Modern Poetry A Personal Essay 1969:

Leonard and Virginia Woolf, The Hogarth Press and the Networks of Modernism Helen Southworth, 2012-05-08 This multi authored volume focuses on Leonard and Virginia Woolf's Hogarth Press 1917-1941. Scholars from the UK and the US use previously unpublished archival materials and new methodological frameworks to explore the relationships forged by the Woolfs. One Voice and Many Beth Ellen Roberts, 2006 Different conceptions of the relationships between unity and multiplicity may be presented by varying the three distances inherent in dialogue poetry each of which represents a degree of differentiation: the distance between the speakers, the distance between the poet and the speakers, and the distance between the speakers and the reader. The National Union Catalog, 1968-1972, 1973 Articulate Flesh Gregory Woods, 1987-01-01 Discusses the themes of the male body, war, and homosexual love in poetry and analyzes the poetry of D. H. Lawrence, Hart Crane, W. H. Auden, Allen Ginsberg, and Thom Gunn. Modern Irish and Scottish Poetry Peter Mackay, Edna Longley, Fran Brearton, 2011-04-14 The comparative study of the literatures of Ireland and Scotland has emerged as a distinct and buoyant field in recent years. This collection of new essays offers the first sustained comparison of modern Irish and Scottish poetry, featuring close readings of texts within broad historical and political contextualisation. Playing on influences, crossovers, connections, disconnections, and differences, the affinities and opposites traced in this book cross both Irish and Scottish poetry in many directions. Contributors include major scholars of the new archipelagic approach as well as leading Irish and Scottish poets providing important insights into current creative practice. Poets discussed include W. B. Yeats, Hugh MacDiarmid, Sorley MacLean, Louis MacNeice, Edwin Morgan, Douglas Dunn, Seamus Heaney, Ian Hamilton Finlay, Michael Longley, Medbh McGuckian, Nuala Ni Dhomhnaill, Don Paterson, and Kathleen Jamie. This book is a major contribution to our understanding of poetry from these islands in the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. American Book Publishing Record, 1985 W. H. Auden Dr John Haffenden, 2002-09-11 This set comprises of 40 volumes covering nineteenth and twentieth-century European and American authors. These volumes will be available as a complete set, mini-boxed sets by theme, or as individual volumes. This second set complements the first 68-volume set of Critical Heritage published by Routledge in October 1995. American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977 R. R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography, 1978 Guide to Reprints, 2004 Museum Visits and Activities for Family Life Enrichment Barbara H. Butler, Marvin B. Sussman, 1989 In this one-of-a-kind volume, museum staff and social scientists begin to explore the many facets of the relationship between museums and families. They examine the museum's importance to the family as a source for socialization and learning. At the heart of this exciting book is a concentration on developing programs of experiential learning and knowledge building that will assist families in understanding their history and culture. A Bibliography of the Works of Louis MacNeice Christopher M. Armitage, Neil Clark, 1973 The Problem of Consciousness in Modern Poetry Hugh Underhill, 1992-07-31 Modernist aesthetics have been identified with a sense of cultural crisis defined by its distance from an ideal of unified consciousness This original study examines the struggle toward that ideal of unitary subjective experience in modern British and Irish poetry from Hardy to Ted Hughes Hugh Underhill argues that the poetry's emphasis on inner states underrepresents the extent to which the crisis is in fact socio historically determined

Letters of Louis MacNeice Louis MacNeice, 2014-11-20 Louis MacNeice is increasingly recognised as one of the greatest poets of the twentieth century and his work has been a defining influence upon a generation of Irish poets that includes Derek Mahon Michael Longley and Paul Muldoon The Selected Letters is indispensable as a resource for an understanding of the intellectual culture of the mid twentieth century A Classics don poet playwright and globetrotting BBC producer the medley and blend of MacNeice's cultural influences seems exemplary in its modernity He kept up a significant correspondence with E R Dodds Anthony Blunt and T S Eliot to name but three prominent figures of the time During his time at the BBC MacNeice witnessed many key events including the partition of India in 1947 and the independence of the Gold Coast from Britain in 1957 and these are recorded in two long sequences to his wife the singer Hedli Anderson His complex relationship to Ireland and to his Irish heritages speak resonantly to contemporary debates about Irish and Northern Irish cultural identity Finally the Letters will do much to broaden our understanding of a vivid and often enigmatic personality whose varied life and individual charisma have often resisted explanation

The Unsung Artistry of George Orwell Loraine Saunders, 2016-02-24 In a timely and radically new reappraisal of George Orwell's fiction Loraine Saunders reads Orwell's novels as tales of successful emancipation rather than as chronicles of failure Contending that Orwell's novels have been undervalued as works of art she offers extensive textual analysis to reveal an author who is in far more control of his prose than has been appreciated Persuasively demonstrating that Orwell's novels of the 1930s such as A Clergyman's Daughter and Keep the Aspidistra Flying are no less important as literature than Animal Farm and Nineteen Eighty Four Saunders argues they have been victims of a critical tradition whose practitioners have misunderstood Orwell's narrative style failed to appreciate Orwell's political stance and were predisposed to find little merit in Orwell's novels Saunders devotes significant attention to George Gissing's influence on Orwell particularly with regard to his representations of women She also examines Orwell's socialism in the context of the political climate of the 1930s finding that Orwell in his successful negotiation of the fine balance between art and propaganda had much more in common with Charlie Chaplin than with writers like Stephen Spender or W H Auden As a result of Saunders's detailed and accessible analysis which illuminates how Orwell harmonized allegory with documentary polyphonic voice with monophonic and elegy with comedy Orwell's contributions to the genre of political fiction are finally recognized
