Modern Chinese Art:

Inside/out Asia Society. Galleries, San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, 1998-01-01 The late twentieth century has been marked by momentous political economic and social change throughout the Chinese world Deeply rooted cultural assumptions and ancient visual traditions have been challenged by rapid modernization and conflicting global ethnic and local identities Inside Out New Chinese Art was the first major international exhibition to explore the impact of these challenges on artists in the People's Republic of China Hong Kong Taiwan and those of the 1980s Diaspora The multifaceted exhibition and accompanying catalog encompass an extensive range of artistic forms including installation video and performance art as well as more traditional media such as oils and ink The art is grouped according to themes some specific to regions and others that reflect widespread and overlapping trends With the inclusion of ambiguous territories like Hong Kong and Taiwan the exhibition opens up a perspective of modern Chinese art from the outside as well as a looking out from the inside The catalog features essays by eminent Chinese art scholars and curators along with leading curators and historians of Western art Together they promote Chinese art's rightful place in the contemporary global cultural arena and at the same time acknowledge the influence of its rich heritage The diversity and freshness of the exhibition reflects the explosion of creativity among Chinese artists during the past decade The ironic social commentary of Li Shan's The Rouge Series no 24 the apartment art of artists reacting against the traditional patronage of large museums and corporations and Wang Jin's sly humor in portraying consumer fetishes in today's China are a few examples of the spirited artistry awaiting the viewers of Inside Out

Contemporary Chinese Art Paul Gladston, 2014-06-15 Since the confirmation of Deng Xiaoping's policy of Opening and Reform in 1978 the People's Republic of China has undergone a liberalization of culture that has led to the production of numerous forms of avant garde experimental and museum based art With a fast growing international market and a thriving artistic community contemporary Chinese art is riding a wave of prosperity though issues of censorship still abound Shedding light on the current art scene Paul Gladston's Contemporary Chinese Art puts China's recent artistic output into the context of the wider cultural economic and political conditions that surround it Providing a critical mapping of ideas and practices that have shaped the development of Chinese art Gladston shows how these combine to bind it to the structure of power and state both within and outside of China Focusing principally on art produced by artists from mainland China including painting film video photography and performance he also discusses art created in Taiwan Hong Kong Macau and diasporic communities Illustrated with 150 images Contemporary Chinese Art unravels the complexities of politics artistic practice and culture in play in China's art scene

Introduction to Contemporary Art in China Lao Zhu, 2022-03-21 The book is a collection of fifteen introductory essays excerpted from the Annual of Contemporary Art in China covering the years from 2005 to 2019 showcasing the development and changing landscapes of contemporary art in China The Annual documents exhibitions events creative practices and critical literature concerning contemporary art in China since 2005

