Political Philosophy, Educational Administration and Educative Leadership Reynold Macpherson, 2013-10-01 In this book Reynold Macpherson initiates a politically critical theory of educative leadership as a fresh line of inquiry in the practice research and theory of educational administration and educational leadership Divided into four parts the book introduces the sub discipline of political philosophy to the field of educational administration management and leadership It does this by clarifying the knowledge domain of each and identifying how four political ideologies specifically pragmatism communitarianism communicative rationalism and egalitarian liberalism have primarily informed and surreptitiously provided contestable justifications for power in the development of practice research and theory in the field of study The book goes on to offer three case studies illustrating how political philosophy can be used to interpret how people become leaders and administrators of educational institutions and systems Additional case studies then demonstrate how crises in governance in educational institutions and systems can be analyzed and improvements made using the tools of political philosophy The final part uses the sub discipline to critique the author's decades of research into educative leadership and the laissez faire policy the reduced regulation intervention and welfare favored by conservative governments in the United States Canada and Britain

The Gender of Democracy Maro Pantelidou Maloutas, 2007-05-07 As developments in the European Union and elsewhere make the re examination of citizenship a pressing issue this book reflects on the persisting masculine character of contemporary democracy and the measures taken in the EU to combat it Combining a theoretical approach with a specific critique of EU gender policy The Gender of Democracy argues that substantial democracy as a social project cannot co exist with the existing system of gender relations which are inherently dichotomous and thus demarcate social categories of superior and inferior status Drawing on utopian thought Maro Pantelidou Maloutas proposes a re examination of the notion of the gendered subject and a revision of the dominant perceptions of the relations between sex sexuality and gender The book contains a critique of specific EU gender policies and shows how in seeking to do away with gender inequality simply formulating policies that are pro women is not enough In order to approach democracy s emancipatory component far reaching policies which deconstruct rather than modernize gender relations are needed

Fallibilism Democracy and the Market Calvin Hayes, 2001 In Fallibilism Democracy and the Market Calvin Hayes proposes an original solution to the major meta theoretical issue in moral philosophy the is ought problem then utilizes it to define and or solve practical problems in both applied ethics and public policy. The solution and its applications are based on a unified theory of rationality applicable to epistemology ethics and public policy predicated on a revised Popperian fallibilism It is intended as a defense of Karl Popper's political philosophy but only after a substantial revision of its theoretical and meta theoretical basis Political Constructivism Peri Roberts, 2007-10-25 This volume explores the nature and possibilities of constructivism through an engagement and examination of the foremost constructivist positions Rawls and O Neill Work, Inc. Edmund Byrne, 2010-09-09 Examining legal and philosophical problems for a new social contract that is fair to workers Islam and Modernity Abdessalem, Rafik, 2019-07-18 In this compelling book Rafik Abdessalem unpacks two major lines of thought Firstly he examines why many Westerners dismiss Islam's vast intellectual social theological and cultural heritage as flawed violent rigid and fanatical despite knowing virtually nothing about it He usefully traces the genesis of this attitude focusing on how scholars such as Weber Habermas and others have helped to consolidate the West's view of itself as civilised superior developed and progressive and how the demonisation of Islam acts as a necessary foil for these notions Secondly he explains that Islam is subject to a variety of interpretive choices and schools of thought ranging from legalistic fundamentalism through rigid rationalism to spiritual Sufism By treating Islam secularity and modernity as distinct and separate rather than as interconnected and overlapping Abdessalem makes no attempt to reconcile Islam with modernity or secularity nor does he place one in opposition to the other Instead he looks at the interconnections between these broad and complex subjects Abdessalem's analysis is useful in encouraging us to rethink both modernity and Islam and their relationship with each other In this rethinking lies the potential for a better understanding of the geopolitics of what is often called the Muslim world including the MENA region Institutions, Behaviour and Economic Theory Heinrich Bortis,1997 This book is about the conceptual foundations of an intermediate way between liberalism and socialism From a standpoint of economic theory this middle way is conceived of as a synthesis of classical Ricardian and Keynesian political economy While the former deals with proportions between individuals or collectives and society in tackling the problems of distribution and value on the basis of the surplus principle the latter is concerned with the scale of economic activity as explained by the principle of effective demand Political economy pictures the economic aspects of the functioning of the institutional system within which the behaviour of individuals is embedded The economy considered is primarily neither a market nor a planned economy but rather a monetary production economy To establish an alternative to liberalism and socialism requires setting up a system of the social sciences In this work suggestions are made for linking political economy with other social sciences i e sociology law and politics in the traditional sense thus establishing the unity of the social sciences In a Keynesian vein the social sciences are conceived of as moral sciences a view which gives rise to a specific philosophy of history To complete the picture issues of method associated with the theory of knowledge in the social sciences and the problem of linking theory with historical reality are also covered

Putting Morality Back into Politics Richard D. Ryder, 2016-09-14 Machiavelli almost succeeded in removing morality from European politics and indeed since his day it has sometimes been assumed that morality and politics are separate Ryder argues that the time has come for public policies to be seen to be based upon moral objectives Politicians should be expected routinely to justify their policies with open moral argument In Part I Ryder sketches an overview of contemporary political philosophy as it relates to the moral basis for politics and Part 2 suggests a way of putting morality back into politics along with a clearer emphasis upon scientific evidence
