'Dora' and 'Little Hans'* Sigmund Freud, 1977 Case Histories II Sigmund Freud, 1979 Case Histories I Sigmund Freud, 1980 Case Histories Sigmund Freud, 1977 Deleuze and Guattari: Guattari Gary Genosko, 2001 The Pilgrimage of Dorothy Richardson Joanne Winning, 2000 Pilgrimage Dorothy Richardson s thirteen volume opus of autobiographical fiction follows the entire arc of an independent woman s life in early twentieth century Britain It is one of the major works of the modernist period indeed it is considered by many a classic of modernist literature In this book Joanne Winning argues in this book however that Richardson s novels continue to be misunderstood in several important ways Winning is the first critic to fully explore the issues of lesbian identity in the novels Examining primary materials manuscript drafts and Richardson s previously unstudied correspondence Winning demonstrates that Pilgrimage contains a carefully constructed though concealed subtext of lesbian desire and sexuality The Pilgrimage of Dorothy Richardson explores the ways in which Richardson used such cultural forms as sexology psychoanalysis and other lesbian and modernist literature of her time to create an intertextual dialogue about lesbian identity Winning suggests that a sustained reading of lesbian sexuality in Pilgrimage is crucial to a more complete understanding of Richardson s long and sometimes difficult work Winning also places Pilgrimage in the context of other works by female modernist writers that record lesbian identity This approach Winning suggests is the first step toward recognizing and defining a literary movement that can be termed lesbian modernism as well as toward a deeper understanding of how lesbian modernist writers helped shape modernist literature as a whole The Gendered Cyborg Fiona Hovenden, Linda Janes, Gill Kirkup, Kathryn Woodward, 2013-09-13 The Gendered Cyborg explores the relationship between representation technoscience and gender through the metaphor of the cyborg The contributors argue that the figure of the cyborg offers ways of thinking about the relationship between culture and technology people and machines which disrupt the power of science to enforce the categories through which we think about being human male and female Taking inspiration from Donna Haraway s groundbreaking Manifesto for Cyborgs the articles consider how the cyborg has been used in cultural representation from reproductive technology to sci fi and question whether the cyborg is as powerful a symbol as is often claimed The different sections of the reader explore the construction of gender categories through science the interaction of technoscience and gender in contemporary science fiction film such as Blade Runner and the Alien series debates around modern reproductive technology such as ultrasound scans and IVF assessing their benefits and constraints for women issues relating to artificial

Landscape for a Good Woman Carolyn Steedman, 1987 This book is about lives lived out on the borderlands lives for which the central interpretative devices of the culture don't quite work It has a childhood at its centre my childhood a personal past and it is about the disruption of that fifties childhood by the one my mother had lived out before me and the stories she told about it Intricate and inspiring this unusual book uses autobiographical elements to depict a mother and her daughter and two working class childhoods Burnley in the 1920s South London in the 1950s and to find a place for their stories in history and politics in psychoanalysis and feminism Provocative and quite dazzling in its ambitions Beautifully written intellectually compelling Judith Walkowitz Carolyn Steedman's 1950s South London childhood was shaped by her mother's longing What she actually wanted were real things real entities things she materially lacked things that a culture and a social system withheld from her When the world didn't deliver the goods she held the world to blame When Carolyn Steedman grows up and begins to look for reflections of her and her mother's lives in history theory and literature she finds that the tradition of cultural criticism that has employed working class lives and their rare expression in literature has made solid and concrete the absence of psychological individuality of subjectivity Through an in depth comparison of personal experience and prevailing political and social science theory on the psychology and attitudes of working class people Landscape for a Good Woman challenges an intellectual tradition that denies its subjects a particular story a personal history except when that story illustrates a general thesis In this poignantly written and thoroughly researched work the common theoretical conclusion that the survival struggles of working class people precludes the time necessary for more genteel elaboration of relationships is shot full of delightfully life affirming holes From 500 Great Books by Women review by Jesse Larsen Reclaiming Genders Stephen Whittle, 2016-10-06 This collection of essays is an interdisciplinary work bringing together an internationally acclaimed group of transgender writers Informed by both academic and street experiences it considers the practical issues faced in changing the world view of gender as well as the limitations of queer feminism and post modernism In a wide ranging set of contributions it addresses our engendered places now and what we can aim for in the future It evaluates the mechanisms we can use to galvanize both the micro theories of gender as a personal