Modern American Fiction Form And Function:

Modern American Fiction Thomas Daniel Young, 1989-01-01 Critical essays examine the use of form in modern fiction through the works of such noted personalities as Henry James Stephen Crane and F Scott Fitzgerald Flannery O'Connor R. Neil Scott, 2002 Richard Wright Keneth Kinnamon, 2014-11-04 African American writer Richard Wright 1908 1960 was celebrated during the early 1940s for his searing autobiography Black Boy and fiction Native Son By 1947 he felt so unwelcome in his homeland that he exiled himself and his family in Paris But his writings changed American culture forever and today they are mainstays of literature and composition classes He and his works are also the subjects of numerous critical essays and commentaries by contemporary writers This volume presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of those essays books and articles from 1983 through 2003 Arranged alphabetically by author within years are some 8 320 entries ranging from unpublished dissertations to book length studies of African American literature and literary criticism Also included as an appendix are addenda to the author's earlier bibliography covering the years from 1934 through 1982 This is the exhaustive reference for serious students of Richard Wright and his critics American Fiction Since 1940 Tony Hilfer, 2014-09-25 In this remarkable book Tony Hilfer provides a major survey of the wealth of post war American fiction He analyses the major modes and genres of writing from realist to postmodernist metafiction and black humour the fiction of social protest women's writing and the traditions of African American Southern and Jewish American fiction Key writers discussed include William Faulkner Norman Mailer Ralph Ellison Saul Bellow Joseph Heller Vladimir Nabokov and Joyce Carol Oates The book concludes by exploring contemporary trends through detailed case studies of Donald Barthelme and Toni Morrison A New Introduction to American Studies Howard Temperley, Christopher Bigsby, 2014-07-21 A New Introduction to American Studies provides a coherent portrait of American history literature politics culture and society and also deals with some of the central themes and preoccupations of American life It will provoke students into thinking about what it actually means to study a culture Ideals such as the commitment to liberty equality and material progress are fully examined and new light is shed on the sometimes contradictory ways in which these ideals have informed the nation's history and culture For introductory undergraduate courses in American Studies American History and American Literature

Cross-cultural Visions in African American Modernism Yoshinobu Hakutani, 2006 Yoshinobu Hakutani traces the development of African American modernism which initially gathered momentum with Richard Wright's literary manifesto Blueprint for Negro Writing in 1937 Hakutani dissects and discusses the cross cultural influences on the then burgeoning discipline in three stages American dialogues European and African cultural visions and Asian and African American cross cultural visions In writing Black Boy the centerpiece of the Chicago Renaissance Wright was inspired by Theodore Dreiser Because the European and African cultural visions that Wright Ralph Ellison Alice Walker and Toni Morrison acquired were buttressed by the universal humanism that is common to all cultures this ideology is shown to transcend the problems of society Fascinated by Eastern thought and art Wright Walker Sonia Sanchez and James Emanuel wrote highly accomplished poetry and prose Like Ezra Pound Wright was drawn to classic haiku as reflected in the 4 000 haiku he wrote at the end of his life As W B Yeats s symbolism was influenced by his cross cultural visions of noh theatre and Irish folklore so is James Emanuel s jazz haiku energized by his cross cultural rhythms of Japanese poetry and African American music The book demonstrates some of the most visible cultural exchanges in modern and postmodern African American literature Such a study can be extended to other contemporary African American writers whose works also thrive on their cross cultural visions such as Amiri Baraka Ishmael Reed Charles Johnson and haiku poet Lenard Moore WLA ,2006 The Cambridge Companion to F. Scott Fitzgerald Ruth Prigozy,2001-10-25 Eleven specially commissioned essays by major Fitzgerald scholars present a clearly written and comprehensive assessment of F Scott Fitzgerald as a writer and as a public and private figure No aspect of his career is overlooked from his first novel published in 1920 through his more than 170 short stories to his last unfinished Hollywood novel Contributions present the reader with a full and accessible picture of the background of American social and cultural change in the early decades of the twentieth century The introduction traces Fitzgerald s career as a literary and public figure and examines the extent to which public recognition has affected his reputation among scholars critics and general readers over the past sixty years This volume offers undergraduates graduates and general readers a full account of Fitzgerald s work as well as suggestions for further exploration of his work

Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady,2012-12-06 Reader s Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study Performing the Everyday in Henry James's Late Novels Maya Higashi Wakana,2016-05-13 Focusing on James s last three completed novels The Ambassadors The Wings of the Dove and The Golden Bowl Maya Higashi Wakana shows how a microsociological approach to James s novels radically revises the widespread tradition of putting James s characters into historical and cultural contexts Wakana begins with the premise that day to day living is inherently theatrical and thus duplicitous and goes on to show that James s art relies significantly on his powerful sense of the agonizing and even dangerous complications of mundane face to face rituals that pervade his work Centrally informed by social thinkers such as G H Mead and Erving Goffman Wakana s study discloses the richness complexity and singularity of the interpersonal connections depicted in James s late novels Persuasively argued and rich in original close readings her book makes an important contribution to James s studies and to theories of social interaction A Study Guide for Ernest Hemingway's The Sun Also Rises Gale, Cengage Learning,2015-03-13 A Study Guide for Ernest Hemingway s The Sun Also Rises excerpted from Gale s acclaimed Novels for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further