Based on archival documentation and statistics data from these annuals notable phenomena events and discourses from a given year as well as key works and artists are reviewed in each introduction with no ideological or market driven undertone The author unravels industrial and institutional factors while also broaching important issues of abstract art new media art and so on and probing the historical and socio cultural context as well In this regard the book offers a panorama of contemporary Chinese art and critically engages with the art scene in China including Hongkong Taiwan and among the Chinese diaspora The title will appeal to scholars students and general readers interested in contemporary art history art criticism contemporary Chinese art iconography and contemporary art theory Contemporary Chinese Art: Primary Documents Wu Hung, 2010 Invaluable resource for anyone who wants to understand contemporary Chinese art one of the most fascinating art scenes of the late 20th and early 21st centuries Xu Bing and Contemporary Chinese Art Hsingyuan Tsao, Roger T. Ames, 2011-09-01 How Chinese is contemporary Chinese art Treasured by collectors critics and art world cognoscenti this art developed within an avant garde that looked West to find a language to strike out against government control Traditionally Chinese artistic expression has been related to the structure and function of the Chinese language and the assumptions of Chinese natural cosmology Is contemporary Chinese art rooted in these traditions or is it an example of cultural self colonization Contributors to this volume address this question going beyond the more obvious political and social commentaries on contemporary Chinese art to find resonances between contemporary artistic ideas and the indigenous sources of Chinese cultural self understanding Focusing in particular on the acclaimed artist Xu Bing this book looks at how he and his peers have navigated between two different cultural sites to establish a third place a place from which to appropriate Western ideas and use them to address centuries old Chinese cultural issues within a Chinese cultural discourse Role of Japan in Modern Chinese Art Joshua A. Fogel, 2013 The modern histories of China and Japan are inexorably intertwined Their relationship is perhaps most obvious in the fields of political economic and military history but it is no less true in cultural and art history Yet the traffic in artistic practices and practitioners between China and Japan remains an understudied field In this volume an international group of scholars investigates Japan's impact on Chinese art from the mid nineteenth century through the 1930s Individual essays address a range of perspectives including the work of individual Chinese and Japanese painters calligraphers and sculptors as well as artistic associations international exhibitions the collotype production of artwork and the emergence of a modern canon The Art of Contemporary China (World of Art) Jiang Jiehong, 2021-04-13 A redefinition of contemporary Chinese art from the last forty years in the context of unprecedented cultural political and urban transformation written by an authority on the subject Contemporary Chinese art is a subject of sustained and growing significance in present day culture across the globe This new volume in the World of Art series reframes Chinese art since the end of China's Cultural Revolution more than four decades ago placing it in the context of the nation's unprecedented cultural political and urban transformation Based on original research by writer curator and leading scholar in the field of contemporary Chinese art Jiang Jiehong this volume explores the area through firsthand materials and in depth interviews with more than thirty artists Providing the most up to date understanding of contemporary Chinese art Jiang includes a variety of media ranging from painting printmaking sculpture and photography to installation video performance and participatory art Featuring over 150 color images of artworks by more than fifty internationally renowned Chinese artists including Ai Weiwei and Zhang Peili as well as emerging artists such as Zhao Zhao The Art of Contemporary China presents a wide variety of practices through curatorial discussions and images of original installation views and historical art events What emerges are revelations on art and new insights into contemporary China Fulfilling a need for an accessible affordable introduction to contemporary Chinese art this volume offers a concise but far reaching survey of the movement

Subversive Strategies in Contemporary Chinese Art Mary Wiseman, Liu Yuedi, 2011-03-21 What is art and what is its role in a China that is changing at a dizzying speed These questions lie at the heart of Chinese contemporary art Subversive Strategies paves the way for the rebirth of a Chinese aesthetics adequate to the art whose sheer energy and imaginative power is subverting the ideas through which western and Chinese critics think about art The first collection of essays by American and Chinese philosophers and art historians Subversive Strategies begins by showing how the art reflects current crises and is working them out through bodies gendered and political The essays raise the question of Chinese identity in a global world and note a blurring of the boundary between art and everyday life

Negotiating Difference John Clark, Juliane Noth, Birgit Hopfener, Brianne Cohen, Silke von Berswordt, Wang Ching-ling, Doris Ha-lin Sung, Adele Tan, Zheng Bo, Beatrice Leanza, Thomas Berghuis, Peggy Wang, Pauline Yao, Paul Gladston, Joe Martin Hill, Lee Ambrozy, Wenny Teo, Franziska Koch, Andreas Schmid, Davide Quadrio, 2012-07-12 Contemporary Chinese art is still a young field now being opened up to critical academic research Negotiating Difference is a pioneering collection of articles which engage with contemporary Chinese art in a global context The contributions collectively address the urgent methodological question of how to describe contextualize and theorize artworks and artistic processes in and beyond the People's Republic of China since the end of the Cultural Revolution The studies break new ground as they chalk out the transcultural entanglements of which art and its practices partake and which they in turn reconfigure The book features 20 essays written by a select group of international junior and senior scholars engaged in ambitious and methodologically innovative research on contemporary Chinese art Their multi faceted in part interdisciplinary approaches are complemented by four contributions by distinguished practitioners in the field who as art curators and critics are located in China and explore key developments within Chinese art and the changing art scene of the last three decades

