Private Education In Singapore: Contemporary Issues And Challenges Choon-yin Sam, 2017-05-23 Not much has been written about the private education sector in Singapore despite the fact that the sector houses about 300 private education institutions PEIs and enrolls about 150 000 students Private Education in Singapore Contemporary Issues and Challenges is an exciting book that aims to fill a gap in the literature In the book the author offers an extensive discussion on i the key elements of the sector types and features of the PEIs ii the regulatory framework for private education iii students aspiration and the impact of the ASPIRE report on PEIs and iv the provision of external degree programme through transnational partnership The book also tackles the hotly debated discussion in relation to academic quality and standard of PEI courses The author identifies the reasons some of them have more characteristics of a myth and suggests a number of ways to overcome the issues and challenges

50 Years Of Singapore's Productivity Drive Kin Chung Woon, Ya Lee Loo, 2017-12-26 2017 marks the 50th year of Singapore's national productivity drive This book provides a comprehensive account of the phases milestones and activities of the productivity drive from its humble beginnings in 1967 The coverage ranges from the assistance that Singapore received through the United Nations Development Programme and the Japan Singapore Productivity Development Project to the national campaigns and programmes to build competencies in enterprises and the workforce The various developments are placed in the context of the economic environment and the priorities of the country at different points in time This makes it clear why certain policies were implemented and why the productivity drive was transformed as Singapore progressed from a developing country to a developed country Drawing insights from the 50 year history the book concludes with a list of issues for reflection

Singapore Kenneth Paul Tan, 2018-08-30 Contemporary Singapore is simultaneously a small postcolonial multicultural nation state and a cosmopolitan global city To manage fundamental contradictions the state takes the lead in authoring the national narrative This is partly an internal process of nation building but it is also achieved through more commercially motivated and outward facing efforts at nation and city branding Both sets of processes contribute to Singapore's capacity to influence foreign affairs if only for national self preservation For a small state with resource limitations this is mainly through the exercise of smart power or the ability to strategically combine soft and hard power resources

Competitiveness of the Singapore Economy Mun Heng Toh, 1998 This volume provides an intensive review of the economic competitiveness of Singapore's economy It identifies and analyses the strategies which will allow the economy to retain its competitive advantage in the years ahead in an increasingly globalised economic environment considerably liberalised international trading and investment climate and with regional economies challenging the country's competitive edge as a regional transportation hub international financial centre and a primary regional centre for technology and education Dialogues and interviews with managers and CEOs of industries in the private and public sectors are also included

Chinese Street Opera in Singapore Tong Soon Lee, 2024-03-18 Since

Singapore declared independence from Malaysia in 1965 Chinese street opera has played a significant role in defining Singaporean identity Carefully tracing the history of amateur and professional performances in Singapore Tong Soon Lee reflects on the role of street performance in fostering cultural nationalism and entrepreneurship He explains that the government welcomes Chinese street opera performances because they combine tradition and modernism and promote a national culture that brings together Singapore's four main ethnic groups Eurasian Malay Chinese and South Asian Chinese Street Opera in Singapore documents the ways in which this politically motivated art form continues to be influenced and transformed by Singaporean politics ideology and context in the twenty first century By performing Chinese street opera amateur troupes preserve their rich heritage underscoring the Confucian mind set that a learned person engages in the arts for moral and unselfish purposes Educated performers also control behavior emotions and values They are creative and innovative and their use of new technologies indicates a modern entrepreneurial spirit Their performances bring together diverse ethnic groups to watch and perform Lee argues while also encouraging a national attitude focused on both remembering the past and preparing for the future in Singapore
