Modern European Filmmakers and the Art of Adaptation Andrew Horton, Joan Magretta, 1981      Modern European Filmmakers and the Art of Adaptation Andrew Horton, Joan Magretta, 1981      Italian Cinema and Modern European Literatures Carlo Testa, 2002-03-30 The history of cinema and notably that of post war Italian cinema can only be understood adequately in the context of other contiguous cultural disciplines World literature including that of France Germany and Russia played a key role in the development of post war Italian film and the cinematic technique it has come to embody Moving away from the usual modes of defining this period a trajectory that begins with neorealism and ends with Bertolucci author Carlo Testa offers proof that coming to terms with literary texts is an essential step toward understanding the motion pictures they influenced The means of recreating literature for the screen has changed drastically over the last half century as has the impact of different national traditions on Italian cinema Testa s work is the first to explicitly and deliberately link postwar Italian cinema to general intellectual concerns such as the relationship between literary authors and cinematic auteurs Moreover his analysis of the impact of French German and Russian cultures on Italy brings forth a new reading of Italian cinema a new paradigm for exploring complex issues of authorship culture and art      Halma by Benito Pérez Galdós Robert S. Rudder, 2015-02-05 Gald s s early writings were inspired by the French writer mile Zola a practitioner of the literary school of Naturalism This interest then turned to a type of spiritual naturalism under the influence of Russian writers including Tolstoy Dostoevsky and Turgenev whom he called his great teacher One of his most important works during this period was the novel Nazar n a kind of retelling of the life of Christ in which the main character a disgraced priest wanders about the countryside with two female companions attempting to follow the teachings of the Bible to the letter He is taken for either a saint or a mad man and at the end is shut up in an institution The publication of Nazar n was followed by its sequel Halma only six months later In this novel the protagonist an aristocratic lady named Halma after suffering great hardships decides to use her inheritance to found an idyllic Christian society harboring the needy and the sick Two of its citizens will be the priest Nazar n and one of his two women followers another will be Halma s ne er do well male cousin Urrea Her family and their friends express admiration for her high ideals but they also believe she may be just as mad as the priest and work to defeat her A fortunate denouement comes only after the unforeseen intervention of the supposedly mad priest Halma also has many points of contact with the motion picture Viridiana by Spain s great director Luis Bu uel In this film a religious novice Viridiana attempts to turn a farm into a shelter for needy beggars During her absence however the beggars wreck the house in a drunken orgy While not sharing Bu uel s artistic vision Gald s nevertheless expresses his own ideas with great imagination      German Film & Literature Eric Rentschler, 2013-10-15 First Published in 1986 This collection of essays by an international team of scholars is the first sustained investigation in any language of the historical interactions between German film and literature It is a book about adaptations and transformations about why filmmakers adapt certain material at certain times The major impetus at work is the desire to expand the field of adaptation study to include sociological theoretical and historical dimensions and to bring a livelier regard for intertextuality to the studies of German film and literature It is concerned with the ways in which filmmakers in Germany from Pabst and von Sternberg to Fassbinder Herzog and Sanders Brahms have engaged and been engaged by literary history Blood Cinema Marsha Kinder,1993-12-06 This is the most complete in depth sophisticated study of Spanish cinema available in any language Marvin D Lugo author of The Films of Carlos Saura The Lost Honour of Katharina Blum Julian Preece,2022-03-24 Brisk and forceful Sight Sound Lucidly argued Total Film Margarethe von Trotta and Volker Schlöndorff's The Lost Honour of Katharina Blum 1975 was a pivotal film for the New German Cinema movement Julian Preece considers what makes Katharina Blum new and radical in particular in respect of women's cinema and its portrayal of the ordeal of its female lead in a world run by men Drawing on archival material including drafts of the screenplay brochures and props reviews and interviews Preece traces the conception of the film and its development from Heinrich Böll's original novel Preece analyses how the film continues to resonate with our contemporary moment and has influenced film makers from the German Turkish director Fatih Akin to the British screenwriter Peter Morgan Watching the Lord of the Rings Ernest Mathijs,2008 How did audiences across the world respond to the films of The Lord of the Rings This book presents findings from the largest film audience project ever undertaken drawing from 25 000 questionnaire responses and a wide array of other materials Contributors use these materials to explore a series of widely speculated questions why is film fantasy important to different kinds of viewers Through marketing previews and reviews debates and cultural chatter how are audiences prepared for a film like this How did fans of the book respond to its adaptation on screen How do people choose their favorite characters How was the film's reception shaped by different national and cultural contexts The answers to these questions shed fresh light on the extraordinary popularity of The Lord of the Rings and provide important new insights into the global reception of cinema in the twenty first century Fitzgerald and the Influence of Film Gautam Kundu,2007-10-08 This work explores the many ways in which the developing film industry of the early twentieth century influenced the writings of F Scott Fitzgerald focusing specifically on his novels This Side of Paradise The Great Gatsby Tender Is the Night and the incomplete The Last Tycoon The Beautiful and the Damned is also discussed briefly Early chapters examine Fitzgerald's literary adaptation of visual film techniques pans freeze frames slow motion and aural cinematic concepts sound effects diegetic sound within his most popular novels The final chapter summarizes the effect such techniques had in augmenting and defining Fitzgerald's unique literary style Theatrical Translation and Film Adaptation Phyllis Zatlin,2005-10-12 Translation and film adaptation of theatre have received little study In filling that gap this book draws on the experiences of theatrical translators and on movie versions of plays from various countries It also offers insights into such concerns as the translation of bilingual plays and the choice between subtitling and dubbing of film Pasolini's Lasting Impressions Ryan

