strange and sometimes shocking depictions of God were largely forgotten in the twentieth century s use theological as a pejorative term implying that an argument is needlessly

Jenkins urges a reassessment of their work and a greaterin understanding of the relationship between theology and literature Recovering the lost literary power of American Protestantism he claims will make the character of God more compelling and help modern readers appreciate the peculiar power of the biblical characterization of God Views of Nature and Dualism Thomas John Hastings,Knut-Willy Sæther,2024-01-19

In the face of the anthropogenic threats to the singular

planetary habitat we share with other human beings and non human species humanities scholars feel a renewed sense of urgency 1 to acknowledge the ways our species has funded particular histories of environmental exploitation alienation and collapse 2 to unpack inherited assumptions that impact our views of nature and interspecies relations and 3 to suggest ways of thinking and acting that seek to repair the damage and promote mutual flourishing for all of earth inhabitants This volume brings together scholars in philosophy theology and religion who take up this urgent ethical task from a broad range of perspectives and locations

Wonder as a New Starting Point for Theological Anthropology José Francisco Morales Torres, 2023-04-04 In Wonder as a New Starting Point for Theological Anthropology Opened by the World Jos Francisco Morales Torres constructs a new theological anthropology that begins with wonder He contends that the visceral experience of wonder is an opening up of the human by an excess that saturates the world This opened by ness points to a transforming receptivity as the basis of the person and to an extravagant Generosity that grounds all creation Thus wonder which is grounded in generous Excess is not only a gift but a demand it calls for a liberative praxis that resist the forces that flatten the fullness of life into what is useful and profitable and that reduce the limitless worth of fellow humans to mere commodities to be exploited and exchanged at the altar of the idolatrous Market Wonder reveals a primordial receptivity in the human person which demands of us an ethic of sustainability that does not reduce the other to commodity a vulnerability that risks being opened by the other a commitment to solidarity and liberation that resist the forces of an insatiable idolatrous Market that seeks only to steal and kill and destroy

Creation Out of Nothing Paul Copan, William Lane Craig, 2004-06 Addresses the biblical philosophical and scientific bases for the doctrine of creation out of nothing while countering contemporary trends that are assailing this doctrine

Cracks in the Foundation Stephen Howe, 2016-06-22 The Controversies of Modern Christianity Where Do You Stand Cracks in the Foundation Controversies in Christianity presents fresh insight on the hottest topics in modern religious debate such as Biblical Creation versus scientific evidence and evil and suffering in God s world as well as other issues Many of today s Christians struggle with issues rising from the Bible s relation to modern science from rational thought and from mixed messages within the Bible itself The Bible if read literally says God created heaven and earth 6000 years ago and created humanity on the sixth day But modern science says the universe came into being 14 billion years ago and humanity evolved over millions of years from lower life forms Others struggle with the prevalence of evil in God s world and with contradictory biblical statements concerning predestination versus free will Contradictions like these pose problems for people who think carefully about their beliefs Indeed many younger people are now looking elsewhere for answers and the number of Americans professing Christianity has recently dropped from 78% to 70% However thoughtful and inquisitive believers can now find an extremely valuable resource in Cracks in the Foundation This book presents a wealth of fresh insights and perspectives on twelve of the hottest topics in modern Christian debate A central theme is that many of the apparent contradictions are not as severe as they appear We find in many cases that Bible science and rational thought are amenable to reconciliation and even mutual enrichment

God's Power Anna Case-Winters,1990-01-01 With this book Anna Case Winters provides a reconstruction of the doctrine of God based on process theology and feminist thought She takes a fresh approach to the problem of theodicy the justification of God's goodness and omnipotence in view of the existence of evil and contends that traditional attempts to address this problem are unsuccessful because they do not discuss the meaning of omnipotence Once the dispute is recast it is not a question of how much power is attributed to God but what kind Case Winters provides a coherent and theologically viable doctrine of omnipotence that avoids the pitfalls of traditional beliefs Gods after God Richard Grigg,2006-06-01