Urbanization and Contemporary Chinese Art Meiqin Wang, 2015-08-11 This book explores the relationship between the ongoing urbanization in China and the production of contemporary Chinese art since the beginning of the twenty first century Wang provides a detailed analysis of artworks and methodologies of art making from eight contemporary artists who employ a wide range of mediums including painting sculpture photography installation video and performance She also sheds light on the relationship between these artists and their sociocultural origins investigating their provocative responses to various processes and problems brought about by Chinese urbanization With this urbanization comes a fundamental shift of the philosophical and aesthetic foundations in the practice of Chinese art from a strong affiliation with nature and countryside to one that is complexly associated with the city and the urban world Chinese Art at the Crossroads Wu Hung, 2001 This volume is comprised primarily of the contents of Chinese art com an online magazine started in 1997 and brings together images essays interviews roundtable discussions eyewitness accounts and biographies published on the web in 2000 It s timely and diverse insider views are those of Chinese art critics living and working in China but also include scholars outside the China context To such a broad and diverse compilation of material professor Wu Hung brings both an insider point of view and an international sensibility His careful editing and organization of the material along with the six introductory essays he wrote for this volume make the book understandable and enjoyable to both the art scholar and the art enthusiast Making History Wu Hung, 2008 This volume analyzes the cultural origins precedents influences and aspirations of the contemporary Chinese artists Modern Art for a Modern China Yiyuan Wang, 2020-11-10 How did art reform fit into the many initiatives for social and cultural change that contributed to the New Cultural Movement that transformed the Chinese cultural landscape during the Republican period Modern art for a modern China was the rallying cry of Chinese intellectuals many of whom were artists critics writers poets and educators Wang describes how these groups discussed and implanted changes in China s conception and practice of art She demonstrates how art reforms fit into the many initiatives for social and cultural change that contributed to the New Cultural Movement that transformed the Chinese cultural landscape during the Republican period In doing so she analyses two key areas in the intellectual history of Republican China China s art reform in the early decades of the twentieth century and the connection and intersection between colonialism nationalism and cosmopolitanism including their direct impact on the development of art and art practice in China Modern Art for a Modern China is an invaluable resource for scholars and students of China s twentieth century intellectual history and art history China—Art—Modernity David Clarke, 2019-01-22 China Art Modernity provides a critical introduction to modern and contemporary Chinese art as a whole It illuminates what is distinctive and significant about the rich range of art created during the tumultuous period of Chinese history from the end of Imperial rule to the present day The story of Chinese art in the twentieth and twenty first centuries is shown to be deeply intertwined with that of the country s broader socio political development with art serving both as a tool for the creation of a new national culture and as a means for critiquing the forms that culture has taken The book s approach is inclusive In addition to treating art within the Chinese Mainland itself during the Republican and Communist eras for instance it also looks at the art of colonial Hong Kong Taiwan and the Chinese diaspora Similarly it gives equal prominence to artists employing tools and

idioms of indigenous Chinese origin and those who engage with international styles and contemporary media In this way it writes China into the global story of modern art as a whole at a moment in intellectual history when Western centred stories of modern and contemporary culture are finally being recognized as parochial and inadequate Assuming no previous background knowledge of Chinese history and culture this concise yet comprehensive and richly illustrated book will appeal to those who already have an established interest in modern Chinese art and those for whom this is a novel topic It will be of particular value to students of Chinese art or modern art in general but it is also for those in the wider reading public with a curiosity about modern China At a time when that country has become a major actor on the world stage in all sorts of ways accessible sources of information concerning its modern visual culture are nevertheless surprisingly scarce As a consequence a fully nuanced picture of China's place in the modern world remains elusive China Art Modernity is a timely remedy for that situation Here is a book that offers a comprehensive account of the dizzying transformations of Chinese art and society in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Breaking free of conventional dichotomies between traditional and modern Chinese and Western that have hobbled earlier studies Clarke's highly original book is exactly what I would assign my own students Anyone eager to understand developments in China within the global history of modern art should read this book Robert E Harrist Jr Columbia University Clarke's book presents a critically astute mapping of the arts of modern and contemporary China It highlights the significance of urban and industrial contexts migration diasporas and the margins of the mainland while imaginatively seeking to inscribe its subject into the broader story of modern art A timely and reliable intervention and indispensable for the student and non specialist reader Shane McCausland SOAS University of London

