Procès-verbaux de l'Académie Royale de peinture et de sculpture (1648-1793), publiés pour la Société de l'Histoire de l'Art Français d'après les registres originaux conservés à l'Ecole des Beaux-Arts Anatole de Montaiglon, 1875 The Académie Royale de Peinture et de Sculpture Christian Michel, 2018-02-06 The Académie Royale de Peinture et de Sculpture French Academy of Painting and Sculpture perhaps the single most influential art institution in history governed the arts in France for more than 150 years from its founding in 1648 until its abolition in 1793 Christian Michel's sweeping study presents an authoritative in depth analysis of the Académie's history and legacy The Académie Royale assembled nearly all of the important French artists working at the time maintained a virtual monopoly on teaching and exhibitions enjoyed a priority in obtaining royal commissions and deeply influenced the artistic landscape in France Yet the institution remains little understood today all commentary on it during its existence and since its abolition is based on prejudices both favorable and critical that have shaped the way the institution has been appraised This book takes a different approach Rather than judging the Académie Royale Michel unravels existing critical discourse to consider the nuances and complexities of the academy's history reexamining its goals the shifting power dynamics both within the institution and in the larger political landscape and its relationship with other French academies and guilds

Procès-verbaux de l'Académie royale de peinture et de sculpture, 1648-1793: 1745-1755 Académie royale de peinture et de sculpture (France), 1885 Acad?e Royale Hannah Williams, 2017-07-05 From its establishment in 1648 until its disbanding in 1793 after the French Revolution the Académie Royale de Peinture et de Sculpture was the centre of the Parisian art world Taking the reader behind the scenes of this elite bastion of French art theory education and practice this engaging study uncovers the fascinating histories official and unofficial of that artistic community Through an innovative approach to portraits their values functions and lives as objects this book explores two faces of the Académie Official portraits grant us insider access to institutional hierarchies ideologies rituals customs and everyday experiences in the Académie's Louvre apartments Unofficial portraits in turn reveal hidden histories of artists personal relationships family networks intimate friendships and bitter rivalries Drawing on both art historical and anthropological frames of analysis this book offers insightful interpretations of portraits read through and against documentary evidence from the archives to create a rich story of people places and objects Theoretically informed rigorously researched and historically grounded this book sheds new light on the inner workings of the Académie Its discoveries and compelling narrative make an invaluable and accessible contribution to our understanding of this pre eminent European institution and the social lives of artists in early modern Paris Procès-verbaux de l'Académie royale de peinture et de sculpture, 1648-1793: 1756-1768 Académie royale de peinture et de sculpture (France),1886 Procès-verbaux de l'Académie royale de peinture et de sculpture, 1648-1793: 1780-1788 Académie royale de peinture et de sculpture (France),1889 Enlightened Animals in Eighteenth-Century Art Sarah Cohen,2021-02-11 How do our senses help us to understand the world This question which preoccupied Enlightenment thinkers also emerged as a key theme in depictions of animals in eighteenth century art This book examines the ways in which painters such as Chardin as well as sculptors porcelain modelers and other decorative designers portrayed animals as sensing subjects who physically confirmed the value of material experience The sensual style known today as the Rococo encouraged the proliferation of animals as exemplars of empirical inquiry ranging from the popular subject of the monkey artist to the alchemical wonders of the life sized porcelain animals created for the Saxon court Examining writings on sensory knowledge by La Mettrie Condillac Diderot and other philosophers side by side with depictions of the animal in art Cohen argues that artists promoted the animal as a sensory subject while also validating the material basis of their own professional practice Adélaïde Labille-Guiard Laura Auricchio,2009 This is an exploration of the life and works of one of revolutionary France s most significant female artists It traces the story of her rise and fall in the context of her tumultuous times Art, Honor and Success in The Dutch Republic Judith Noorman,2025-10-01 Focusing on the interrelationship between Jacob van Loo s art honor and career this book argues that Van Loo s lifelong success and unblemished reputation were by no means incompatible as art historians have long assumed with his specialization in painting nudes and his conviction for manslaughter Van Loo s iconographic specialty the nude allowed his clientele to present themselves as judges of beauty and display their mastery of decorum while his portraiture perfectly expressed his clients social and political ambitions Van Loo s honor explains why his success lasted a lifetime whereas that of Rembrandt Frans Hals and Vermeer did not Taking an interdisciplinary approach this book reinterprets the manslaughter case as a sign that Van Loo s elite patrons recognized him as a gentleman and highly esteemed artist Uniquely this book redefines Van Loo s place within and contribution to the Golden Age of Dutch painting consistently discussing Van Loo in relation to his contemporaries demonstrates that honor was a precondition for artistic success allows new insight into the relation between honor artistic success and socially acceptable behavior particularly of artists in the Dutch Golden Age