Santin, 2021-03-11 Bryan M Santin examines over a half century of intersection between American fiction and postwar conservatism He traces the shifting racial politics of movement conservatism to argue that contemporary perceptions of literary form and aesthetic value are intrinsically connected to the rise of the American Right Instead of casting postwar conservatives as cynical hustlers or ideological fanatics Santin shows how the long term rhetorical shift in conservative notions of literary value and prestige reveal an aesthetic antinomy between high culture and low culture This shift he argues registered and mediated the deeper foundational antinomy structuring postwar conservatism itself the stable social order of traditionalism and the creative destruction of free market capitalism Postwar conservatives produced in effect an ambivalent double register in the discourse of conservative literary taste that sought to celebrate neo aristocratic manifestations of cultural capital while condemning newer more progressive manifestations revolving around racial and ethnic diversity Making History Jonathon S. Cullick, 2000-04-01 From his first published book to his last works Robert Penn Warren wrote novels poetry biographies and essays based on the lives of American historical figures Even some of his critical texts take a biographical approach to their subjects In Making History the first comprehensive survey of Warren s biographical narratives Jonathan S Cullick tracks a clear development toward autobiography in Warren s career By applying narrative theory to that provocative trend he then makes an intriguing discovery Warren s discourse techniques dramatize his philosophy of history and ethics Cullick unearths what might be called the narrative syntax of Warren s historical vision in which genre becomes vital in the attempt to reconcile American past and present Making History considers all of Warren s major biographical narratives and their evolvement from detached reporting to doubtful self examination It offers a new reading of Warren s famed novel All the King s Men and close examination of several neglected texts including Warren s first book John Brown The Making of a Martyr his essay The World of Daniel Boone and two of his final works Jefferson Davis Gets His Citizenship Back and Portrait of a Father Faulkner in the Eighties John Earl Bassett, 1991 This bibliography brings up through 1989 the comprehensive listing of scholarship and criticism on William Faulkner begun by Bassett in two earlier books William Faulkner An Annotated Checklist of Criticism 1972 and Faulkner An Annotated Checklist of Recent Criticism 1983 Since the latter over a hundred books on Faulkner have been completed along with hundreds of articles and dissertations This work lists all new items often with extensive annotations and provides separate entries for chapters of books that cover individual novels and stories Bassett s introductory essay provides an overview of the last decade of Faulkner studies the first in which post structuralist and other newer forms of criticism had a major impact on Faulkner studies Ellen Glasgow Dorothy McInnis Scura, 1995 Using a variety of critical approaches including semiotic intertextual and biographical these fifteen essays cover the full range of Glasgow s writings from well known novels such as Virginia Barren Ground and The Sheltered Life to less familiar works such as The Battle Ground The Wheel of Life the verse collected in The Freeman and Other Poems and the short stories

Understanding Robert Penn Warren James A. Grimshaw, 2001 Grimshaw examines the writer's views about the primacy of self knowledge and explores the painful and arduous path his protagonists must follow to gain such knowledge and the interrelationship of his artistic endeavors which were woven together by common thematic concerns history time truth responsibility love hope and endurance A Concise Bibliography for Students of English Arthur Garfield

Kennedy, Donald B. Sands, 1966 Contemporary American Fiction in the Embrace of the Digital Age Beatrice Pire, Arnaud Regnauld, Pierre-Louis Patoine, 2021-12-31 This collection aims to examine the relationship between American fiction and innovations that marked the first decades of the 21st century the Internet social media smart objects and environments artificial intelligence nanotechnologies genetic engineering and other biotechnologies transhumanism These technological innovations redefine the way we live in and imagine our world interact with each other and understand the human being in his or her ever closer relationship to the machine a human being no longer as in the past cared for or repaired but now enhanced or replaced What about our artistic and cultural practices Are these recent advances changing language and literature How is fiction transformed by technological progress and what representations of progress can it oppose Can fiction offer a critique of the new media and the upheavals they precipitate How does the temporality of literature respond to a technical time subjected to the imperative of efficiency where the present is a slave to the future Do virtual worlds challenge the primacy of literary fiction as a privileged mode of escape from daily life In a context where software can generate literary works can the force of poetical advent still oppose algorithmic logics What becomes of the body in a world in which its technical extensions increase the externalization of its cognitive functions in media artifacts and digital networks In order to explore these questions scholars here investigate the American fiction of Russell Banks Don DeLillo David Foster Wallace Jonathan Lethem Tao Lin Richard Powers Kenneth Goldsmith Jennifer Egan or Jonathan Franzen as well as the Cyberpunk genre and the Neuronovel A History of American Literature Richard
