Poplar Forest And Thomas Jefferson:

Poplar Forest and Thomas Jefferson S. Allen Chambers,1993 Poplar Forest Travis C. McDonald,2023-05-08 Poplar Forest is one of two personal residences that Thomas Jefferson designed for himself the other being Monticello Jefferson's wife Martha Wayles Skelton Jefferson inherited the land originally a 6 861 acre parcel at her father's death in 1773 but Jefferson did not begin construction on the house until 1806 and at his death in 1826 he was still working on his little getaway Despite its audacious design it was the first documented octagonal residence in America and the fact that it is one of the very few extant Jeffersonian structures Poplar Forest is not nearly so well known today as its sibling seventy miles to the northeast Undoubtedly this is due in large part to its more remote location in Bedford County Additionally the house remained in private hands until 1984 Travis McDonald situates the site in its rightful position as a historically important Virginia house and he documents its story as central to Jefferson's life and approach to architecture including details of the enslaved community at his western retreat This new informed account will appeal to architectural historians and visitors to the villa retreat as well as to those interested in Jefferson's work and legacy Jefferson's Poplar Forest Barbara Heath,Jack Gary,2012-05-27 Thomas Jefferson once called his plantation Poplar Forest the most valuable of my possessions For Jefferson Poplar Forest was a private retreat for him to escape the hordes of visitors and everyday pressures of his iconic estate Monticello Jefferson's Poplar Forest uses the knowledge gained from long term and interdisciplinary research to explore the experiences of a wide range of people who lived and worked there between the American Revolution and the Civil War Multiple archaeological digs reveal details about the lives of Jefferson subsequent owners and their families and the slaves and descendants who labored and toiled at the site From the plantation house to the weeds in the garden Barbara Heath Jack Gary and numerous contributors examine the landscapes of the property investigating the relationships between the people objects and places of Poplar Forest As the first book length study of the archaeology of a president's estate Jefferson's Poplar Forest offers a compelling and uniquely specific look into the lives of those who called Poplar Forest home Thomas Jefferson's Poplar Forest ,1997 Features Poplar Forest a plantation and estate in Forest Virginia that belonged to U S President Thomas Jefferson Notes that Jefferson designed the home which he began constructing in 1806 Posts contact information via mailing address and telephone and fax numbers Highlights grounds tours and exhibits admission information directions to the historic site and a calendar of events Details the history of the plantation and the restoration of the historic site A Docent's Tour of Thomas Jefferson's Poplar Forest George Roland Wills,2012 The Puzzle of Poplar Forest ,1991 Author argues that Jefferson based the architecture of Poplar Forest on Indian architecture Thomas Jefferson's Poplar Forest Amy E.
