The Pop Art Tradition - Responding to Mass-Culture Eric Shanes, 2019-12-09 This book offers a radically new perspective on the so called Pop Art creative dynamic that has been around since the 1950s It does so by enhancing the term Pop Art which has always been recognised as a misnomer for it obscures far more than it clarifies Instead the book connects all the art in question to mass culture which has always provided its core inspiration Above all the book suggests that this Mass Culture Art has created a new Modernist tradition which is still flourishing The book traces that tradition down the forty and more years since Pop Mass Culture Art first came into being in the 1950s and locates it within its larger historical context Naturally the book discusses the major contributors to the Pop Mass Culture Art tradition right down to the present in the process including a number of artists who have never previously been connected with so called Pop Art but who have always been primarily interested in mass culture and who are therefore partially or totally connected with Pop Mass Culture Art The book reproduces in colour and discusses in great detail over 150 of the key works of the Pop Mass Culture Art tradition Often this involves the close reading of images whose meaning has largely escaped understanding previously The result is a book that qualitatively is fully on a level with Eric Shanes's other best selling and award winning writings

Feminism Reframed Alexandra M. Kokoli, 2009-10-02 Feminism

Reframed Reflections on Art and Difference addresses the on going dialogue between feminism art history and visual culture from contemporary scholarly perspectives Over the past thirty years the critical interventions of feminist art historians in the academy the press and the art world have not only politicised and transformed the themes methods and conceptual tools of art history but have also contributed to the emergence of new interdisciplinary areas of investigation including notably that of visual culture Although the impact of such fruitful transformations is indisputable their exact contribution to contemporary scholarship remains a matter for debate not least because feminism itself has changed significantly since the Women s Liberation Movement Feminism Reframed reviews and revises existing feminist art histories but also reasserts the need for continuous feminist interventions in the academy the art world and beyond With contributions by Anthea Behm Alisia Grace Chase Jennifer G Germann Catherine Grant Joanne Heath Ruth Hemus Alexandra Kokoli Beth Anne Lauritis Griselda Pollock Karen Roulstone Anne Swartz and Sue Tate Coming at the moment when contemporary art practices are themselves involved in re cycling re evaluating and re enacting the past this collection asks how feminism s own troubled histories can be reframed productively in the present The questions that feminism raised in the 1970s and 80s are still pertinent and are addressed in a number of original essays What does gender equality mean in the arts How can women s subjectivities be articulated or performed differently in art practices Can attention to gender enable us to engage with complex differences of race sexuality and class of age and generation Do we need new interpretative and conceptual models for writing about art Alexandra Kokoli s thoughtful and illuminating introduction reminds us that reframing is a risky but exciting business if it makes us ask these questions anew with attention to the politics and aesthetics of the present Rosemary Betterton Lancaster University
