Shank, 2023-12-28 Prophet Harris The Black Elijah of West Africa offers the only comprehensive study of the thought of William Wade Harris the Glebo Liberia loyalist whose prophetic mission from 1910-29 moved tens of thousands of West Africans out of traditional religion into the stream of Christianity and modernization particularly in the Ivory Coast It reviews that unparalleled breakthrough thoroughly examines traditional African Western missionary and colonial influences which helped determine religious innovation and shape his vocation as prophet of Christ's reign of peace and prosperity Heretofore unused sources enriched by documents and photos expose biblical eschatological and messianic dynamics which tied Harris words symbols and charisma together in a holistic African Christianity The source of long standing contentions between Ivoirian Harrists Methodists and Catholics is uncovered in the well intentioned but changing colonial and missionary responses to his impact Changing Frontiers of Mission Wilbert R. Shenk ,2015-03-24 Dreams in the African Church Nelson Osamu Hayashida,2023-09-20 Currents of Encounter invites scholarly contributions that utilize interreligious intercultural comparative postcolonial and other contemporary critical interdisciplinary approaches from across all religious traditions to address topical questions on the challenges and opportunities arising from intercultural interreligious engagements or the intersections of cultures and religions Studies dealing explicitly with the dynamics of the intersection of religious and cultural traditions are increasing every year and scholars have become aware of the complexity and diversity of interreligious and intercultural relations Recent literature offers a broad panoply of theoretical approaches from theologies of religions to comparative theologies from discourse analysis to a postcolonial critique focusing on issues of power from feminist readings asking about the specific role of women in interreligious dialogue to interreligious hermeneutics exploring how meaning may travel across cultural and religious traditions Currents of Encounter welcomes this variety of works in these disciplines and from interdisciplinary perspectives aiming thus to contribute to a better understanding of the complexities of interreligious and intercultural themes The board welcomes both monographs and edited volumes Possible domains interreligious studies intercultural theology and philosophy comparative theology and philosophy theologies of religions Insurgent Terrorism Gerald Cromer,2017-11-30 Terrorists engage in propaganda and rhetoric even though they prefer the power of deed over word They use a wide variety of mechanisms of moral disengagement to convince themselves of the rightness of their actions a necessary prerequisite for taking up arms The articles collected together in this excellent volume focus on the rhetoric and propaganda used by insurgent terrorists to justify their resort to violence The volume includes a thoughtful introduction which summarizes the main findings of the literature drawing attention to the many different kinds of terrorist propaganda and the underlying similarity between them Earthen Vessels Joel A. Carpenter,Wilbert R. Shenk,2012-12-01 Contrary to popular impressions the days of the missionary are far from over North American churches send more missionaries than ever before and 90 percent of them are evangelicals who are not affiliated with the mainline Protestant mission boards The first major historical treatment of the distinctly evangelical wing of twentieth century American missions Earthen Vessels truly breaks new ground Covering territory that missions histories have scarcely explored yet the distinguished historians contributing to this volume portray the North American including Canadian evangelical missionary enterprise from the Student Volunteer Movement to the very recent past The book traces the influences of premillennial eschatology the fundamentalist modernist controversies the rise of independent missions and conservative denominational boards the role of World War II and America's rise to world power the recent development of a distinctly evangelical theology of missions and the growing influence of the Two Thirds World s evangelical leaders While this volume certainly does not contain the last word on these subjects in a number of areas it does offer very nearly the first look With its fresh subject matter and new historical interpretations Earthen Vessels will interest church history scholars and students missionaries and ministers and any others who wish to know more about American missions     Missiology ,1985 An international review     International Mission Bibliography Norman E.
