Modern Anthropology Of South East Asia An Introduction:

The Modern Anthropology of South-East Asia Victor T. King, 2003 This is the first comprehensive introduction to the social and cultural anthropology of South East Asia It provides an overview of the major theoretical issues and themes which have emerged from the engagement of anthropologists with South East Asian communities a succinct historical survey and analysis of the peoples and cultures of the region Most importantly the volume reveals the vitally important role which the study of the area has occupied in the development of the concepts and methods of anthropology from the perspectives of Edmund Leach to Clifford Geertz Maurice Freedman to Claude Levi Strauss Lauriston Sharp to Melford Spiro Southeast Asian Studies Cynthia Chou, Vincent Houben, 2006 What is the relevance of the area studies approach to Southeast Asia The current state and future directions of area studies of which Southeast Asian studies are a part is a central question not only to scientists working in the field but also those engaged in university politics This collection of nine articles is written by specialists from different disciplinary backgrounds and working in institutions of higher learning all around the world It provides an up to date insight into the current state of the study field its strengths and weaknesses and seeks ways to reconfigure Southeast Asian studies in order to meet the challenges of a region that is caught up in profound transformation as a consequence of both globalization and localization An Introduction to the Modern Anthropology of South-east Asia

Victor T. King, 2003 The Peoples of Southeast Asia Today Robert L. Winzeler, 2010-01-16 The Peoples of Southeast Asia Today offers an anthropological treatment of the ethnography and ethnology of Southeast Asia covering both the mainland and the insular regions Based on the proposition that Southeast Asia is a true culture area the book offers background information on geography languages prehistory and history with a particular emphasis on the role of colonialism and the development of ethnic pluralism It then turns to classic anthropological topics of interest including modes of adaptation ways of life and religion all illustrated with relevant case studies and all brought up to date to show what is happening now Students will find well supported discussions of subjects ranging from the development of agriculture and language dispersals to fantasy and reality in hunter gatherer studies to disputed interpretations of Thai Buddhism and Javanese Islam to ongoing government efforts to manage religion create proper citizens resettle and assimilate indigenous populations end shifting cultivation and promote modernization Human Insecurities in Southeast Asia Paul J.

Carnegie, Victor T. King, Zawawi Ibrahim, 2016-08-30 This book is a collection of work by scholars currently pursuing research on human security and insecurities in Southeast Asia It deals with a set of insecurities that is not readily understood or measurable As such it conceptually locates the threats and impediments to human security within relationships of risk uncertainty safety and trust At the same time it presents a wide variety of investigations and approaches from both localized and regional perspectives By focusing on the human and relational dimensions of insecurities in Southeast Asia it highlights the ways in which vulnerable and precarious circumstances human insecurities are part of daily life for large numbers of people in Southeast Asia and are mainly beyond their immediate control Many of the situations people experience in Southeast Asia represent the real outcomes of a range of largely unacknowledged socio cultural economic transformations interlinked by local national regional and global forces factors and interests Woven from experience and observations of life at various sites in Southeast Asia the contributions in this volume give an internal and critical perspective to a complex and manifold issue They draw attention to a variety of the less than obvious threats to human security and show how perplexing those threats can be All of which underscores the significance of multidisciplinary approaches in rethinking and responding to the complex array of conditioning factors and interests underlying human insecurities in Southeast Asia The

