The International Handbook of the Demography of Race and Ethnicity Rogelio Sáenz, David G. Embrick, Néstor P. Rodríguez, 2015-06-03 Examining key countries in every region of world this handbook presents population profiles and analyses concerning racial ethnic disparities and changing intergroup relations Inside prominent scholars from various parts of the world and disciplines address the links between stratification demography and conflict across the globe Organized by region continent coverage for each profiled country includes demographic information a historical overview that addresses past racial ethnic conflict identification of the most salient demographic trends and issues that the country faces theoretical issues related to the linkages between stratification demography and conflict methodological issues including quality of data and cutting edge methods to better understand the issue at hand and details on the possible future of the existing trends and issues with particular emphasis on public policy and human rights This handbook will help readers to better understand the commonalities and differences that exist globally in the interplay between stratification demography and conflict In addition it also provides an excellent inventory of theoretical perspectives and methodological approaches that are needed to better comprehend this issue This handbook will appeal to students researchers and policy analysts in the areas of race and ethnic relations demography inequality international sociology international relations foreign studies social geography and social development Livelihood Pathways of Indigenous People in Vietnam's Central Highlands Huỳnh Anh Chi

Thái,2018-01-31 This study focuses on impacts of the environmental and socio economic transformation on the indigenous people s livelihoods in Vietnam s Central Highlands recent decades since the country s reunification in 1975 The first empirical section sheds light on multiple external conditions policy reforms population trends and market forces exposed onto local people The role of human and social capital is examined again in a specific livelihood of community based tourism to testify the resilience level of local people when coping with constraints The study concludes with an outlook on implications of development processed which still places agriculture at the primary position livelihood and pays attention to human capital and social capital of indigenous groups in these highlands Politics of Ethnic Classification in Vietnam

Masako Itō,2013 Officially the Socialist Republic of Vietnam has a total of 54 ethnic groups including the majority Kinh and 53 ethnic minority groups This book examines the history of the ethnic group determination process highlighting some of the challenges the official policies pose to both the state and the affected peoples Vietnam has proudly embraced its multiethnic identity seeking the equality of all ethnic groups in the interests of national unity Yet among other things it appears that the total number of ethnic categories was rather arbitrarily determined initially and then fiercely defended by influential politicians and academics Furthermore the extensive field surveys reveal that ethnic policies are frequently manipulated at the regional and local levels in pursuit of economic interests and not infrequently to the detriment of those they were intended to benefit Series Kyoto Area Studies on Asia Vol 23 Professor Ito has succeeded admirably in juxtaposing her study of official documents interviews with officials and academics and the results of her own excellent first hand field work to demonstrate why ethnic classification in Vietnam has been far more a political than a scientific project Her book deserves to be read not only by those interested in Vietnam but also by others interested in the politics of ethnicity more generally Pacific Affairs Vol 87 No 4 December 2014 Vietnam Edward Parker,2005 Examines the society geography and history of Vietnam