Calabretta-Sajder, 2020-07-07 Noted as a civil poet by Alberto Moravia Pier Paolo Pasolini was a creative and philosophical genius whose works challenged generations of Western Europeans and Americans to reconsider not only issues regarding the self but also various social concerns Pasolini's works touched and continues to inspire students scholars and intellectuals alike to question the status quo This collection of thirteen articles and two interviews evidences the on going discourse around Pasolini's lasting impressions on the new generation Pasolini's Lasting Impressions Death Eros and Literary Enterprise in the Opus of Pier Paolo Pasolini thus explores the civic poet's oeuvre in four parts poetry theatre film and culture Although the collection does not include every genre in which Pasolini wrote it addresses many some which often receive little or no attention particularly in Italian Studies of North America The underlining theme of the book death eros and literary enterprise intertwines these genres in a rather unique way allowing for inter disciplinary interpretations to Pasolini's rich opus The edited volume concludes with two artists Dacia Maraini and Ominio71's reflections on Pasolini in the 21st century In fact the cover represents a recent work on Ominio71 underscoring Pasolini's visual presence still within the Roman walls In conclusion this collection demonstrates how his works still influence contemporary Italian society and motivate intellectual dialogue through new theoretical outlooks on Pasolini's oeuvre Pasolini, Chaucer and Boccaccio

Agnès Blandeau, 2014-12-09 Pier Pasolini's trilogy of life is a series of film adaptations of major texts of the past The Decameron The Canterbury Tales and One Thousand and One Nights The movies demonstrate a film author's acute aesthetic sensibility through a highly original cinematic rendering of the sources The first two films closely examined in this book offer a personal purposefully stylized vision of the Middle Ages as though Pasolini were dreaming Boccaccio's and Chaucer's texts through the filter of his heretic consciousness The unusual poetic visualization of the source works which could be described as irreverent cinematic homage has the potential to renew the traditional reading of such literature This book shows how cinema becomes an alternative form of storytelling It first studies the two films in detail putting them in perspective within the trilogy Next it interprets them recounting misinterpretations and expounding upon Pasolini's ideological perception and defends the oft criticized adaptations Finally it discusses how the films represent innovation over strict adaptation Appendices offer charts with information on the narrative structures of the films and the correspondences between them

Screenwriting Andrew Horton, Julian Hoxter, 2014-08-23 Screenwriters often joke that no one ever paid a dollar at a movie theater to watch a screenplay Yet the screenplay is where a movie begins determining whether a production gets the green light from its financial backers and wins approval from its audience This innovative volume gives readers a comprehensive portrait of the art and business of screenwriting while showing how the role of the screenwriter has evolved over the years Reaching back to the early days of Hollywood when moonlighting novelists playwrights and journalists were first hired to write scenarios and photoplays Screenwriting illuminates the profound ways that screenwriters have contributed to the films we love This book explores the social political and economic implications of the changing craft of American screenwriting from the silent screen through the classical Hollywood years the rise of independent cinema and on to the contemporary global multi media marketplace From The Birth of a Nation 1915 Gone With the Wind 1939 and Gentleman s Agreement 1947 to Chinatown 1974 American Beauty 1999 and Lost in Translation 2003 each project began as writers with pen and ink typewriters or computers captured the hopes and dreams the nightmares and concerns of the periods in which they were writing As the contributors take us behind the silver screen to chronicle the history of screenwriting they spotlight a range of key screenplays that changed the game in Hollywood and beyond With original essays from both distinguished film scholars and accomplished screenwriters Screenwriting is sure to fascinate anyone with an interest in Hollywood from movie buffs to industry professionals

Screening the Stage Bert Cardullo,2006 This book examines the historical cultural and aesthetic relationships between theater and film As we enter the 21st century almost all artists students and critics working in theater will have had earlier and greater exposure to film than to theater In fact film has become central to the way in which we perceive and formulate stories images ideas and sounds At the same time film and video occupy an increasingly significant place in theater study both for the adaptation of plays and for the documentation and preservation of theatrical performances Yet far too often theater and film artists as well as educators make the jump from one medium to the other without being fully aware of the ways in which the qualities of each medium affect content and artistic expression This book is intended to fill such a gap by providing a theoretical and practical foundation for understanding the effect that film and drama have had and continue to have on each other's development Moreover this study provides a history of the relationship between drama and cinema starting with the pre cinematic late 19th century impulse towards capturing spectacular action on the stage and examining the artistic and commercial interaction between movies and plays both in popular and experimental work throughout the 20th century Important subjects treated in this book include stage versus screen acting the adaptation process itself the theatrical as well as the cinematic avant garde and the portability or adaptability of dramatic character     The Films of Fred Zinnemann Arthur Nolletti Jr., 1999-06-24 Fred Zinnemann celebrated director of such classic films as High Noon From Here to Eternity and A Man for All Seasons is studied here in a book length work for the first time Zinnemann's fifty year career includes twenty two feature films which are characterized by an unshakable belief in human dignity a preoccupation with moral and social issues a warm and sympathetic treatment of character and consummate technical artistry In discussing such issues as the role of Zinnemann's documentary aesthetic throughout his career the relationship between his life and his art his use and construction of history and the central importance of women characters in his films The Films of Fred Zinnemann lends new perspectives to the work of a major filmmaker and makes a significant contribution to the study of American cinema
