Modern Chinese Art The Khoan And Michael Sullivan Collection:

Modern Chinese Art Michael Sullivan, Ashmolean Museum, 2001 Khoan and Michael Sullivan began collecting modern Chinese painting in Sichuan in western China in the 1940s and their collection has developed over the course of more than half a century to include paintings by the principal artists of late twentieth century China as well as works by a new generation Many of the works presented in this complete catalogue of their collection were given to Khoan and Michael Sullivan by the artists themselves so that this is at once a work of scholarship and a record of many friendships Book jacket

Modern Chinese Art Ashmolean Museum, 2001-03-28 World authority on 20th century Chinese painting Michael Sullivan was on staff at Chinese universities during World War 2 when he and his late wife Khoan befriended many artists who returned their kindness by giving them their art Modern Chinese Artists Michael Sullivan, 2006-04-03 An important reference source for scholars and students of modern Chinese art collectors museums and libraries dealers and auction houses It includes biographical entries for approximately 800 Chinese artists who grew up or were trained in China and who are likely to be represented in collections exhibitions and auctions within and outside China A Modern Miscellany Paul Bevan, 2015-11-02 In A Modern Miscellany Shanghai Cartoon Artists Shao Xunmei's Circle and the Travels of Jack Chen 1926-1938 Paul Bevan explores how the cartoon manhua emerged from its place in the Chinese modern art world to become a propaganda tool in the hands of left wing artists The artists involved in what was largely a transcultural phenomenon were an eclectic group working in the areas of fashion and commercial art and design The book demonstrates that during the build up to all out war the cartoon was not only important in the sphere of Shanghai popular culture in the eyes of the publishers and readers of pictorial magazines but that it occupied a central place in the primary discourse of Chinese modern art history

Contemporary Chinese Art Paul Gladston, 2014-06-15 Since the confirmation of Deng Xiaoping's policy of Opening and Reform in 1978 the People's Republic of China has undergone a liberalization of culture that has led to the production of numerous forms of avant garde experimental and museum based art With a fast growing international market and a thriving artistic community contemporary Chinese art is riding a wave of prosperity though issues of censorship still abound Shedding light on the current art scene Paul Gladston's Contemporary Chinese Art puts China's recent artistic output into the context of the wider cultural economic and political conditions that surround it Providing a critical mapping of ideas and practices that have shaped the development of Chinese art Gladston shows how these combine to bind it to the structure of power and state both within and outside of China Focusing principally on art produced by artists from mainland China including painting film video photography and performance he also discusses art created in Taiwan Hong Kong Macau and diasporic communities Illustrated with 150 images Contemporary Chinese Art unravels the complexities of politics artistic practice and culture in play in China's art scene The Making of a Modern Art World Pedith Pui Chan, 2017-03-06 The Making of a Modern Art World explores the artistic institutions and discursive practices prevailing in Republican Shanghai aiming to reconstruct the operational logic and the stratified hierarchy of Shanghai's art world Using guohua as the point of entry this book interrogates the discourse both of guohua itself and the wider discourse of Chinese modernism in the visual arts In the light of the sociological definition of art world this book contextualizes guohua through focusing on the modes of production and consumption of painting in Shanghai examining newly adopted modern artistic practices namely art associations periodicals art colleges exhibitions and the art market

Friendship in Art Claire Roberts, 2010-06-01 This book documents in letters photos and paintings a special friendship between two highly creative individuals who helped shape Chinese culture in the twentieth century the revered traditional painter Huang Binhong 1865-1955 and the young cosmopolitan critic and translator Fou Lei 1908-66 As one of China's oldest and most distinguished artists in the 1940s and 1950s Huang Binhong was committed to artistic continuity and reinvigoration of brush and ink painting Fou Lei was a child of the New Culture Movement which repudiated many literati traditions but reached out to Huang Binhong to discuss the possibilities for contemporary Chinese art amid the tides of war and Communist dictates of socialist realism as the guiding priority for cultural workers Both were cultural mediators and translators of ideas and cultural expressions Both had deep appreciation of the common origins of calligraphy and painting rendering complex feelings with brush and ink Their intimate artistic conversations over more than a decade depict their alienation and uncertainty amid China's turbulent cultural politics

Writing Modern Chinese Art Josh Yiu, Seattle Asian Art Museum, 2009 Developed from a symposium on the study of twentieth century Chinese painting held at the Seattle Asian Art Museum on June 1-2, 2007