experience of oppression and the macro theories of gender as a site of social regulation The collection aims to take identity politics and reclaim identity for the self Routledge Library Editions: Women, Feminism and Literature Isobel Armstrong, 2013-12-19 Reissuing seminal works originally published between 1979 and 1994 Routledge Library Editions Women Feminism and Literature offers a selection of scholarship from a time of great change in feminist studies and literary studies Topics cover all aspects of women's literature gender and feminism through literary criticism and the work of women literary theorists Psychology and 'Human Nature' Peter Ashworth, 2012-11-12 Psychology and Human Nature problematizes what psychology usually takes for granted the meaning of the psyche or human nature Peter Ashworth provides a coherent account of many of the major schools of thought in psychology and its related disciplines including sociobiology and evolutionary psychology psychoanalysis cognitive psychology radical behaviourism existentialism discursive psychology and postmodernism For each approach he considers the claims or assumptions being made about human nature especially regarding issues of consciousness the self the body other people and the physical world Psychology and Human Nature will be essential reading for all students of psychology Series Details The Psychology Focus Series provides students with a new focus on key topic areas in psychology Each short book presents clear in depth coverage of a discrete area with many applied examples assumes no prior knowledge of psychology has been written by an experienced teacher has chapter summaries annotated further reading and a glossary of key terms Feminist Film Theory Sue Thornham, 1999-04 For the past twenty five years cinema has been a vital terrain on which feminist debates about culture representation and identity have been fought This anthology charts the history of those debates bringing together the key classic essays in feminist film theory Feminist Film Theory maps the impact of major theoretical developments on this growing field from structuralism and psychoanalysis in the 1970s to post colonial theory queer theory and postmodernism in the 1990s Covering a wide range of topics including oppressive images woman as fetishized object of desire female spectatorship and the cinematic pleasures of black women and lesbian women Feminist Film Theory is an indispensable reference for scholars and students in the field Contributors include Judith Butler Carol J Clover Barbara Creed Michelle Citron Mary Ann Doane Teresa De Lauretis Jane Gaines Christine Gledhill Molly Haskell bell hooks Claire Johnston Annette Kuhn Julia Lesage Judith Mayne Tania Modleski Laura Mulvey B Ruby Rich Kaja Silverman Sharon Smith Jackie Stacey Janet Staiger Anna Marie Taylor Valerie Walkerdine and Linda Williams Counselling Ideologies Lyndsey Moon, 2016-05-13 Counselling Ideologies draws our attention to the dilemmas inherent within the therapeutic ideologies commonly subscribed to by psychotherapists and counsellors working with those who challenge heteronormative models and approaches Identifying the modernist heteronormative understandings of the world implicit in the more popular models this book employs queer theory to challenge these ideologies drawing on disciplines both within and outside of counselling and psychology as well as sociology cultural studies and various ethnographic accounts It highlights the dilemmas faced by those who may wish to practise as queer therapists addressing not only therapeutic dilemmas but also issues such as identity race coming out experiences internalised homophobia empathy ethical issues bisexuality and pathologisation Comprising contributions from both academic experts and practitioners from the UK USA and Australia this book represents a new approach to counselling and psychotherapy that will appeal not only to sociologists and those working in the field of mental health but also to scholars of race and ethnicity gender queer studies and queer theory Lesbian Configurations Renée C. Hoogland, 1997 Library Journal In Your Face Mandy Merck, 2000-10 At a time when sexy can be an adjective for anything when sexual awareness is declared to be advancing faster in months than in the past half century and when pundits warn of sexual overload the actual representation of sex is still deemed confrontational aggressive in your face While critics accuse the academy of an obsession with sexuality they also complain that nothing that appears to refer to sex really does In readings ranging across film drama opera fine art and critical theory Mandy Merck considers these phenomena as well as the role of the dog in anti porn propaganda the unacknowledged significance of the lesbian hand and the early retirement of the phallus Other topics include the relationship of women s tennis and prostitution the gendering of the wild and the tame in the age of AIDS and the sexlessness of postmodern criticism In Your Face ends with the face and its alleged desecration by fellatio Germaine Greer s condemnation of Bill Clinton for fucking the faces of little girls is examined in the light of one of Monica Lewinsky s endearments for the President fuckface In a country whose last great Presidential scandal revolved around a key witness known only as Deep Throat and whose current Chief Executive works in the Oral Office giving head is going down in history Analyzing the strange relationship of Linda Lovelace Camille Paglia and Paul de Man In Your Face