Gods after God provides an accessible introduction to a wide range of contemporary radical theologies Radical theology can be defined as talk about the divine that rejects the notion of God as a supernatural personal consciousness who created the world and who intervenes in it to accomplish his purposes In addition radical theologies tend to reject the absolute authority of traditional sources of guidance such as the Bible and the tradition of a church Richard Grigg demonstrates that there is a discernible stream of radical theologies beginning in the seventeenth century and continuing to the present He explores a host of rich and lively contemporary radical religious positions including the radical feminist theology of Mary Daly the deconstructive theology of Mark C Taylor the religious naturalism of Ursula Goodenough and Donald Crosby the pragmatist approaches of Sallie McFague and Gordon Kaufman the Taoist interpretation of Jesus of Stephen Mitchell and the feminist polytheism of Naomi Goldenberg This in depth examination asks in unflinching terms what challenges radical theologies face and whether they have a realistic chance of surviving in American society Ethics, Religion, and the Good Society

Joseph Runzo,1992-01-01 People living in a pluralistic age are aware of diversity among themselves and consider it both natural and enriching for humankind However there are many disagreements that create ethical questions on the nature of human good religion and public morality and more Joseph Runzo with the help of a diverse group of contributors skillfully deals with these ethical issues The Relational Power of God Eleanor O'Donnell,2023-01-23

When we find the courage to allow our rebel voice to speak many of us question traditional Christian beliefs about God's power and how it is exercised in the world and in the church We ask What if God is not in omnipotent control of everything What if God's exercise of power is relational and noncoercive instead What if it is the quality rather than the quantity of God's power that really matters This book focuses on the theology of power that emerges when we ask such questions It draws on the social Trinitarian theology of Jürgen Moltmann and the process thought of Charles Hartshorne to image God as a Social Trinity in process This vision of God understands the Holy Trinity to be fully relational and thoroughly with us and all creation To think of God and God's power this way ensures freedom for creature and creation and enables a viable response to the problem of evil and suffering It also leads to the conclusion that human relationships in the world and in the church are best modeled on the power sharing solidarity of the Triune God God is Green Bob Shore-Goss,2016-10-28 At this time of climate crisis here is a practical Christian ecospirituality It emerges from the pastoral and theological experience of Reverend Robert Shore Goss who worked with his congregation by making the earth a member of the church by greening worship and by helping the church building and operations attain a carbon neutral footprint Shore Goss explores an ecospirituality grounded in incarnational compassion Practicing incarnational compassion means following the lived praxis of Jesus and the commission of the risen Christ as Gardener Jesus becomes the green face of God Restrictive Christian spiritualities that exclude the earth as an original blessing of God must expand This expansion leads to the realization that the incarnation of Christ has deep roots in the earth and the fleshly or biological tissue of life This book aims to foster ecological conversation in churches and outlines the following practices for congregations meditating on nature inviting sermons on green topics covenanting with the earth and retrieving the natural elements of the sacraments These practices help us recover ourselves as fleshly members of the earth and the network of life If we fall in love with God's creation says Shore Goss we will fight against climate change

The Bonds of Freedom Rebekah Miles, 2001 Miles contends that an increasingly radical feminist emphasis on divine immanence and human boundedness has undercut key assumptions upon which feminism rests Niebuhr's realism she believes can be the source of a necessary correction

Modern Christian Thought: The twentieth century James C. Livingston, Francis Schüssler Fiorenza, This widely acclaimed introduction to modern Christian thought formerly published by Prentice Hall provides full scholarly accounts of the major movements and thinkers theologians and philosophers in the Christian tradition since the eighteenth century Enlightenment together with solid historical background and critical assessments This second edition deals with the entire modern period in both Europe and America and is the first to include extensive treatment of modern Catholic thinkers Evangelical thought and Black and Womanist theology
