This central document in family ministry includes techniques for implementing a family perspective into all policies programs and services of the Church Partnering with Parents in Youth Ministry Jim Burns, Mike DeVries, 2003-10-07 The most powerful force in a young person's life is his or her family The importance of this is pointed out in the writing of the Torah in Deuteronomy 6:4-9 where believers are mandated to pass their family legacies to the next generations The newest trend in youth ministry today is a very healthy move toward family based ministry a mindset that helps the Church act as a support system while placing discipleship and training back into the hands of family Partnering with Parents in Youth Ministry will help youth workers understand their unique role in helping families succeed and will give an overview strategy of family based youth ministry as well as practical ideas on implementing this awesome ministry in your church The Family-Powered Church Pamela J. The Church's immutable mission is to intentionally share Christ's kingdom. The believer's divine journey remains absolute, purposeful, and communal. Even so, as the church endeavors to fulfill its mission, obstacles obscure the pathway forward. Our once-enlightened society slowly dims with the dissolution of revered institutions, especially those of marriage and the family. Prevailing secular humanism assigns Christian orthodoxy to the realm of fictional radicalism. Amid such traumatic chaos, can the church maintain a faithful outlook? In a post-Christian world, how does the Church move forward? Redeeming the Time: God's CLEAR Path Forward biblically examines Christ's transformational leadership as the standard required for church revitalization. Meaningful Church membership can only be found by loving and following Christ alone. He is The Way forward. Accordingly, church leaders must adopt Christ's servant leadership philosophy with a unified partnership that renews our ministries to our families, church, and community. Believers are summoned to live a spiritually disciplined life for the purpose of godliness. Essential discipleship therefore must center upon full obedience to the Holy Scripture, not out of mere duty but from an intimate, loving disciple's relationship. The ministry objective is to engage discipleship not as a program or church function but as a Christian lifestyle that is begun and nurtured in the home. Focusing on parental responsibility is not to suggest that the community of faith has no didactic role; rather, it better organizes and supports biblical discipleship in the context of the family unit. Redeeming the Time biblically examines Christ's transformational leadership as the servant way, the appointed way, the passionate way, and the challenging way. For all who follow Him, He is our CLEAR Path forward. A
