Oral Tradition in African Literature Chin Ce, Charles Smith, 2015-09-04 This study of oral tradition in African literature is borne from the awareness that African verbal arts still survive in works of discerning writers and in the conscious exploration of its tropes perspectives philosophy and consciousness its complementary realism and ontology for the delineation of authentic African response to memory history and other possible comparisons with modern existence such as witnessed in recent developments of the African novel In this series we have strived to adopt innovative and multilayered perspectives on orality or indigeneity and its manifestations on contemporary African and new literatures These studies use multi faceted theories of orality which discuss and deconstruct notions of history truth claims and identity making not excluding gender and genealogy cultural and biological studies in African contexts Modern African Literature S. S. Gill, 2008 Culture, Society, and Politics in Modern African Literature Tanure Ojaide, Joseph Enuenwemba Obi, 2002 A gap exists between African literary texts and their interpretation for many scholars and readers of African literature today Unfamiliar with the cultures societies and politics of Africa some readers bring a perspective to the work that is at odds with the worldview embodied by the works themselves In Culture Society and Politics in Modern African Literature Ojaide and Obi investigate the paradoxes and ironies of a literature produced in Africa and interpreted by readers and scholars African and non African who are living outside the continent Starting from the premise that literature is a cultural production of a people they look at some of the factors important for the interpretation and analysis of African literature including the colonial experience of Africans the realities of the post independence era and the economic conditions of African states This book the collaborative work of a literary scholar poet and a sociologist addresses the general and specific problems in the understanding of African literature and will be of interest to students and scholars as well as to general audiences In sum the individual chapters cover a wide range within African literature geographically and linguistically with a special focus on current trends in creative production and criticism The book is well written with clear and concise explanations of critical terms and concepts African Studies Review The Comic Imagination in Modern African Literature and Cinema Maik Nwosu, 2016-02-05 This book is a seminal study that significantly expands the interdisciplinary discourse on African literature and cinema by exploring Africa s under visited carnivalesque poetics of laughter Focusing on modern African literature as well as contemporary African cinema particularly the direct to video Nigerian film industry known as Nollywood the book examines the often neglected aesthetics of the African comic imagination In modern African literature which sometimes creatively traces a path back to African folklore and in Nollywood with its aesthetic relationship to Onitsha Market Literature the pertinent styles range from comic simplicitas to comic magnitude with the facilitation of language characterization and plot by a poetics of laughter or lightness as an important aspect of style The poetics at work is substantially carnivalesque a comic preference or tendency that is attributable in different contexts to a purposeful comic sensibility or an unstructured but ingrained or virtual comic mode In the best instances of this comic vision the characteristic laughter or lightness can facilitate a revaluation or reappreciation of the world either because of the aesthetic structure of signification or the consequent chain of signification This referentiality or progressive signification is an important aspect of the poetics of laughter as the African comic imagination variously reflects across genres both the festival character of comedy and its pedagogical value This book marks an important contribution to African literature postcolonial literature world literature comic imagination poetics critical theory and African cinema Language Aesthetics of Modern African Drama Isaiah Ilo, 2013-11-13 The goal of this book is to initiate theoretical discussions on the popular subject of African literary language and the thrust of the contribution apart from theory building is the introduction of the Post indiginist concept next to the well known essentialist and hybrid concepts The study outlines a set of criteria for each aesthetic concept so that literary analysis based on the criteria will verify whether or not they are adequate for understanding explaining and describing African writers language usage It is expected that a language aesthetic theory in the African context may help in the study of individual writers styles and equally address a neglect of descriptive studies in African literary scholarship Modern African Stories, 1964 African Literature in the Twentieth Century O. R. Dathorne, 1975 Explores intellectual currents in African prose and verse from sung or chanted lines to modern writings Milestones in African Literature Toyin Falola, 2024-07-31 Milestones in African Literature offers an accessible guide to ten key moments in African literature It traces literature in Africa through forms and genres as well as social and political changes Toyin Falola embraces the richness of African literature and considers the oral tradition pre colonial literature apartheid print media and digital literature postcolonialism and migration literature He explores the realities of African people by drawing from and highlighting peoples convictions spirituality and pasts The book reveals African literature s capacity to convey cultural social and political messages through storytelling while depicting the social structures and cultural norms that shape these experiences through the examination of perspectives and literary works of African authors Milestones in African Literature is the ideal resource for undergraduate and graduate students interested in African literatures It will also be invaluable for teachers