Peasant Culture Of Bosnia And Herzegovina:

The Peasant Culture of Bosnia and Herzegovina Ivo Sivric, 1982 The History and Heritage of the Pandžić's from Drinovci John Pandžić, 2020-09-03 The History and Heritage of the Pand i s from Drinovci By John Pand i In Family Cultural and Religious History of Drinovci Herzegovina John Pand i travels through countries and centuries thoroughly exploring his family s history While the book has a great focus on the individual family members Pand i also provides thorough information on various aspects of the country s history which is sure to appeal to scholars and historians of all kinds The Bosnian Muslims Francine Friedman, 2018-10-08 Although their plight now dominates television news worldwide the Bosnian Muslims were until recently virtually unknown outside of Yugoslavia This meticulously researched comprehensive book traces the turbulent history of the Bosnian Muslims and shows how their mixed secular and religious identity has shaped the conflict in which they are now so tragically embroiled Although their plight now dominates television news worldwide the Bosnian Muslims were until recently virtually unknown outside of Yugoslavia Who are these people Why are they the focus of their former neighbors rage What role did they play in Yugoslavia before they became the victims of ethnic cleansing Why has Bosnia Hercegovina once a model of ethnic tolerance and multicultural harmony suddenly exploded into ethnic violence Focusing on these questions Friedman provides a comprehensive study of this national group whose plight has riveted governments the press and the public alike With a name reflecting both their religious and their national identity the Bosnian Muslims are unique in Europe as indigenous Slavic Muslims Descendants of schismatic Christians from the Middle Ages they converted to Islam after the Ottoman conquest of Bosnia The book follows them as they went from victims of crusades during the Middle Ages to members of the ruling elite within the Ottoman Empire from rulers back to subjects under Austria Hungary and later subjects again this time under the Serbs in the interwar Yugoslav Kingdom and the Communists after World War II The Bosnian Muslims have survived through it all even thriving during certain periods most notably when they were recognized by Tito as a nation Meticulously tracing their turbulent history and assessing the issues surrounding Bosnian Muslim nationhood in Yugoslavia Friedman shows us how the mixed secular and religious identity of the Bosnian Muslims has shaped the conflict in which they are now so tragically embroiled Civil-Military Relations in the Soviet and Yugoslav Successor States Constantine P. Danopoulos, 2019-03-07 From open civil war in Bosnia and Georgia to the Russian president s use of military units against an uncooperative parliament civil military conflicts in the former USSR and Yugoslavia are increasingly attracting world wide attention and concern This volume brings together fourteen essays that explore the roles of the armed forces in the ongoing struggles for control over the processes of state formation and government in these newly independent countries Twelve chapters focus on the experiences of particular countries in the region and introductory and concluding chapters draw out commonalities and differences among the cases comparing them with one another as well as with post authoritarian regimes elsewhere in the world The New Bosnian Mosaic Elissa

