family defiantly refused to evacuate Nazi occupied France this groundbreaking book illuminates the previously untold history of their passionate roles in the Resistance and the prodigious revolutionary work the artist produced in the face of fascism violence and hate For readers of Jeffrey H Jackson's Paper Bullets Martin Dugard's Taking Paris Julie Orringer's The Flight Portfolio and Picasso s War by Hugh Eakin from the acclaimed author of The Confidante In 1940 with the Nazis sweeping through France Henri Matisse found himself at a personal and artistic crossroads His 42 year marriage had ended he was gravely ill and after decades at the forefront of modern art he was beset by doubt As scores of famous figures escaped the country Matisse took refuge in Nice with his companion Lydia Delectorskaya By defiantly remaining Matisse was a source of inspiration for his nation While enemy agents and Resistance fighters played cat and mouse in the alleyways of Nice Matisse s son Jean engaged in sabotage efforts with the Allies In Paris under the swastika Matisse's estranged wife Am lie worked for the Communist underground His beloved daughter Marguerite active in the French Resistance was arrested and tortured by the Gestapo sentenced to Ravensbruck concentration camp and miraculously escaped when her train was halted by Allied bombs His younger son Pierre helped Jewish artists escape to New York even his teenaged grandson risked his life by defying the Germans and their Vichy collaborators Amidst this chaos Matisse responded to the dark days of war by inventing a dazzling new paper technique that led to some of his most iconic pieces including The Fall of Icarus his profile of Charles De Gaulle Monsieur Loyal and his groundbreaking cut out book Jazz His wartime works were acts of resistance subtly patriotic and daringly new Drawing on intimate letters and a multitude of other sources Christopher C Gorham illuminates this momentous stage of Matisse's life as never before revealing an artist on a journey of reinvention wrenching meaning from the suffering of war and holding up the light of human imagination against the torch of fascism to create some of the most exciting work of his career of the 20th century and in the history of art Henri Matisse Catherine C. Bock Weiss, 2014-02-25 First published in 1996 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Grace Crowlev's Contribution to Australian Modernism and Geometric Abstraction Dianne Ottley, 2010-02-19 Grace Crowley has been recognized as a product of European modernism and was one of the leading innovators of geometric abstraction in Australia Having studied in Paris in the 1920s with one of the leading art teachers writers and theorists Andr Lhote she returned to Australia having mastered the complex mathematics and geometry of the golden section and dynamic symmetry that had become a framework for modernism Through her teaching of these compositional techniques at the most progressive modern art school in Sydney in the 1930s she became a crucial influence on the group of artists now recognized as the historical forerunners to American colour field painting introduced to Australia in the 1960s and Australian abstraction Through her close friendship with Anne Dangar who played a critical role in the success of Albert Gleizes utopian art colony in rural France Crowley maintained contact with mainstream European modernism and links to the Abstraction Creation Group in Paris During the 1940s and 1950s Crowley worked with fellow artist Ralph Balson and together they developed their own

style of geometric abstract art which reflected the spiritual dimensions of Kandinsky and Mondrian Although undervalued in her own time the sincerity and uncompromising quality of her work that transcends national boundaries makes her one of the most important Australian women artists of her generation When Modern Became Contemporary Art Charles Green, Heather Barker, 2024-09-19 This book is a portrait of the period when modern art became contemporary art It explores how and why writers and artists in Australia argued over the idea of a distinctively Australian modern and then postmodern art from 1962 the date of publication of a foundational book Australian Painting 1788 1960 up to 1988 the year of the Australian Bicentennial Across nine chapters about art exhibitions curators and critics this book describes the shift from modern art to contemporary art through the successive attempts to define a place in the world for Australian art But by 1988 Australian art looked less and less like a viable tradition inside which to interpret our art Instead vast gaps appeared since mostly male and often older White writers had limited their horizons to White Australia alone National stories by White men like borders had less and less explanatory value Underneath this a perplexing subject remained the absence of Aboriginal art in understanding what Australian art was during the period that established the idea of a distinctive Australian modern and then contemporary art This book reflects on why the embrace of Aboriginal art was so late in art museums and histories of Australian art arguing that this was because it was not part of a national story dominated by colonial then neo colonial dependency It is important reading for all scholars of both global and Australian art and for curators and artists of the Must-See Exhibition Anna Lawrenson, Chiara O'Reilly, 2018-12-07 Blockbuster exhibitions are ubiquitous fixtures in the cultural calendars of major museums and galleries worldwide The Rise of the Must See Exhibition charts their ascent across a diverse array of museums and galleries The book positions these exhibits in the Australian cultural context demonstrating how policy developments and historical precedents have created a space for their current domination Drawing on historical evidence policy documents and contemporary debates the book offers a complex analysis of the aims and motivations of blockbuster exhibitions Its chronological approach reveals a genealogy of exhibits from the mid nineteenth century onward to identify precursors to current practice This provides a foundation upon which to examine the unprecedented growth of blockbusters in the latter half of the twentieth century The examples discussed offer a unique opportunity to study how institutional growth political support individual champions and audience interest have influenced the development of large scale temporary exhibitions The Rise of the Must See Exhibition considers blockbusters as an international phenomenon and as such is highly relevant to practitioners working across the cultural sector around the world The book will also appeal to academics and students engaged in the study of museums and galleries arts management and curating as well as those interested in the history of exhibitions and cultural policy Modern Masters ,1975 Masterpieces of European Painting, 1800-1920, in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Kathryn Calley Galitz, 2007 Beyond the Visible: The Art of Odilon Redon Jodi Hauptman, 2005 Caught between description and dream the felt and the imagined French artist Odilon Redon whose career bridged the 19th and 20th centuries transformed the natural world into nightmarish visions and bizarre fantasies Closely allied with the Symbolist movement Redon offered his own interpretations of literary biblical and mythological subjects created a universe of strange hybrid creatures and presented landscape in a singular way we see grinning disembodied teeth smiling spiders melancholic floating faces winged chariots unfamiliar plant life and velvety black or colored swirls of atmosphere With a recent gift from the Ian Woodner family The Museum of Modern Art is now the site of the most significant body of the artist s work outside France and this book will showcase the full range of Redon s varied oeuvre charcoal noirs luminous pastels richly textured canvases literary collaborations and experiments in printmaking and will illuminate the hold his particular kind of modernism has had on both 20th century and contemporary artists