Sociology of Southeast Asia Victor T. King, 2008 One of the main problems faced by teachers and students who have a scholarly interest in Southeast Asia is the lack of general user friendly texts in the social sciences The absence of an introduction to the sociology of Southeast Asia is especially unfortunate This volume attempts to meet these needs This is then the first sole authored introductory sociology text on Southeast Asia that focuses on change and development in the region provides an overview of the important sociological and political economy writings and considers the key concepts and themes in the field since 1945 Some multiauthored works do exist but these either are outdated or focus on specialized topics Aimed primarily at undergraduates up to the final year it will also be a useful reference work for post graduates and researchers who lack such a general work The Modern Anthropology of South-East Asia Victor King, 2014-01-31 This is a comprehensive introduction to the social and cultural anthropology of South East Asia It provides an overview of the major theoretical issues and themes which have emerged from the engagement of anthropologists with South East Asian communities a succinct historical survey and analysis of the peoples and cultures of the region Most importantly the volume reveals the vitally important role which the study of the area has occupied in the development of the concepts and methods of anthropology from the perspectives of Edmund Leach to Clifford Geertz Maurice Freedman to Claude Levi Strauss Lauriston Sharp to Melford Spiro Social Dynamics in the Highlands of Southeast Asia François Robinne, Mandy Sadan, 2007

Drawing on long term fieldwork and research in communities from Assam through to Laos this book offers a unique level of reappraisal of the work of Edmund Leach and is a significant contribution to the development of a new regional anthropology of Southeast Asia Everyday Life in Southeast Asia Kathleen M. Adams, Kathleen A. Gillogly, 2011-07-18 This lively survey of the peoples cultures and societies of Southeast Asia introduces a region of tremendous geographic linguistic historical and religious diversity Encompassing both mainland and island countries these engaging essays describe personhood and identity family and household organization nation states religion popular culture and the arts the legacies of war and recovery globalization and the environment Throughout the focus is on the daily lives and experiences of ordinary people Most of the essays are original to this volume while a few are widely taught classics All were chosen for their timeliness and interest and are ideally suited for the classroom A History of Southeast Asia Anthony Reid, 2015-03-03

2016 PROSE Award Honorable Mention for Textbook in the Humanities A History of Southeast Asia Critical Crossroads presents a comprehensive history of Southeast Asia from our earliest knowledge of its civilizations and religious patterns up to the present day Incorporates environmental social economic and gender issues to tell a multi dimensional story of Southeast Asian history from earliest times to the present Argues that while the region remains a highly diverse mix of religions ethnicities and political systems it demands more attention for how it manages such diversity while being receptive to new ideas and technologies Demonstrates how Southeast Asia can offer alternatives to state centric models of history more broadly Part of The Blackwell History of the World Series The goal of this ambitious series is to provide an accessible source of knowledge about the entire human past for every curious person in every part of the world It will comprise some two dozen volumes of which some provide synoptic views of the history of particular regions while others consider the world as a whole during a particular period of time The volumes are narrative in form giving balanced attention to social and cultural history in the broadest sense as well as to institutional development and political change Each provides a systematic account of a very large subject but they are also both imaginative and interpretative The Series is intended to be accessible to the widest possible readership and the accessibility of its volumes is matched by the style of presentation and production