Helms,2016-02-17 Since the violent events of the Bosnian war and the revelations of ethnic cleansing that shocked the world in the early 1990s Bosnia has become a metaphor for the new ethnic nationalisms for the transformation of warfare in the post Cold War era and for new forms of peacekeeping and state building This book is unique in offering a re examination of the Bosnian case with a bottom up perspective It gathers together cultural anthropologists and other social scientists to consider the specificities of the Bosnian case However the book also raises broader questions what are the consequences of internecine violence and how should societies attempt to overcome them Are the uncertainties and the transformations of Bosnian post war society due entirely to the war or are they related to wider processes encompassing post communist Europe as a whole And are the difficulties experienced by international state building operations mainly due to distinctive features of the local societies or are they due to the policies promoted by the international community itself Collectivistic Religions Slavica Jakelic,2016-05-23 Collectivistic Religions draws upon empirical studies of Christianity in Europe to address questions of religion and collective identity religion and nationalism religion and public life and religion and conflict It moves beyond the attempts to tackle such questions in terms of choice and religious nationalism by introducing the notion of collectivistic religions to contemporary debates surrounding public religions Using a comparison of several case studies this book challenges the modernist bias in understanding of collectivistic religions as reducible to national identities A significant contribution to both the study of religious change in contemporary Europe and the theoretical debates that surround religion and secularization it will be of key interest to scholars across a range of disciplines including sociology political science religious studies and geography Places of Pain Hariz Halilovich,2013-02-01 For displaced persons memory and identity is performed re constructed and re negotiated daily Forced displacement radically reshapes identity with results ranging from successful hybridization to feelings of permanent misplacement This compelling and intimate description of places of pain and be longing that were lost during the 1992 95 war in Bosnia and Herzegovina as well as of survivors places of resettlement in Australia Europe and North America serves as a powerful illustration of the complex interplay between place memory and identity It is even more the case when those places have been vandalized divided up brutalized and scarred However as the author shows these places of humiliation and suffering are also places of desire with displaced survivors emulating their former homes in the far corners of the globe where they have resettled Our Lady of the Nations Chris Maunder,2016-02-18 Our Lady of the Nations is a detailed and scholarly overview of the apparitions of Mary in 20th century Catholic Europe Chris Maunder discusses apparitions in general and how they are interpreted in Catholicism by for example Karl Rahner and Benedict XVI The role of women and children as visionaries is considered including issues concerning changing views of gender children s spirituality and the protection of minors He covers cases that are well known and approved by the Church Fatima Beauraing Banneux and Amsterdam others that are well known but not approved such as Garabandal and Medjugorje and many that are neither well known nor approved such as those in Belgian Flanders or Nazi

Germany in the 1930s or in France Italy or Germany after the Second World War Resources include academic studies of particular apparitions some Catholic theological and devotional literature and occasionally travel writing There is also coverage of material in French which is not known to the English reader Shrines and visionaries are believed to be indicators of the presence of Mary In the visionary perspective she has appeared in order to reassure her followers and to warn of divine judgement Her messages echo doctrinal Catholic Mariology with some innovations but also express a deep dissatisfaction with the events and trends of the 20th century from communism to Nazism to liberalism and religious indifference While the Marian cult evolves according to new templates for apparitions and developments in Mariology the fundamental message of presence consolation and admonition remains constant

A Muslim Minority in Turkey Lejla Voloder,2018-07-30 Although Turkey is a secular state it is often characterised as a Muslim country In her latest book Lejla Voloder provides an engaging and revealing study of a Bosniak community in Turkey one of the Muslim minorities actually recognised by the state in Turkey Under what circumstances have they resettled to Turkey How do they embrace Islam How does one live as a Bosniak a Turkish citizen a mother a father a member of a household and as one guided by Islam The first book based on fieldwork to detail the lives of members of the Bosnian and Bosniak diaspora in Turkey A Muslim Minority in Turkey makes a unique contribution to the study of Muslim minority groups in Turkey and the Middle East Waiting for Elijah Safet HadžiMuhamedović,2018-04-25 Waiting for Elijah is an intimate portrait of time reckoning syncretism and proximity in one of the world s most polarized landscapes the Bosnian Field of Gacko Centered on the shared harvest feast of Elijah s Day the once eagerly awaited pinnacle of the annual cycle the book shows how the fractured postwar landscape beckoned the return of communal life that entails such waiting This seemingly paradoxical situation waiting to wait becomes a starting point for a broader discussion on the complexity of time set between cosmology nationalism and embodied memories of proximity

