Croinin,William Edward Vaughan,2005 A New History of Ireland, Volume VI W. E. Vaughan,2010-04-01 A New History of Ireland is the largest scholarly project in modern Irish history In 9 volumes it provides a comprehensive new synthesis of modern scholarship on every aspect of Irish history and prehistory from the earliest geological and archaeological evidence through the Middle Ages down to the present day Volume VI opens with a character study of the period followed by ten chapters of narrative history and a study of Ireland in 1914 It includes further chapters on the economy literature the Irish language music arts education administration and the public service and emigration United States Political Science Documents ,1985 Highway Research Record ,1963 Current World Affairs ,1994 Public Health Reports ,1989 Statistical Register for ... and Previous Years Australia. Commonwealth Bureau of Census and Statistics. New South Wales Office,1922 Resources in education ,1991 The State and the Family Anne Hélène Gauthier,1996 Based on an original analysis of qualitative and quantitative material from twenty two industrialized countries this book traces the development of state support for families

since the turn of the century Assembling elements from demography sociology and economics it argues that demographic changes have been a major force in bringing population and family issues on to the political agenda The decline in fertility the increase in divorce rates and lone parenthood and the entry of women into the labour force have all reduced the relevance of systems of state support aimed at traditional male breadwinner housewife families and in so doing have forced governments to reform the existing measures of family support However the exact nature of these reforms and the ways family policy has evolved over time differ considerably across countries
