Library Chicago Public Library,1978      Claude McKay, Rebel Sojourner in the Harlem Renaissance Wayne F.

Cooper,1996-02-01 Cooper paints a meticulous and absorbing portrait of McKay s restless artistic intellectual and political odyssey The definitive biography on McKay Choice Although recognized today as one of the genuine pioneers of black literature in this century the author of If We Must Die Home to Harlem Banana Bottom and A Long Way from Home among other works Claude McKay 1890 1948 died penniless and almost forgotten in a Chicago hospital In this masterly study Wayne Cooper presents a fascinating detailed account of McKay s complex chaotic and frequently contradictory life In his poetry and fiction as well as in his political and social commentaries McKay searched for a solid foundation for a valid black identity among the working class cultures of the West Indies and the United States He was an undeniably important predecessor to such younger writers of the Harlem Renaissance as Langston Hughes and Countee Cullen and also to influential West Indian and African writers such as C L R James and Aim C saire Knowledge of his life adds important dimensions to our understanding of American radicalism the expatriates of the 1920s and American literature Mr Cooper s most original contribution is his careful and perceptive analysis of McKay s nonfiction writing especially his social and political commentary which often contained prophetic statements on a range of important social political and historical issues New York Times Book Review      New Postcolonial Dialectics Sarbani Sen Vengadasalam,2018-11-30 This book closes a gap in postcolonial theory through its scrutiny of how four Indian and Nigerian English plays that are situated in national traditions reframed their own cultural terrain in international terms It maps the trajectory that Indian and Nigerian dramatists such as Rabindranath Tagore Wole Soyinka and Badal Sircar adopted as they moved from the specific to the bicultural to the global The intercultural dialectic validated here provides a protean comparative scaffolding that evolves out of and reflects the interculturality of the literatures it is critiquing allowing the book to be an entry point practical guide and reference for those interested in studying and comparing literatures from Asia and Africa written or translated into English Its approach and dialectic can also be expanded for use in comparative literary studies on all intercultural encounters      The Fiction of Paule

Marshall Dorothy Hamer Denniston,1995 Introduction anatomy of an aesthetic the African cultural base 1 Challenging the American norm the gendered sensibility in the Valley between 2 Beyond bildungsroman constructions of gender and culture in Brown girl brownstones 3 Cultural expansion and masculine subjectivity Soul clap hands and sing 4 Maturation and multiplicity in consciousness the short stories 5 Changing the present order personal and political liberation in The chosen place the timeless people 6 Recognition and recovery diasporan connections in Praisesong for the widow 7 Transformation and re creation of female identity in Daughters      Richard Wright Keneth Kinnamon,2014-11-04 African American writer

Richard Wright 1908 1960 was celebrated during the early 1940s for his searing autobiography Black Boy and fiction Native Son By 1947 he felt so unwelcome in his homeland that he exiled himself and his family in Paris But his writings changed American culture forever and today they are mainstays of literature and composition classes He and his works are also the subjects of numerous critical essays and commentaries by contemporary writers This volume presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of those essays books and articles from 1983 through 2003 Arranged alphabetically by author within years are some 8 320 entries ranging from unpublished dissertations to book length studies of African American literature and literary criticism Also included as an appendix are addenda to the author s earlier bibliography covering the years from 1934 through 1982 This is the exhaustive reference for serious students of Richard Wright and his critics     Postcolonial Identities and West African Literature Anwasha Das,2022-11-29 Anchored in postcolonial theory this book highlights the concept of postcolonial soliloquies as an original idea in analyzing West African literature It uses the political theory of dialogue to broaden the reader s understanding of history culture identity and indigenous memories The book shows how the novels of T Obinkaram Echewa plunge into the known territory of colonial history with new boundaries     Contemporary World Fiction Juris Dilevko,Keren Dali,Glenda Garbutt,2011-03-17 This much needed guide to translated literature offers readers the opportunity to hear from learn about and perhaps better understand our shrinking world from the perspective of insiders from many cultures and traditions In a globalized world knowledge about non North American societies and cultures is a must Contemporary World Fiction A Guide to Literature in Translation provides an overview of the tremendous range and scope of translated world fiction available in English In so doing it will help readers get a sense of the vast world beyond North America that is conveyed by fiction titles from dozens of countries and language traditions Within the guide approximately 1 000 contemporary non English language fiction titles are fully annotated and thousands of others are listed Organization is primarily by language as language often reflects cultural cohesion better than national borders or geographies but also by country and culture In addition to contemporary titles each chapter features a brief overview of earlier translated fiction from the group The guide also provides in depth bibliographic essays for each chapter that will enable librarians and library users to further explore the literature of numerous languages and cultural traditions     Black Metafiction Madelyn Jablon,1997 Examines the tradition of self consciousness in African American literature The book points to the shortcomings of theories of metafiction founded on studies of Anglo American literature It analyzes and evaluates these theories providing a model for the evaluation of other Eurocentric theories     Afro-American Life, History and Culture ,1985     The Passion of Claude McKay Claude McKay,1973     Research Guide to American Literature John Cusatis,2010 Covers American literature during the postwar period     Catalog of Copyright Entries.