The China Collectors Karl E. Meyer, Shareen Blair Brysac, 2025-06-25 Thanks to Salem sea captains Gilded Age millionaires curators on horseback and missionaries gone native North American museums now possess the greatest collections of Chinese art outside of East Asia itself How did it happen The China Collectors is the first full account of a century long treasure hunt in China from the Opium Wars and the Boxer Rebellion to Mao Zedong's 1949 ascent The principal gatherers are mostly little known and defy invention They included foreign devils who braved desert sandstorms bandits and local warlords in acquiring significant works Adventurous curators like Langdon Warner a forebear of Indiana Jones argued that the caves of Dunhuang were already threatened by vandals thereby justifying the removal of frescoes and sculptures Other Americans include George Kates an alumnus of Harvard Oxford and Hollywood who fell in love with Ming furniture The Chinese were divided between dealers who profited from the artworks removal and scholars who sought to protect their country's patrimony Duanfang the greatest Chinese collector of his era was beheaded in a coup and his splendid bronzes now adorn major museums Others in this rich tapestry include Charles Lang Freer an enlightened Detroit entrepreneur two generations of Rockefellers and Avery Brundage the imperious Olympian and Arthur Sackler the grand acquirer No less important are two museum directors Cleveland's Sherman Lee and Kansas City's Laurence Sickman who challenged the East Coast's hegemony Shareen Blair Brysac and Karl E Meyer even handedly consider whether ancient treasures were looted or salvaged and whether it was morally acceptable to spirit hitherto inaccessible objects westward where they could be studied and preserved by trained museum personnel And how should the US and Canada and their museums respond now that China has the means and will to reclaim its missing patrimony Chinese Printmaking Today Anne Farrer,2003 An exhibition at the British Library 7 November 2003 7 March 2004 in association with the Muban Foundation Crossing Boundaries and Confounding Identity Cheryl C. D. Hughes,2023-02-01 Crossing Borders and Confounding Identity advances our understanding of the diversity of Chinese women s experiences and achievements from the Han Dynasty to the present With a particular emphasis on literature and the arts the chapters offer insights into the work of current Chinese women artists as well as literary historical and cultural portrayals of women and women s issues Taken together they provide new perspectives on Chinese women their lived experiences and fictional representations across a broad spectrum of literature theater film and the visual arts Accessible to nonspecialists and general readers this book will also be a valuable resource for faculty who teach Asian studies courses in history and in the humanities as well as for students in interdisciplinary Asian studies courses Newsletter, East Asian Art and Archaeology ,1998 Chinese Ink Painting Now Jason C. Kuo,2010 Text by Jason C Kuo China Perspectives ,2007 The Art of the Chinese Picture-Scroll Shane McCausland,2023-10-25 The first extended history of the Chinese picture scroll The Chinese picture scroll a long horizontal painting or calligraphic work has been China s pre eminent aesthetic form throughout the last two millennia This first history of the picture scroll explores its extraordinary longevity and adaptability to social political and technological change The book describes what the picture scroll demands of a viewer how China s artists grappled with its cultural power and how collectors and connoisseurs left their marks on scrolls for later generations to judge The Arts of China Michael Sullivan,1984-01-01 this book presents a fascinating and balanced picture of Chinese art from the Stone Age to the present day The author concerns himself not only with art but also with Chinese philosophy religion and the realm of ideas The Ashmolean , 欣赏 Wucius Wong,2011-03-31 Wucius Wong was born in 1936 in Guangdong Province China and moved to Hong Kong at a very young age Originally he wanted to pursue a literary career but gradually shifted his interest in pursuit of an artist s career Started as a self taught artist and attracted to Western modernism he later studied under the tutelage of Lui Shou Kun in 1958 whose works entailed the exploration of traditional concepts via a modernist approach He went to the United States to study Western art forms from 1961 to 1965 Upon his return he worked as an Assistant Curator at the City Museum and Art Gallery from 1966 to 1974 and later joined the School of Design of the Hong Kong Polytechnic as Senior Principal Lecturer Having participated in various important exhibitions worldwide his works are collected by various museums and institutions around the world The abstract art of Wucius Wong has a powerful mysterious quality being at once vigorously captivating and elusively atmospheric Often compared to the classical Chinese landscape painters of the Northern Song dynasty the artist has mastered the ability to evoke the deeply spiritual and poetic within his sweeping ink works The emotions rendered by his brush span a wide range from the luminous evanescence of the interplay of light on water to the brooding gravity of mountain ranges and the dense complexity of patternistic clouds and roots Perhaps the most affecting element within the paintings of Wucius Wong is his startling clarity in capturing fleeting moments within nature which have the ability to transcend the purely physical and translate into raw emotion This unique perception is the defining factor which elevates his work from the realm of the visible landscape to incisive psychological meditations on existential humanity He is now an Adjunct Professor of the Fine Arts Department of the Chinese University of Hong Kong and serving as honorary adviser to the Leisure and Culture Department of the Hong Kong Government he is also Committee Member of the Art School of the Hong Kong Art Centre and a Member of the Museum Advisory Group of the Consultative Committee on the Core Arts and Cultural Facilities of the West Kowloon Cultural District

Cai Guo-Qiang Russell Storer, 2014 A richly illustrated catalogue accompanies Cai Guo Qiang Falling Back to Earth the exhibition s interrelated themes of nature spirituality and globalisation are a focus of the publication in essays by Australian and international authors with extensive documentation of the artist s new works Cai Guo Qiang also writes on a significant but lesser known aspect of his practice his collaborations with children the publication will also trace Cai s unique history with QAGOMA as one of the first public institutions to collect the artist s work It follows his early career inclusion in the Asia Pacific Triennial of Contemporary Art 1996 and 1999 to the presentation in 2013 of major new works by an artist at the height of his international career

The Eternal Present of the Past Li-ling Hsiao, 2007-05-31 This study draws together various elements in late Ming culture illustration theater literature and examines their interrelation in the context of the publication of drama It examines a late Ming conception of the stage as a mystical space in which the past was literally reborn within the present This temporal conflation allowed the past to serve as a vigorous and immediate moral example and was considered a hugely important mechanism by which the continuity of the Confucian tradition could be upheld By using theatrical conventions of stage arrangement acting gesture and frontal address drama illustration recreated the mystical character of the stage within the pages of the book and thus set the conflation of past and present on a broader footing
