desolation of communities and the destruction of cultures Publishers website Dark Tourism and Crime Derek Dalton, 2014-11-20 Dark tourism has become widespread and diverse It has passed into popular culture vernacular deployed in guide books as a short hand descriptor for sites that are associated with death suffering and trauma However whilst books have been devoted to dark tourism as a general topic no single text has sought to explore dark tourism in spaces where crime mass murder genocide State sanctioned torture and violence has occurred as an organising theme Dark Tourism and Crime explores the socio cultural contours of this unique type of tourism and explains why spaces places where crime has occurred fascinate and attract tourists The book is marked by an ethics of respect for the suffering a place has experienced and an imperative to learn something tangible about the history and legacy of that suffering Based on empirical ethnographic research it takes the reader from the remnants of Auschwitz concentration camp to the tranguil Australian island of Tasmania to explore precisely what things a dark tourist might encounter architecture art installations gardens memorials physical traces of crime and how these things invoke and evoke past crimes This volume furthers understanding of dark tourism and will be of interest to students researchers and academics of criminology tourism and cultural studies Cambridge Handbook of Forensic Psychology Jennifer M. Brown, Miranda A. H. Horvath, 2021-12-09 In the decade since the publication of the first edition of The Cambridge Handbook of Forensic Psychology the field has expanded into areas such as social work and education while maintaining the interest of criminal justice researchers and policy makers This new edition provides cutting edge and comprehensive coverage of the key theoretical perspectives assessment methods and interventions in forensic psychology The chapters address substantive topics such as acquisitive crime domestic violence mass murder and sexual violence while also exploring emerging areas of research such as the expansion of cybercrime particularly child sexual exploitation as well as aspects of terrorism and radicalisation Reflecting the global reach of forensic psychology and its wide range of perspectives the international team of contributors emphasise diversity and cross reference between adults adolescents and children to deliver a contemporary picture of the discipline The Evil 100 Martin Gilman Wolcott, 2004 Who was the evilest of the evil the baddest of the bad For armies of armchair thrill seekers and shudder hounds everywhere The Evil 100 presents a cold heartless ranking of the world s 100 most malevolent people past and present Including well known figures from Stalin to Jack the Ripper to Bin Laden obscure characters like King Astyges who punished a servant by feeding the man his own son and evil organisations such as the Klu Klux Klan This makes for more than a simple catalogue of atrocities it is a serious examination of the darker side to human nature Horizon Barry Lopez, 2019-03-19 ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR THE NEW YORK TIMES NPR THE GUARDIAN From pole to pole and across decades of lived experience National Book Award winning author Barry Lopez delivers his most far ranging yet personal work to date Horizon moves indelibly immersively through the author's travels to six regions of the world from Western Oregon to the High Arctic from the Gal pagos to the Kenyan desert from Botany Bay in Australia to finally unforgettably the ice shelves of Antarctica

Along the way Lopez probes the long history of humanity s thirst for exploration including the prehistoric peoples who trekked across Skraeling Island in northern Canada the colonialists who plundered Central Africa an enlightenment era Englishman who sailed the Pacific a Native American emissary who found his way into isolationist Japan and today s ecotourists in the tropics And always throughout his journeys to some of the hottest coldest and most desolate places on the globe Lopez searches for meaning and purpose in a broken world Prison Jacqueline Z. Wilson, 2008 Prison Cultural Memory and Dark Tourism discusses decommissioned Australian prisons currently or potentially functioning as tourist attractions In particular it addresses a fundamental question Do the interpretations and presentations of the sites include and fairly represent the personal stories and experiences associated with those prisons. The author argues that the conventional understanding of most of Australia s historical prisons fosters a radical othering of inmates and with it the exclusion distortion and historical neglect of their narratives This book examines avenues via which neglected narratives may be glimpsed or inferred presenting a number of examples This remedies the imbalance in some degree and tests such avenues potential as resources for inclusive interpretations by public historians and curators The book also focuses on the influence of celebrity prisoners whose links to the penal system are exploited as promotional features by the sites and in some cases by the individuals themselves Their narratives provide broad if unwitting support for the system and for the othering of the more general inmate population The ramifications of the above with regard to aspects of Australian identity mean that certain facets of the Australian character traditionally held to be emblematic are affected These effects have subtle but tangible consequences for modern Australians collective memory and deleterious consequences for current popular attitudes to penal practice Dangerous to Know Susanna Lobez, 2016-02-01 Dangerous to Know documents murders known and not so well known conmen and their victims street gangs of the early twentieth century crime lords of the 1920s dock wars of the 1970s bikers sex offenders and the drug gangs of today as well as the wrongly accused and wrongly convicted They re all here as well as some of the police lawyers and judges who have tried to deal with them

