

Advance praise for MODERN BAPTISTS:

"One of the life of a small town in back-country Louisiana, James Wilcox has made a tale that is realistic and fantastic, painful and comic, and in a strongly and psychologically penetrating. Modern Baptists is an impressive achievement, and its author is a writer of impressive promise. There is no writer exactly like him. He is original."

—Robert Penn Warren

"Wilcox writes now, the gift of the South to American writing has been better. With his first novel, Modern Baptists, James Wilcox joins the large and usually healthy of dark-minded southerners—Twain, Faulkner, O'Connor, Kerpene, Welty—who make up plots and plot hair-raising whoppers as they hurry for home past the river graveyard. The setting of Wilcox's novel is Tula Springs, Louisiana, and his hero is a beakless, forty-one-year-old bachelor named Pickens. How much more there is to poor Pickens than first meets the eye as Wilcox reveals in the course of an uneven but good, sometimes surprisingly touching story. Wilcox has a knack for writing well about young women and a knack for slapstick as well as single such disparities with seeming ease. Here at a long and possibly literary future. I congratulate Wilcox on his vigorous debut."

—Brendan Gill

"James Wilcox, Southern Supreme, once again proves that we are, however subtle and odd, more tragic than our Yankee cousins."

—Rita Mae Brown

"With imagination's gleam of touch, a demon's sense of irony and a man's they feeling for people of slight sophistication, James Wilcox has mixed up, real and complete, the world of Tula Springs and has given us a great comic novel."

—Timothy Chace

Professor David Bebbington is a highly regarded historian. He holds a chair at the University of Stirling, has been President of the Ecclesiastical History Society and has delivered numerous endowed lecture series as well as being deeply involved in the Dr Williams's Dissenting Academies Project. He is both a popular and influential academic historian whose writings have significantly shaped our thinking about the history of evangelicalism, Baptist life and political developments. In Pathways and Patterns, colleagues, former research students and friends who are indebted to Professor Bebbington and value his contribution to scholarship join together to pay tribute to his outstanding work. Not only has he stimulated academic endeavour, he has also given much personal support, not least to those in the Baptist Historical Society and in Colleges among them, Spurgeon's College and Baylor University, USA, where he is a Distinguished Visiting Professor. This volume reflects his wide involvements and the grateful esteem in which he is held. Among Professor Bebbington's achievements has been both instituting and masterminding the very important International Conference on Baptist Studies (ICOBBS) held every three years in different parts of the world. It is appropriate then that this volume was presented to him at the Seventh ICOBBS Conference held in Manchester, July 2015.

Modern American Religion, Volume 2 Martin E. Marty, 1997-06-21 In this second volume of two tracing the history of 20th century American religion, Martin E. Marty tells the story of how America has survived religious disturbances and culturally prospered from them.

The Baptist Home Mission Monthly, 1901 Modern Drug use R.D. Mann, 2012-12-06

Aureolus Theophrastus Bombastus von Hohenheim, 1493-1541, commonly called Paracelsus, was both one of the most original medical thinkers of the sixteenth century and was the man who made opium, as laudanum, arsenic, copper sulphate, iron, lead, mercury, potassium sulphate and sulphur, part of the pharmacopoeia. A man of many parts, but a pioneer chemist, Paracelsus can be regarded as the originator of a body of work which was the precursor of chemical pharmacology and therapeutics. To no small extent he stands therefore as a father figure of the modern pharmaceutical industry. Today's physician who wants to look at that industry since the days of Paracelsus and weigh the great gains against the problems soon encounters difficulties. To diminish them, this Enquiry approaches its subject from historical principles. This gives increased perspective to questions asked late in the 19th century, these questions being prompted by medical practice outside the industry and some twenty years of drug development activity within it. In antiquity, medicines often seem to have been used as part of magic, and primitive man thought disease to be due to supernatural forces which he could influence. The legacy remains, and in trying to sort out what is rational in our use of drugs today, we have to separate our small bits of science from the ancient magic and from modern commercial pressures and conditioning.

John Baptist Jackson: 18th-Century Master of the Color Woodcut Jacob Kainen, 2019-12-05 In John Baptist Jackson: 18th-Century Master of the Color Woodcut, Jacob Kainen presents a meticulous examination of the life and works of John Baptist Jackson, a pivotal yet underappreciated figure in the field of color woodcut artistry. Kainen employs a blend of art historical scholarship and critical analysis to explore Jackson's innovative techniques and stylistic contributions during a dynamic period in printmaking history. This work situates Jackson within the broader context of 18th century artistic movements, scrutinizing the interplay between technique and visual narrative that characterizes Jackson's prints and their significance in both British and European art. Jacob Kainen, an esteemed printmaker and art historian, brings his own breadth of experience and deep appreciation for print arts to this study. His expertise is evident in the thoroughness of his research, which reflects a long-standing commitment to uncovering the intricacies of art forms often overlooked in mainstream art discourse. Kainen's personal involvement with printmaking imbues the narrative with authenticity, resonating with the challenges and triumphs Jackson faced in his artistic pursuits. This book is an invaluable resource for art historians, students, and collectors alike, providing keen insights into the complexities of color woodcut artistry. Kainen's dedication to illuminating Jackson's legacy invites readers to reassess their understanding of 18th century art and its enduring influence, making this a must-read for anyone interested in the evolution of printmaking and the diverse narratives that shape it.

The baptist Magazine, 1848 The Early Modern Cultures of Neo-Latin Drama Philip Ford, Andrew Taylor, 2013. From ca. 1300, a new genre developed in European literature: Neo-Latin drama. Building on medieval drama, vernacular theatre, and classical drama, it spread around Europe. It was often used as a means to educate young boys in Latin, in acting, and in moral issues. Comedies, tragedies, and mixed forms were written. The Societas Jesu employed Latin drama in their education and public relations on a large scale. They had borrowed the concept of this drama from the humanist and Protestant gymnasia and perfected it to a multi-media show. However, the genre does not receive the attention that it deserves. In this volume, a historical overview of this genre is given, as well as analyses of separate plays. From publisher's website: The English Scholar's Library of Old and Modern Works: An apology made by George Joy Edward Arber, 1895 The Encyclopedia of Modern Witchcraft and Neo-Paganism Shelley Rabinovitch, James Lewis, 2004. A comprehensive guide to the world of magick, this book includes definitions, straightforward thorough explanations, biographies of all of the important figures in Wiccan and Pagan cultures, and descriptions of the various traditions of Wicca, as well as offering a detailed history of the pagan tradition. With essays from authorities such as Lois Bourne and Marian Green on topics ranging from Jungian Psychology and Neo-Paganism to Buffy the Vampire Slayer, this book is the first encyclopedia that discusses modern Neo-Pagan beliefs from international points of view. Baptist Commonwealth, 1907 The English Scholar's Library of Old and Modern Works: The seven deadly sins of London [by] Thomas Decker, 1895 The General Baptist repository, and Missionary observer [afterw.] The General Baptist magazine repository and Missionary observer [afterw.] The General Baptist magazine, 1875 The Baptist Quarterly Lucius Edwin Smith, Henry Griggs Weston, 1877 The Baptist Quarterly Henry G.