Fieldwork and the Self J  r  my Jammes, Victor T. King, 2021-11-09 This book presents new perspectives on Southeast Asia using cases from a range of ethnic groups cultures and histories written by scholars from different ethnicities generations disciplines and scientific traditions It examines various research trajectories engaging with epistemological debates on the global and local on insiders and outsiders and the role played by personal experiences in the collection and analysis of empirical data The volume provides subjects for debate rarely addressed in formal approaches to data gathering and analysis Rather than grappling with the usual methodological building blocks of research training it focuses on neglected issues in the research experience including chance error coincidence mishap dead ends silence secrets improvisation remembering digital challenges and shifting tracks Fieldwork and the Self is relevant to academics and researchers from universities and international organisations who are engaged in teaching and learning in area studies and social science research methods A rich and compelling set of writings about fieldwork in and beyond Southeast Asia Lyn Parker Emeritus Professor University of Western Australia A must read for all especially emerging scholars on Southeast Asia and a refreshing read for critical old hands on the region Abdul Rahman Embong Emeritus Professor Institute of Malaysian and International Studies IKMAS Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia An impressive collection of essays by two academics who have devoted their academic life to anthropological fieldwork in Southeast Asia Shamsul A B Distinguished Professor and UNESCO Chair Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia The contributors share an unquenchable and passionate curiosity for Southeast Asia They have survived the uncertainties and disillusionment of their fieldwork and remained first grade scholars Marie Sybille de Vienne Professor National Institute for Oriental Languages and Civilisations Paris A penetrating reflection on current social science research on Southeast Asia Hans Dieter Evers Professor Emeritus and Senior Fellow University of Bonn Borneo Studies in History, Society and Culture Victor T. King, Zawawi Ibrahim, Noor Hasharina Hassan, 2016-08-12 This edited book is the first major review of what has been achieved in Borneo Studies to date Chapters in this book situate research on Borneo within the general disciplinary fields of the social sciences with the weight of attention devoted to anthropological research and related fields such as development studies gender studies environmental studies social policy studies and cultural studies Some of the chapters in this book are extended versions of presentations at the Borneo Research Council's international conference hosted by Universiti Brunei Darussalam in June 2012 and a Borneo Studies workshop organised in Brunei in 2012 The volume examines some of the major debates and controversies in Borneo Studies including those which have served to connect post war research on Borneo to wider scholarship It also assesses some of the more recent contributions and interests of locally based researchers in universities and other institutions in Borneo itself The major strength of the book is the inclusion of a substantial amount of research undertaken by scholars working and teaching within the Southeast Asian region In particular there is an examination of research materials published in the vernacular notably the outpouring of work published in Indonesian by the Institut Dayakologi in Pontianak In doing so the book also addresses the urgent matters which have not received the attention they deserve specifically subjects themes and issues that have already been covered but require further contemplation elaboration and research and the scope for disciplinary and multidisciplinary collaboration in Borneo Studies The book is a valuable resource and reference work for students and researchers interested in social science scholarship on Borneo and for those with wider interests in Indonesia and Malaysia and in the Southeast Asian region

Identity and the State in Malaysia Fausto Barlocco, 2013-12-04 Using the case study of the Kadazan of Sabah a region in the Malaysian section of Borneo this book examines national ethnic and local identities in post colonial states It shows the importance of the connection between lived experience and identity and belonging and by doing so provides a deeper and fuller explanation of the apparently contradictory conflict between different collective forms of identification and the way in which they are employed in reference to everyday situations Based on ethnographic fieldwork and historical analysis the book reconstructs

the development of the cultural forms and labels associated with the collective identities it studies The author employs an approach that sees collective identification as an expression of everyday practices and that stresses the importance of participation and familiarity between forms of identification and lived experience In this context he considers anthropological debates about state minorities relations and issues of dignity and respect Explaining state minority relations in Malaysia and more generally in other post colonial realities the insights presented are highly relevant to other cases of conflicting allegiances and identity politics in settings of post colonial nation building

Southeast Asian Perspectives on Power Liana Chua, Joanna Cook, Nicholas Long, Lee Wilson, 2012-05-04 Southeast Asia has undergone innumerable far reaching changes and dramatic transformations over the last half century This book explores the concept of power in relation to these transformations and examines its various social cultural religious economic and political forms The book works from the ground up portraying Southeast Asians own perspectives conceptualizations and experiences of power through empirically rich case studies Exploring concepts of power in diverse settings from the stratagems of Indonesian politicians and the aspirations of marginal Lao bureaucrats to mass Prayer Power rallies in the Philippines self cultivation practices of Thai Buddhists and relations with the dead in Singapore the book lays out a new framework for the analysis of power in Southeast Asia in which orientations towards or away from certain models practices and configurations of power take centre stage in analysis In doing so the book demonstrates how power cannot be pinned down to a single definition but is woven into Southeast Asian lives in complex subtle and often surprising ways Integrating theoretical debates with empirical evidence drawn from the contributing authors own research this book is of particular interest to scholars and students of Anthropology and Asian Studies

Methodology and Research Practice in Southeast Asian Studies M. Huotari, J. Rüländ, J.