Pastiche, Fashion, and Galanterie in Chardin's Genre Subjects Paula Radisich,2013-12-12 This book analyzes the genre subjects created by Jean Sim on Chardin in the 1730s and 1740s as exemplars of a period specific aesthetic known as the go t moderne or Modern taste a category shaped by the literary Quarrel of the Ancients versus the Moderns Sporting Cultures, 1650-1850 Daniel O'Quinn,Alexis Tadié,2018-01-01 Sporting Cultures 1650 1850 is a collection of essays that charts important developments in the study of sport in the eighteenth century Eighteenth-Century Art Worlds Michael Yonan,Stacey Sloboda,2019-02-21 While the connected international character of today s art world is well known the eighteenth century too had a global art world Eighteenth Century Art Worlds is the first book to attempt a map of the global art world of the eighteenth century Fourteen essays from a distinguished group of scholars explore both cross cultural connections and local specificities of art production and consumption in Africa the Americas Asia and Europe The result is an account of a series of interconnected and asymmetrical art worlds that were well developed in the eighteenth century Capturing the full material diversity of eighteenth century art this book considers painting and sculpture alongside far more numerous prints and decorative objects Analyzing the role of place in the history of eighteenth century art it bridges the disciplines of art history and cultural geography and draws attention away from any one place as a privileged art historical site while highlighting places such as Manila Beijing Mexico City and London as significant points on globalized map of the eighteenth century art world Eighteenth Century Art Worlds combines a broad global perspective on the history of art with careful attention to how global artistic concerns intersect with local ones offering a framework for future studies in global art history

Lajer-Burcharth,2018-01-08 A new interpretation of the development of artistic modernity in eighteenth century France What can be gained from considering a painting not only as an image but also a material object How does the painter s own experience of the process of making matter for our understanding of both the painting and its maker The Painter s Touch addresses these questions to offer a radical reinterpretation of three paradigmatic French painters of the eighteenth century In this beautifully illustrated book Ewa Lajer Burcharth provides close readings of the works of François Boucher Jean Sim on Chardin and Jean Honor Fragonard entirely recasting our understanding of these painters practice Using the notion of touch she examines the implications of their strategic investment in materiality and sheds light on the distinct contribution of painting to the culture of the Enlightenment Lajer Burcharth traces how the distinct logic of these painters work the operation of surface in Boucher the deep materiality of Chardin and the dynamic morphological structure in Fragonard contributed to the formation of artistic identity Through the notion of touch she repositions these painters in the artistic culture of their time shifting attention from institutions such as the academy and the Salon to the realms of the market the medium and the body Lajer Burcharth analyzes Boucher s commercial tact Chardin s interiorized craft and Fragonard s materialization of eros Foregrounding the question of experience that of the painters and of the people they represent she shows how painting as a medium contributed to the Enlightenment s discourse on the self in both its individual and social functions By examining what paintings actually say in brushstrokes texture and paint The Painter s Touch transforms our understanding of the role of painting in the emergence of modernity and provides new readings of some of the most important and beloved works of art of the era

and Visual Culture Maria Pia Di Bella, James Elkins, 2013-06-26 The presentation of bodies in pain has been a major concern in Western art since the time of the Greeks The Christian tradition is closely entwined with such themes from the central images of the Passion to the representations of bloody martyrdoms The remnants of this tradition are evident in contemporary images from Abu Ghraib In the last forty years the body in pain has also emerged as a recurring theme in performance art Recently authors such as Elaine Scarry Susan Sontag and Giorgio Agamben have written about these themes The scholars in this volume add to the discussion analyzing representations of pain in art and the media Their essays are firmly anchored on consideration of the images not on whatever actual pain the subjects suffered At issue is representation before and often apart from events in the world Part One concerns practices in which the appearance of pain is understood as expressive Topics discussed include the strange dynamics of faked pain and real pain contemporary performance art international photojournalism surrealism and Renaissance and Baroque art Part Two concerns representations that cannot be readily assigned to that genealogy the Chinese form of execution known as lingchi popularly the death of a thousand cuts whippings in the Belgian Congo American lynching photographs Boer War concentration camp photographs and recent American capital punishment These examples do not comprise a single alternate genealogy but are united by the absence of an intention to represent pain The book concludes with a roundtable discussion where the authors discuss the ethical implications of viewing such images

Patriotic Taste Colin B. Bailey, 2002-01-01 During the final decades of the ancien régime prominent collectors in Paris commissioned and collected French paintings of the period works by Greuze Fragonard David and others that together comprised l'Ecole Française the French School In this book an art historian discusses six of these collectors and the collections they assembled showing that private patronage in this period was revitalized by this patriotic desire to collect contemporary art Colin B Bailey explains why a taste for modern art emerged at this time and how it was encouraged and fostered Examining the relationship between artist and patron he discusses the degree of influence these enlightened patrons and collectors expected to exercise when new works were being commissioned Bailey shows that collectors of eighteenth century French painting seem not to have made rigid distinctions between the various genres or styles of the Academy's practitioners Instead history paintings and genre paintings both rococo and neo classical were exhibited proudly on their walls as superb examples of the French School