and researchers aiming to strengthen their knowledge The Growth of African Literature African Literature Association. Meeting, 1998 This collection of papers results from the 15th annual meeting of the African Literature Association which was held in Dakar Senegal and was the first such meeting to be held in Africa Topics covered include approaches and literary theory language and history thematic analysis and literature in the African Diaspora Black African Literature in English Since 1952 Barbara Abrash, 1967 African Oral Literature Isidore Okpewho, 1992-09-22 its pages come alive with wonderful illustrative material coupled with sensitive and insightful commentary Reviews in Anthropology the scope breadth and lucidity of this excellent study confirm that Okpewho is undoubtedly the most important authority writing on African oral literature right now Research in African Literatures Truly a tour de force of individual scholarship World Literature Today excellent African Affairs a thorough synthesis of the main issues of oral literature criticism as well as a grounding in experienced fieldwork a wide ranging theoretical base and a clarity of argument rare among academics Multicultural Review This is a breathtakingly ambitious project Harold Scheub a definitive accounting of the evidence of living oral traditions in Africa today Professor Okpewho s authority as an expert in this important new field is unrivaled Gregory Nagy Isidore Okpewho s African Oral Literature is a marvelous piece of scholarship and wide ranging research It presents the most comprehensive survey of the field of oral literature in Africa Emmanuel Obiechina a tour de force of scholarship in which Okpewho casts his net across the African continent searching for its verbal forms through voluminous recent writings and presents African oral literature in a new voice proclaiming the literariness of African folklore Dan Ben Amos This is an outstanding book by a scholar whose work has already influenced how African literature should be conceived Professor Okpewho is a scholar with a special talent to nurture scholarship in others After this work African literature will never be the same Mazisi Kunene Isidore Okpewho for many years Professor of English at the University of Ibadan is one of the handful of African scholars who has facilitated the growth of African oral literature to its status today as a literary enterprise concerned with the artistic foundations of human culture This comprehensive critical work firmly establishes oral literature as a landmark of high artistic achievement and situates it within the broader framework of contemporary African culture Postmodern Reading of Contemporary East African Fiction Andrew Nyongesa, 2024-02-29 This book likens writers incessant focus on racism negative ethnicity patriarchy and social stratification in societies to a naive physician who prescribes analgesics to treat symptoms while the underlying cause of the disease seethes in the blood In the same way persons who consistently blame their reckless conduct and shabbiness miss the point if they do not transform the actual cause of the problem the mind While most literary scholars problematise gender disparities racial and political othering oppression environment degradation education matters poor parenting and governance they tend to disregard the root cause modernism This book finds a gap in this grey area to address the authentic cause of the symptoms that most literary writers and scholars treat Pertinent modernist tenets such as bureaucracy the nation state systematisation and rationality and dualism are at the heart of racism corruption and other aforementioned symptoms It is the contention of this study that postmodernism offers a comprehensive understanding of modernism to mitigate its effects on society African Literature Jonathan P. Smithe, 2002 African literature like the continent itself is enormous and diverse East Africa s literature is different from West Africa s which is quite different from South Africa s which has different influences on it than North Africa s Africa s literature is based on a widespread heritage of oral literature some of which has now been recorded Arabic influence can be detected as well as European especially French and English

Legends myths proverbs riddles and folktales form the mother load of the oral literature This book presents an overview of African literature as well as a comprehensive bibliography primarily of English language sources Accessed by subject author and title indexes

The Changing Face of African Literature / Les nouveaux visages de la littérature africaine,2009-01-01 The Changing Face of African Literature combines both the large picture a synopsis of current trends in African literature and the small studies of individual texts and of themes across several texts The large and the small are linked by recurring themes such as gender and sexuality the nation state and its collapse AIDS war and suffering The volume is comparative bringing together literature in at least five languages and from at least ten national literatures Such a large comparative frame is implied by most discussion of African literature but is too seldom seen At the same time the collection also problematizes the comparison the goal is to make clear what African literatures have in common but also where they diverge What difference do distinct literary traditions readerships and publishing patterns make to literatures which share a common thematic and so many of the same questions and needs By juxtaposing contemporary texts from several traditions the intention of this collection is to bring out the themes that are currently dominant in African literatures generally After a preface by Liz Gunner and a wide ranging introduction by the editors the collection presents keynote essays on new paradigms in African literature before treating specific themes recent crime fiction the Afrikaans and anglophone novel feminist literature migration and studies of recent works by individual authors such as Andr Brink Henri Djombo Pie Tshibanda Bessora Nadine Gordimer and Paulina Chiziane as well as the South African television series Yizo Yizo
