J. Cherryh, 1982 Lancelot Elaine Percivale Gawain Modred created people cloned to suit the purposes of their opulent owner aboard the Maid a fantasy of a spaceship They live in a kind of dream until they face a crisis they were never designed to master Journal of a voyage from Plymouth to Sierra Leone, ed. by H. Caswall William Latimer Neville, 1858 Alternate Realities C. J. Cherryh, 2000-12-01 Port Eternity Their names were Lancelot Elaine Percivale Gawain Mordred Lynette and Vivien and they were made people clone servants who worked aboard The Maid an anachronistic fantasy of a spaceship They had no idea of their origins from those old storytapes of romance chivalry heroism and betrayal until a ripple in the space time continuum sucked The Maid and her crew into a no man s land from which there could be no return and they were left alone to face a crisis which their ancient prototypes were never designed to master Wave Without a Shore Freedom was an isolated planet off the main spaceways and rarely visited by commercial spacers It wasn t that Freedom was inhospitable the problem was that outsiders tourists and traders claimed that the streets were crowded with mysterious blue robed aliens Native born humans however denied that these aliens existed until a planetary crisis forced a confrontation between the question of reality and the reality of the question Voyager in the Night Rafe Murray his sister Jillian and Jillian s husband Paul Gaines like many other out of luck spacers had come to newly built Endeavor Station to find their future Their tiny ship Lindy had been salvaged from the junk heap and fitted to mine ore from the mineral rich rings which circled Endeavor But their future proved to be far stranger than any of them imagined when a collision with a huge alien vessel provided them with the oddest first contact experience possible

Popular Arthurian Traditions Sally K. Slocum, 1992 Scholars of popular culture turn their attention to various expressions of the Arthurian legend most from the 20th century with a more balanced consideration of women writers characters and critics than has traditionally been the case Among the topics are the image of Morgan Le Fay postmodern Arthur Mark Twain Joseph Campbell and several recent movies No index Paper edition unseen 19 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR The Road Beyond the Town Michael S. J. Earls, 1912 The Port Folio , 1820 Silk and Potatoes Adam Roberts, 2022-06-08 This study constitutes the first to analyse the remarkable surge in popularity of Arthurian literature and art in the modern period from a broad range of instances of cultural production More novels with Arthurian themes have been published since the war than in any previous period and Silk and Potatoes provides detailed readings of some of the most famous including works by Marion Zimmer Bradley Anthony Burgess C J Cherryh Guy Gavriel Kay Mary Stewart Jack Vance and T H White In addition to examining Arthurian fiction with chapters on the general novel Historical fiction and Science Fiction this study examines the key cinematic examples of Arthuriana Boorman s Excalibur

Bresson's Lancelot du Lac, Rohmer's Perceval Le Gallois and Monty Python's The Holy Grail. A further chapter goes on to look at the myriad other forms of cultural production based on Arthurian themes from Bugs Bunny to Pop Music from the Camelot of JFK to the British National Lottery. This is a study that touches on many aspects of Arthuriana whilst developing two connected arguments about on the one hand the necessary anachronism of any modern Arthurian Literature and on the other the aesthetic political implications of this literature's success. The whole whilst rooted in the scholarly debates on the enduring appeal of King Arthur is written in an accessible and entertaining style. It will be of interest to students and teachers of Arthurian literature, film and popular culture.

Resurgence C. J. Cherryh, 2020-01-07. Now in mass market the twentieth book in the beloved Foreigner saga returns to the trials of diplomat Bren Cameron as he navigates the tenuous peace he has struck between human refugees and the alien atevi. Bren Cameron, diplomat in residence, usually represents the ruler of the atevi state. But Ilisidi the dowager has been known to borrow his services from time to time and she has her own notions how to solve the simmering hostilities in the south of the atevi continent, playing one problem against another. This time she is betting the hard won northern peace and the lives of the people on being right. She has commandeered the Red Train, taken aboard what passengers she chooses and headed for the snowy roof of the world where a hard scrabble town and its minor lord are the first pieces she intends to use.

The Port Folio, by Oliver Oldschool, 1820. The Cartesian Semantics of the Port Royal Logic John N. Martin, 2019-11-04. This book sets out for the first time in English and in the terms of modern logic the semantics of the Port Royal Logic La Logique ou l'Art de penser 1662-1685 of Antoine Arnauld and Pierre Nicole, perhaps the most influential logic book in the 17th and 18th centuries. Its goal is to explain how the Logic reworks the foundation of pre-Cartesian logic so as to make it compatible with Descartes' metaphysics. The Logic's authors forged a new theory of reference based on the medieval notion of objective being, which is essentially the modern notion of intentional content. Indeed, the book's central aim is to detail how the Logic reoriented semantics so that it centered on the notion of intentional content. This content, which the Logic calls comprehension, consists of an idea's defining modes. Mechanisms are defined in terms of comprehension that rework earlier explanations of central notions like conceptual inclusion, signification, abstraction, idea restriction, sensation, and most importantly, within the Logic's metatheory, the concept of idea extension, which is a new technical concept coined by the Logic. Although Descartes is famous for rejecting Aristotelianism, he says virtually nothing about technical concepts in logic. His followers fill the gap. By putting to use the doctrine of objective being, which had been a relatively minor part of medieval logic, they preserve more central semantic doctrines, especially a correspondence theory of truth. A recurring theme of the book is the degree to which the Logic hews to medieval theory. This interpretation is at odds with what has become a standard reading among French scholars according to which this 16th century work should be understood as rejecting earlier logic along with Aristotelian metaphysics and as putting in its place structures more like those of 19th century class theory.