Dynamic of Destruction Alan Kramer,2008-11-07 On 26 August 1914 the world famous university library in the Belgian town of Louvain was looted and destroyed by German troops The international community reacted in horror Holocaust at Louvain proclaimed the Daily Mail and the behaviour of the Germans at Louvain came to be seen as the beginning of a different style of war without the rules that had governed military conflict up to that point a more total war in which enemy civilians and their entire culture were now legitimate targets Yet the destruction at Louvain was simply one symbolic moment in a wider wave of cultural destruction and mass killing that swept Europe in the era of the First World War Using a wide range of examples and eye witness accounts from across Europe at this time award winning historian Alan Kramer paints a picture of an entire continent plunging into a chilling new world of mass mobilization total warfare and the celebration of nationalist or ethnic violence often directed expressly at the enemy s civilian population its inhabitants successfully lived side by side in peace This collection seeks to explain how former neighbors became enemies with the hope that understanding what drove these peoples apart will help us discover ways for them to coexist in peace again Contributors analyze political cartoons psychiatry the arts visual media and law to present a diversity of views on the conflicts in Yugoslavia While the chapters in this book deal with regional developments they are not so much focused on politics as they are concerned with how values and attitudes are altered and new identities formed Thus this volume goes beyond recent journalistic accounts and should remain relevant for years to come This book began as a special issue of the journal Anthropology of East Europe Review Most of the contributors to that issue have revised their chapters for this collection and new chapters have been added including one on the recent war in Kosovo Essays range across all of former Yugoslavia emphasizing the variability and diversity of ethnic relations throughout its history Contributors are Mart Bax Brian C Bennett Nikolai Botev Bette Denich Elinor Despalatovi Hannes Grandits Joel M Halpern E A Hammel Robert M Hayden Goran Jovanovic va V Huseby Darvas David A Kideckel Mirjana Lausevic Lynn D Maners Julie Mertus Robert Gary Minnich Rajko Mursi Edit Petrovic Christian Promitzer Mirjana Prosic Dvornic Janet Reineck Jonathan Matthew Schwartz Andrei Simic and Stevan M Weine

Everyday Culture in Europe Máiréad Nic Craith, 2016-04-15 This book discusses the history and contemporary practice of studying cultures at home by examining Europe s regional or small ethnologies of the past present and future With the rise of nationalism and independence in Europe ethnologies have often played a major role in the nation building process The contributors to this book offer case studies of ethnologies as methodologies showing how they can address key questions concerning everyday life in Europe They also explore issues of European integration and the transnational dimension of culture in Europe today and examine how regional ethnologies can play a crucial part in forming a wider European ethnology as local participants have experience of combining identities within larger regions or nations Yugoslavia John Joseph Horton,1990 Military Culture and Popular Patriotism in Late Imperial Austria Laurence Cole,2014 Military Culture and Popular Patriotism examines the interplay between popular patriotism and military culture in late imperial Austria Laurence Cole suggests that two main questions should be asked regarding the western half of the Habsburg Monarchy during the period from the mid nineteenth century to the outbreak of war in 1914 Firstly how far did imperial Austrian society experience a process of militarization comparable to that of other European countries Secondly how far did the military sphere foster popular patriotism in the multinational state Various manifestations of military culture including hero cults and above all military veterans associations provide the main subject for analysis in this volume After exploring the historical development of military culture in the Habsburg Monarchy Cole explains how the long reign of Emperor Franz Joseph I constituted a decisive phase in the militarization of Austrian society with the dynasty and state emphasizing the military s role as the locus of loyalty Popular manifestations of military culture such as the hero cult surrounding Field Marshal Radetzky and military veterans associations complemented the official agenda in many respects However veterans associations in particular constituted a political mobilization of the lower middle and lower classes who asserted their own interests and position in civil society as is shown by case studies of regions of the Austrian state with significant Italian speaking populations Trentino and the Littoral State attempts to assert greater control of veterans activities led to national and political opposition at a time when tensions over militarism and foreign policy increased The Black and the Gold thus raises the question of whether the military was really a bulwark of the multinational state or rather a polarizing force in imperial Austrian society The Anthropological Field on the Margins of Europe, 1945-1991 Aleksandar Boskovic,Chris Hann,2013 The social lives of the peoples of the Balkans have long stimulated the imaginations of their northern European neighbors These peoples and places have anthropological traditions of their own shaped initially by nationalist movements and later by socialism and other political constraints From an anthropological perspective this book explores the region between Greece and Slovenia when political pressures were strongest in the era of the Cold War Yet the environments were by no means uniformly repressive The study provides indispensable insights for new generations pursuing innovative research agendas in this region in the new century It raises deeper issues about the boundaries and substance of the anthropological endeavor Series Halle Studies in the Anthropology of Eurasia Vol 29
