Modern Love:

Modern Love David Shumway, 2003-08 My ideas of romance came from the movies said Woody Allen and it is to the movies as well as to novels advice columns and self help books that David Shumway turns for his history of modern love Modern Love argues that a crisis in the meaning and experience of marriage emerged when it lost its institutional function of controlling the distribution of property and instead came to be seen as a locus for feelings of desire togetherness and loss Over the course of the twentieth century partly in response to this crisis a new language of love intimacy emerged not so much replacing but rather coexisting with the earlier language of romance Reading a wide range of texts from early twentieth century advice columns and their late twentieth century antecedent the relationship self help book to Hollywood screwball comedies and from the relationship films of Woody Allen and his successors to contemporary realist novels about marriages Shumway argues that the kinds of stories the culture has told itself have changed Part layperson's history of marriage and romance part meditation on intimacy itself Modern Love will be both amusing and interesting to almost anyone who thinks about relationships and who doesn't

Modern Love Marcus Collins, 2006-06 Private life has altered beyond all recognition during the past one hundred years Britain in 1900 was emerging from a Victorian era in which prudery patriarchal authority and pettifogging rules of etiquette were widely perceived to have circumscribed relations between men and women The twentieth century witnessed a reaction against this system of separate spheres spearheaded by reformers eager that the sexes become each other's equals and intimates Modern Love traces the trajectory of this new model of personal relationships over the course of the twentieth century from its emergence out of the crucible of the suffrage campaign through its reshaping by the women's liberation movement It explores its impact on smut merchants warring couples and teenagers as well as its reception by such diverse figures as Bertrand Russell and Germaine Greer It draws on sources as varied as suffragette propaganda banned sex manuals marriage counseling literature and pin up magazines Marcus Collins teaches modern British history at Emory University

Modern Love Marcus Collins, 2004 Collins writes a history of relations between men and women through the twentieth century The narrative is one of competing ideas as gender relations are not merely a matter of public policy economics and technology

The Traffic in Poems Meredith L. McGill, 2008 The transatlantic crossing of people and goods shaped nineteenth century poetry in surprising ways that cannot be fully understood through the study of separate national literary traditions American and British poetic cultures were bound by fascination envy influence rivalry recognition and piracy as well as by mutual fantasies about and competition over the Caribbean Drawing on examples such as Felicia Hemans's elaboration of the foundational American myth of Plymouth Rock Emma Lazarus's ambivalent welcome of Europe's cast off populations black abolitionist Mary Webb's European performances of Hiawatha and American reprints of Robert Browning and George Meredith the eleven essays in this book focus on poetic depictions of exile slavery immigration and citizenship and explore the often asymmetrical traffic between

British and American poetic cultures      Love & Eroticism Mike Featherstone, 1999-09-20 This major collection explores the contested nature of love and eroticism examining the ways in which erotic bodily pleasures have become central to contemporary consumer culture It investigates the spatial dimension of erotic life through considerations of Bohemian love the gay city and the ways in which the urban landscape and everyday life have become sexualized issues which have become central to the emergence of queer as a new form of gender politics and more general questions of sexual citizenship Drawing on the work of feminists sociologists and cultural theorists this book contains a wide ranging and accessible set of contributions to contemporary debates on sexuality love and eroticism Love Erotici      Terror Train Al Feldstein, 2020-08-11 This collection features all of the stories Feldstein created for both of EC Comics crime and horror titles including the very first appearances of The Crypt Keeper and the Vault Keeper This volume collects stories Feldstein wrote and drew about The Machine Gun Mad Mobsters and The Case of the Floating Corpse as well such horror gems as The Mummy's Curse The Thing in the Swamp and our title story Terror Train Plus the most unlikely origin story of them all the tongue in cheek origin of EC Comics itself in Horror Beneath the Streets There are more than 30 stories in all with essays and commentary by EC experts