A History of Contemporary Chinese Art Yan Zhou, 2020-07-14 Chinese art has experienced its most profound metamorphosis since the early 1950s transforming from humble realism to socialist realism from revolutionary art to critical realism then avant garde movement and globalized Chinese art With a hybrid mix of Chinese philosophy imported but revised Marxist ideology and western humanities Chinese artists have created an alternative approach after a great ideological and aesthetic transition in the 1980s toward its own contemporaneity though interacting and intertwining with the art of rest of the world This book will investigate from the perspective of an activist critic and historian who grew up prior to and participated in the great transition and then researched and taught the subject the evolution of Chinese art in modern and contemporary times The volume will be a comprehensive and insightful history of the one of the most sophisticated and unparalleled artistic and cultural phenomena in the modern world

The Future History of Contemporary Chinese Art Peggy Wang, 2021-01-26 A revelatory reclaiming of five iconic Chinese artists and their place in art history During the 1980s and 1990s a group of Chinese artists Zhang Xiaogang Wang Guangyi Sui Jianguo Zhang Peili and Lin Tianmiao ascended to new heights of international renown Even as their fame increased they came to be circumscribed by simplistic Western interpretations of their artworks as social and political critiques a perspective that privileged stories of dissidence over deep engagement with the art itself Through in depth case studies of these five artists Peggy Wang offers a corrective to previous appraisals demonstrating how their works address fundamental questions about the forms meanings and possibilities of art By the end of the 1980s Chinese artists were scrutinizing earlier waves of Western influence and turning instead to their own heritage and culture to forge their own future histories As the national trauma of the 1989 Tiananmen Square massacre converged with the mounting expansion of the global art world these artists turned to art as a profoundly generative site for grappling with their place in the world Wang demonstrates how they consciously and energetically sought to make their own ideas about art and art history visible in contemporary art Wang s argument is informed by extensive primary research including close examination of the artworks analysis of Chinese language documents and archives and deeply personal interviews with the artists Their words uncover layers of meaning previously obscured by the popular and often recycled assessments that many of these works have received until now Beyond Wang s reinterpretation of these individual artists she contributes to an urgent conversation on the future direction of art history how do we map engagements between art from different parts of the world that are embedded within different art histories What does it mean for histories of contemporary art and art history more generally to be inclusive The new understandings offered in this book can and should be engaged when considering current hierarchies in histories of Chinese art the global art world and the intersections between them

Deconstructing Contemporary Chinese Art Paul Gladston, 2015-08-21 The book presents a range of articles and discussions that offer critical insights into the development of contemporary Chinese art both within China and internationally It brings together selected writings both published and unpublished by Paul Gladston one of the foremost international scholars on contemporary Chinese art The articles are based on extensive first hand research much of which was carried out during an extended residence in China between 2005 and 2010 In contrast to many other writers on contemporary Chinese art Gladston analyses his subject with specific reference to the concerns of critical theory In his writings he consistently argues for a polylogic multi voiced approach to research and analysis grounded in painstaking attention to local regional and international conditions of artistic production reception and display

Modern Chinese Art David James Clarke, 2000 Modern Chinese Art explores the interactions of the two traditions Chinese and Western as Chinese painters and sculptors have attempted to address the social and cultural effects of modernism Accompanied by high quality reproductions of original art works the text treats the works of Chinese artists whether using traditional media or adopting media and techniques imported from the West from the late nineteenth century through to the present day At once a survey of the most influential Chinese visual artists of the century and a provocative exploration of modernity s influences Modern Chinese Art will appeal equally to readers just discovering this rich artistic world and to those who have already developed an interest in Chinese and Western modern art

BOOK JACKET

Modern Chinese Art Michael Sullivan, Ashmolean Museum, 2001 Khoan and Michael Sullivan began collecting modern Chinese painting in Sichuan in western China in the 1940s and their collection has developed over the course of more than half a century to include paintings by the principal artists of late twentieth century China as well as works by a new generation Many of the works presented in this complete catalogue of their collection were given to Khoan and Michael Sullivan by the artists themselves so that this is at once a work of scholarship and a record of many friendships
