Last Years of Benjamin Franklin's Life

The sketch above is drawn from an oil-painting made in 1876. It shows Benjamin Franklin at his home in Philadelphia in 1787, when he was within three years of the close of his life. The painting was based on an account of a visit to Dr. Franklin by Dr. Manasseh Cutler in 1787. Dr. Cutler wrote:

"Dr. Franklin lives in Market street. We found him in his garden, sitting upon a grass-plot, under a very large mulberry tree, with several other gentlemen and two or three ladies. The tea-table was spread under the tree, and Mrs. Bache served tea to the company."

Franklin wrote to Bishop Shipley in 1786: "My domestic circumstances, of which you kindly desire to hear something, are at present as happy as I could desire them." To Madam Brillon, the lady in France to whom he wrote his well-known "Story of the Whistle," Franklin wrote in 1788:

"I am in a country where I have the happiness of being universally respected and beloved. I live in a good house which I built twenty-five years ago, contrived to my mind, and made still more convenient by an addition since my return. A dutiful and affectionate daughter, with her husband and six children compose my family. The children are all promising, and even the youngest, who is but four years old, contributes to my amusement. The eldest, Benjamin, has finished his studies at our university, and is preparing to enter into business as a printer.

"My rents and incomes are amply sufficient for all my present occasions; and if no unexpected misfortunes happen during the little time I have to live, I shall leave a handsome estate to be divided among my relatives."