Reshaping Planning with Culture Greg Young,2016-04-08 Planning is described as being increasingly sidelined by the impacts of neo liberal restructuring At the same time culture is nowadays seen as the world's key intellectual resource possessing new creative weight in sociological economic and environmental terms. This book argues that in the light of this cultural turn there is the opportunity to reposition planning and proposes an original practical and robust system of culturisation. Culturisation is defined as the ethical critical and reflexive integration of culture into planning and potentially other areas such as public administration corporate strategy and development thinking Cultural theory planning theory global governance policy and recent innovative culturised practices are all explored to this end. The new theoretical and practical approach put forward shows how deeper richer and more relevant ideas about culture can be utilized in planning and is illustrated with international examples and two major case studies detailing new vistas for a refurbished planning

Human Bullets, a Soldier's Story of Port Arthur Tadayoshi Sakurai,1909 In Search of Hobart Peter Timms, 2010-10 Peter Timms leads us on a journey through his adopted city of Hobart Australia s smallest most southerly least prosperous but arguably most beautiful state capital He reveals a city in transition shaking off its dark and troubled past to claim its special place in the contemporary world going boutique nice and slow as one overseas visitor notes From Hobart's convict legacy its spectacular natural setting heritage architecture and climate to crime rates economic hardship and the recent disfigurements of the developers Timms brings a wealth of fresh insights exploring the city with a mixture of affection admiration frustration and sadness interviewing a wide range of residents along the way Those who have experienced Hobart as tourists will be surprised and intrigued by the lively complex society this book reveals Those who live here will surely discover their city anew Between the Psyche and the Polis Anne Whitehead, 2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 Incorporating studies of Freudian and Marxist approaches to questions of history and memory this timely collection illuminates how history is being refigured in contemporary literary cultural and theoretical studies. The contributors to this volume invite the reader to attend to the forms linguistic visual monumental by which a connection with or separation from the past takes place It is current thinking about memory s relationship to history and the ongoing critical reassessment of historicism that preoccupies this collection The volume explores the ways in which current thinking about the past operates within a dialogic space and can be located in relation to multiple perspectives. Thus cultural memory can be seen not just as a recent development within the field of cultural studies but as constructing a between space which also draws in aspects of psychoanalysis Similarly trauma theory may usefully be conceptualized as operating in a rich and complex dynamic between deconstruction and the work of Freud Temporality memory and the past are attended to here in terms of the dislocations of narrative of resistances to linear genealogies to aid the reader in making unanticipated connections between theories and cultures and between the demands of the psyche and the polis Restorative Justice & Responsive Regulation John Braithwaite, 2002 Braithwaite's argument against punitive justice systems and for restorative justice systems establishes that there are good theoretical and empirical grounds for anticipating that well designed restorative justice processes will restore victims offenders and communities better than existing criminal justice practices Counterintuitively he also shows that a restorative justice system may deter incapacitate and rehabilitate more effectively than a punitive system This is particularly true when the restorative justice system is embedded in a responsive regulatory framework that opts for deterrence only after restoration repeatedly fails and incapacitation only after escalated deterrence fails Braithwaite's empirical research demonstrates that active deterrence under the dynamic regulatory pyramid that is a hallmark of the restorative justice system he supports is far more effective than the passive deterrence that is notable in the stricter sentencing grid of current criminal justice systems The Australian Legend and Its Discontents Richard Nile, 2000 The Australian Legend and Its Discontents explores the narrative construction of Australia and those storylines preferred by Australians when describing themselves and their nation How do Australians figure in literature film and television the visual arts and daily conversation As an introductory reader The Australian Legend and Its Discontentsis an indispensable tool for students and all those with a general interest in the nation and its people The book is complemented by electronic study and other notes for those who wish to explore further the issues of what it is to be Australian apinetwork com Horizonte Barry López, 2021-05-24 Una obra v vida y po tica que recuerda los viajes alrededor del mundo y los encuentros humanos animales y naturales que han dado forma a una vida extraordinaria Llev ndonos casi de polo a polo desde las megaciudades modernas a algunas de las regiones m s remotas de la Tierra y durante d cadas de experiencia vivida Barry Lopez ofrece su trabajo m s extenso y personal hasta la fecha en un libro que se mueve de manera indeleble a trav s de sus viajes entre seis regiones del mundo desde el oeste de Oreg n hasta el Alto rtico desde Gal pagos hasta el desierto de Kenia desde la bah a de Botany en Australia hasta las plataformas de hielo de la Ant rtida Mientras Lopez tambi n investiga la larga historia de las b squedas y exploraciones de la humanidad incluidos los pueblos prehist ricos que cruzaron la isla de Skr ling en el norte de Canad los colonizadores que saquearon el frica central un ingl s de la poca de la Ilustraci n que naveg por el Pac fico un emisario nativo americano que encontr su camino en el aislamiento de Jap n y los ecoturistas de hoy en los tripicos A lo largo de sus viajes a algunos de los lugares m s c lidos fr os y desolados del mundo y a trav s de las amistades que forja en el camino con cient ficos arque logos artistas y residentes locales Lopez busca el significado y el prop sito en un mundo roto Un trabajo pico y revelador que expresa preocupaci n y frustraci n a la vez que ofrece humanidad y esperanza Collected Poems Margaret Scott,2000
